which threatened to continue all day; the church was filled to capacity before the opening hour.

An opening anthem, "Onward and Upward" was rendered by the choir. Following the Offertory, a duet, "No Night There," was sung by Mrs. Angus Gillis and Miss Julia Graham.

The table was arranged by J. Gordon McKay, Chairman of the Memorial Committee, who also read the Roll Call of forty-seven names.

The services of those who came long distance to assist on this occasion were indeed much appreciated.

The unveiling of the Honor Roll is the culmination of a series of efforts extending for months back.

IS YOUR SHADOW IN THE WAY?

A HOME half lighted is like a home half warm—poor economy at the high cost of comfort.

Windows, for example, are needless annoyances. White or frosted Edison Mazda Lamps, in portable floor or table lamps, overcome this condition.

To obtain the best results, choose lamps with wide shades that throw the light upward as well as downward.

Near you is an Edison Mazda Lamp store, recognizable by the yellow and blue cartons.
