MR. STANLEY H. CASELEY Many friends in Kensington and vicinity were grieved and saddened to learn of the death at his home, Mrs. Stanley H. Caseley, which occurred in the early hours of Monday morning, Jan. 31st, following a short illness of pneumonia of 54 years. The late Mr. Caseley was one of nature's noblemen. Quiet, unassuming, humble, with an unerring sense of righteousness, a singleness of purpose, he trod the straight and narrow path that leads to the eternal Fatherland. His service, was the dominant keynote of his character; always doing for others, his was a life of almost nobility of soul that found expression in deeds of love and kindness to which women he came in contact. It may truly be said, that he went about doing good, serving God and his fellowman to the very best of his ability. He will long be remembered for his many acts of kindness, his unswerving devotion to duty, and his thoughtfulness for others.

He was a life long member of the Methodist Church, later the United, served on the official board, also a valued member of the choir, where he loved to use his gift of song in the service of praise to His Master. A son of the late Rev. Mr. Samuel Caseley, pioneer residents of the community, he married Miss Winnie Johnson, of Margate and resided on the homestead and farmed, after the death of his parents.

Baker; Nellie, Mrs. J. W. Hogg, and William Caseley.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 2nd, a short service was held at the home, and at 2 o'clock a public service was conducted in the United Church. In the presence of a congregation of mourners, relatives, friends and citizens that filled the edifice overflowing, the Pastor, Rev. A. D. Stirling officiated and delivered the address. Rev. Mr. Fraser of the Margate United Church, read the Scriptures and led in prayer. The choir under the direction of the organist, Mrs. John Walker, sang with feeling, favorite hymns of the deceased, "There is No Sorrow, Lord, too Light to Bring in Fraise to Thee," "Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Merciful" and "When The Day of Toll is Done."

During the service, Tennyson's beautiful "Crossing the Bar" (written as a solo by a solo by Mr. T. W. Bentley, Charlottetown. Rev. Mr. Stirling spoke from the verse found in Luke 22-27. "I am among you as one that serveth". At the time when Jesus spoke those words even considered it degrading to perform any acts of service or labour. Those who could afford it whether I personally agree with the change or not, but I am bringing the subject up for City wide discussion and warning all at the same time the uselessness of borrowing money year after year when we do not have enough revenue to pay the interest. We have capitalized our streets, our water works system, sewerage system, storm sewers, Victoria Park, breakwater, etc. etc. when the money is gone to pay the bond holders? You cannot say the relief is a 20 year plan and is rightly capitalized, this is the excuse I have always had for our streets, and year after year the annual repairs are being proposed by the city council. Where will the snow ball we are setting up stop? whose house is it going to hit, and knock over? Each citizen has an interest in the city. In closing, let me beg every good thinking citizen to get busy. Let us go forward, by paying our way from now on.

Mayor Blanchard presided at last night's meeting. It was decided to have a meeting with the senior clubs for the purpose of discussing the erection of two more slides on the public squares.

A letter was also read from the Associated Service Clubs of Charlottetown, thanking the Council for its cooperation in providing increased recreational facilities for the youth of the city.

would not so demean themselves as to work with their hands, they had slaves for such tasks. Jesus came with a new philosophy, an astounding philosophy indeed to the people of those days. The oldest of self-seeking, self indulgence, was reversed. By His teaching and example, a new era dawned. The mental tasks, the noblest of brotherly love, Christ heard, thy brother! Where thy dwells, the peace of God is there; To worship rightly is to love each other. Each unite a hymn, each kindly deed a prayer.

The sisters were Roy Arthur, Everett Conans, Roy Tuplin, John McDonald, William Delaney and Harold McNulty. The body was laid to rest in the Kensington Cemetery.

CAPITOL SUMMERSIDE

Paulette Goddard in "The Crystal Ball" At Capitol, Summerside

This whirlwind comedy is spun against the carnival atmosphere of a gaudy New York honky-tonk district in which fortune teller Gladys George conducts a shady business with the aid of a crystal ball and assortment of cooperative "spirits," chief of whom is an "in-jun" and planted spies who are named at getting valuable information for her. Paulette Goddard, like, is befriended by the fortune teller, who gets Paulette a job next door "whiling the pit" at a shooting gallery. When Madame Zenoobia breaks her back, Paulette is called on to double as the fortune teller, disguised as Madame Zenoobia, meet, and gives some confidential information to attorney Ray Milland, who, on the fortune teller's advice, invests money of his client, a wealthy young widow, Virginia Field, in property in which the government is secretly interested. From that point a merry chase ensues with Paulette hot on the trail of Ray Milland, who she arranges to meet under less formal circumstances. The intrigue and romance which develop are so ingeniously and innocently involved as to allow for a latitude of fun and suspense, to say nothing of the amusing situations which develop from the eye for eye battle between Paulette and Virginia Field in an effort to get the permanent attention of Ray.
