MISS MARY HERRELL

Deepest sympathy goes out to Mr. and Mrs. James Herrell, Weymouth Street, in the great sorrow which has come to them in the death of their eldest daughter, Miss Mary, who passed away at the Charlottetown Hospital at 6.10 last evening after an illness of only eight days. The deceased who had been book-keeper at The Examiner office for a number of years was of a particularly bright and agreeable disposition, capable and painstaking in her work and made many friends to whom the news of her death will come as a shock. She left Charlottetown a little over three weeks ago to spend her annual vacation in Boston. On her way home she became ill with that form of influenza now so prevalent in the New England States. Her condition not improving, she was removed last Sunday from her home to the City Hospital where her life hung in the balance until last evening when her gentle spirit passed away. Besides her parents there are three brothers, James John and Felix and one sister, Miss Margaret, the last named having also been quite ill with the same dread malady to all of whom the heartfelt sympathy of many friends will go out in their sad loss.
