The many friends of Miss Blanche Murley, daughter of Isaac Murley of this City, will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from an operation for appendicitis. Miss Murley is a nurse in the New England Deaconess Hospital, Boston.

The railway wharf in this City presents a busy scene these days as the work of the new partly concrete wharf is being pushed along. There is quite a bit of dredging being done and when completed it will be one of the finest wharves in the City.

The nights are growing somewhat cool now, the days are lengthening all pointing to the coming of the fall season. If Jack Frost has not already put in his appearance he shortly will as he has been around in different sections of the country already.

Rev. Dr. S. F. and Mrs. Huestic are enjoying a visit with the family of their daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) J. F. Dawson, at Chatham. Mr. and Mrs. Huestic at the parsonage one evening last week. The above persons are well known in this Province.

The root crop of this season has every prospect of being one of the best in the Island's history. The early potatoes are large, of a good quality and mostly free from any defects such as dry rot, etc. The turnips are also looking fine and there is every prospect of being some big ones and a good showing at the coming exhibition.

The Eastern S. S. and E. L. Secretary has had a busy time in Newfoundland this summer says the West. During eight weeks spent visiting through the colony, Mr. Bartlett delivered fifty-two sermons and addresses in connection with his Department, and closed his trip with a lecture at Chatham on August 17th. After attending the meeting of the General Board in Toronto, and spending three weeks in work in Toronto, Mr. Bartlett will visit P. E. I., and during Oct. will be busy in N. B.

The following clipping taken from the Fredericton Gleamer will be of interest to South African Veterans in this City and Province: "Local South African veterans have received offers of $300 from parties in Calgary for their recently passed for them. The offers specify that $150 cash be paid and the balance within three or four weeks. A former resident of Fredericton in writing home states that those contemplating going to the West would do well to hold the land."

What might have been a serious accident occurred at Joseph Boater's mill pond, Tyne Valley, Sunday, Aug. 23rd, when one of a party of sportsmen, while fishing, fell from the log on which he was standing. Not like Jonah there were no great fish prepared to take him in. His chum who was near succeeded in getting him safe to shore. The ladies in company were quite excited and ran through the grain fields getting their fishing rods and causing considerable damage to the grain. It is hoped that such sportsmen will in the future remember that Sunday fishing has serious results.

Miss Ivy Gardner of Montreal, after completing a course at Oxford and spending some time touring and mountain climbing in Scotland, returned home last week. An hour before leaving Liverpool she was surprised to receive a Government appointment to go to Cairo, Egypt, in a good salary. The duties are in connection with the educational movement by the British Government for the advancement of Egypt by preparing the young Egyptian ladies to become teachers in their own schools. As she must be in Cairo early in October her stay among Canadian friends will be necessarily brief. Miss Gardner visited Charlottetown a few years ago and made a number of acquaintances who will be pleased to learn of her preference.
