appeals can now save Becker from the chair. The jury decided today that the gunman who executed were merely Becker's agents. One ballot decided conviction. Tears streamed down the face of the foreman of the jury as he announced the verdict and tears also stood in the eyes of the jurymen but sympathy did not warp their judgment.

Becker's Counsel announced that he would appeal and was granted a week's stay of proceedings while he prepared his case. Becker was granted a short interview with his wife and brothers and was then taken back to his cell in the toms.

Becker was talking with his wife in the Sheriff's office shortly before 5 o'clock when the announcement came that the jury had agreed on a verdict, his wife was not allowed to accompany him to the courtroom. When Becker was summoned to appear he kissed his wife and said "Don't worry, they will free me," and walked quietly into the court room, standing at the prisoner's rail and facing the Judge.

The clerk ordered the jury to rise and asked if they had agreed on a verdict. Receiving an affirmative response, the foreman stated "We find the prisoner guilty as charged of murder in the first degree."

Becker's face went grey, the muscle in his neck stood out, the veins showed like whip cords, then he drooped for an instant but quickly recovered his composure and answered the Judge's formal question, as to residence occupation and religion.

The brothers of Becker almost collapsed when they heard the news. Mrs. Becker, sitting behind closed doors, did not know of the verdict until John Becker entered the room and a minute later her husband was led in to say good bye. She collapsed but recovered herself sufficiently to throw her arms round his neck and cry "Charlie, Charlie, I am so sorry, I did not expect it." Becker was then handcuffed and led back to the toms until May 29th, when he will be brought before the court again.

Manton, his chief counsel, said after the decision "I don't see how the jury managed to find Becker guilty on such conflicting evidence, but I will fight and fight hard to save him. The battle has only been prevented by the District Attorney expressed himself as gratified. "Nothing to it," he said, "Becker is guilty and must pay the penalty of his crime."

Thin Folks Who Would Be Fat

INCREASE IN WEIGHT TEN POUNDS OR MORE A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE. "I certainly give most anything to be able to fat up, a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such result is not impossible, despite past failures. Thin people are victims of mal-nutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as they are when the powers of nutrition are normal.

To correct this condition and to produce a healthy, normal amount of fat nutritive processes must be artificially supplied with the power which nature has denied them. This can best be accomplished by eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is a scientific combination of six of the best strength-giving fat-producing elements known to the medical profession. Taken with meals, it mixes with the food and turns the sugars and starches into rich, ripe nourishment for the tissues and blood and its rapid effect is remarkable. Reported gains of from ten to twenty-five pounds in a single month are by no means infrequent. Yet its action is perfectly natural and absolutely harmless. Sargol is sold by good druggists everywhere and every package contains a guarantee of eight increase or more back.

MY STOMACH IS FINE

Since Taking Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets Mrs. J. Merkhuger, Waterloo, Ont., enthusiastically recommends Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets. Her experience with them, as she outlines it, explains why "I was greatly troubled with my stomach", she writes. "I had taken so much medicine that I might say to take any more would only be making it worse. My stomach just felt raw. I read of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, and a lady friend told me they were very easy to take, so I thought I would give them a trial and really they worked wonders. Anyone having anything wrong with his stomach should give Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets a trial, they will do the rest. My stomach is fine now and I can eat any food."

One of the many good features of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets is that they are so pleasant and easy to take. The relief they give from heartburn, flatulence, biliousness and dyspepsia is prompt and permanent. Try one after each meal—they'll make you feel like a new person.
