

MARINE GAS ENGINEERING

More Convenient Means of Storing Electricity Will Shortly be Discovers - Startling Developments in Ocean Travel Predicted.

HAMBURG, Jan. 21.—Although, huge generation station or in the during his sojourn in England. Here Ballin, the Director-General of the Hamburg-American Line, expressed the opinion, while praising the speed properties of the Lusitania and Mauretania, that his company would be content to let "the blue ribbon" remain with the Cunard Company, since his return home he has been even more emphatic on this point. He said later: "What is needed successfully to outstrip all competitors is a new means of propulsion. What that will be I am not prepared to predict. Gas and electricity have yet to be developed. Personally, I am a believer in the future of gas as a power for marine engines, and I fancy that the great objections to electricity lie in the necessity of a Miss Katie Gay Pownal is undergoing treatment at the P. E. I. Hospital. She has been troubled with an abscess of the ear.

Yesterday was Violet Day and was observed by a large number of citizens wearing that flower in memory of the death of Queen Victoria.

The W. B. M. A. Society of the Baptist Church had a pleasant meeting last evening. An interesting program was given and each item was much enjoyed.

F. J. Nash, City, was a passenger to Cardigan yesterday where he lectured last night in the Cardigan hall under the auspices of St. Andrew's church to a large audience.

There will be preaching in the Baptist Church at Bonshaw on the coming Sunday morning at 11 a.m. at Tryon on the same evening at 7.00 p. m. Rev. Wm. M. Field being the preacher.

The concert at the Consolidated school last evening was much enjoyed by the large audience present. The program which was the Christmas one repeated was heartily enjoyed and exceedingly well given.

The Mock Parliament will meet this evening in the Y. M. C. A. Parlor at 8 o'clock. The Bill entitled "An Act respecting the Prince Edward Island Tunnel" will have second reading. The public are invited.

The Nickel showed to very good houses last night. Tennis mania was very laughable, as was Modern Burglars. Carnival at Nice showed some good costumes, fancy and grotesque. The illustrated song Just One Word of Consolation was rendered by A. Buchanan. The step-dancing was much appreciated by the crowds that thronged this popular resort during the evening.

There was a delightful evening for everyone who attended Wonderland last night, and seldom has the Market Hall held a better satisfied audience. The work of those clever acrobats, the three Julians was received with every expression of approbation, and the pictures were four of the finest subjects that have ever been displayed in this City. Added to all this was the singing, comprising two grand illustrated songs by the popular favorites Messrs. Harney and Trainor.

Sixtus McLellan of the firm of McLellan Bros., left last night en route to New York, and other fashion centres. Mr. McLellan goes in quest of all the new ideas in men's fashions. While in New York he will take a post-graduate course at the Jan. J. Mitchell school, the most renowned cutting school on the continent. He will also be present at the annual convention of the Tailors and Cutters Association of America, which meets at Washington, the latter part of this month. On his return he will no doubt, be better fitted than ever to turn out, the up-to-date fashionable clothes, for which this popular firm is already noted.

Below will be found the Limerick Verse WITH A MISSING LINE, which line we expect our competitors to supply:

In giving good prizes we take pride,
They make known our goods both far and wide:
Why delay,
Call or write to-day,
(Fill in the line above)

Please note that the last line should rhyme with the first two lines. As a last WORD for the missing line, we would suggest the use of any of the following words: "divide," "applied," "filled," "summed," "provide," "confide," "supplied," "denied," "head," "sighted," "decided," "betide," "cried," "dried," "thried," "sided," "compiled," "simplified," "spiced," "inside," "died," "tried," "fried," "sided," "abide," "tastle," "denied," "astide," "belied." These words all rhyme with the endings of the first two lines in the verse.

CONDITIONS

There is another simple condition attached to this contest about which we will write you as soon as we receive your answer to the above. This condition does not involve the spending of one cent of your money.

The judging of the Limericks will be in the hands of a committee of three gentlemen of undoubted integrity who have no connection with this office. No employee of ours or any of our relations will be allowed to compete, and the committee's judgment must be accepted as final.

I agree to abide by the decision of the committee of three appointed by the Bovell Manufacturing Co., and enter this competition on that distinct understanding.
