STOCK QUOTATIONS
Stock Markets Montreal At A Glance Exchange

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 (AP)—Renewed bidding for steel shares boosted today's Stock Market fractions to more than 3 points to new 15-year high in the most active sessions in five years.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 9 (CP)—Rice futures prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today resumed their aggressive advance with July and October advancing the full five-cent limit permitted for one day's trading while May advanced 4-1/2 cents to $2.00.

MONTREAL, Jan. 9 (CP)—Trading left a trail of broken records or new highs today on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market. In the indices, utilities set an all-time high, industrials were the highest since the index was established in 1924, banks were at their best since being indexed in 1944 while papers were at a new eight-year top. Volume of industrial shares was the greatest since October 1937. List of shares traded was the broadest for many years.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9 (AP)—Grain futures prices showed a rapid succession to all the influences today.

MOON of the trading was in oats, but the selling, described in early dealings as the heaviest in several sessions was absorbed without any sharp setbacks. Other grains followed the lead until mild wheat liquidation and hedge selling weakened all prices temporarily.

CORONADO, Jan. 9 (CP)—The Base Metal Stocks advanced more than two points today to set record new high prices for seven years. The gold and Western Oils groups netted minor index gains. Most of the Base Metals were well up for the day. Gains of a point or more were held by Smelters, Hudson Bay, International Nickel and Sherritt-Gordon. Iron traded actively and closed 15 cents up at 3.25. Steel Firmed 20 cents to 3.35 and Waste-Armist gained 25. Laborer and the Duff fault held gains of 25 and 15 cents respectively.

CHAPTER V
Drinking milk and darkness, and the plane for Miami standing on the runway, engines whirring over slowly, small boys being stowed in the passenger seats, their faces greenish and wan in the floodlighting, saying good-by, climbing the little steps, waving.

Virginia stood close to Mike and looked up at the sky. So high, so lonely and aloof, so filled with secret darkness! Mike ran through her blood like white pain. "Oh, Mike—Mike!"

"Glimpse—glimpse!"

He held her and then with a quick crushing kiss, put her out of his arms and ran. The red and white lights of the plane became small colored stars against the empty mystery of the sky, as the plane roared upward. The people on the ground looked at one another dully and then went their ways.

Something Virginia got back to the station where her bags had been checked. Somehow she got back to Washington all entirely by herself. There, under the door, she found a yellow envelope.

Her first thought was that Mike had sent a message to comfort her in her first loneliness, but she saw that the date line was local, the message had been sent the day before.

HARRISON HAD SERIOUS ACCIDENT PLEASE SEE HER AS SOON AS YOU RETURN AT COLIMBIA HOSPITAL. IMPORT. ANT MARY GARGAN.

Mary Gargan was Teresa's secretary. Virginia looked at her watch. Midnight. She couldn't see Teresa till morning. She opened her bag and she brushed her hair, put on a pair of pajamas and put out

Do You Suffer From Headaches?

It is hard to struggle along with a head that aches and pains all the time. A headache need not be an illness in itself, but it may be a warning symptom that there is intestinal sluggishness within.

To help overcome the cause of headache it is necessary to eliminate the waste matter from the system. Burdock Blood Bitters helps to remove the cause of headaches by regulating the digestive and biliary organs, neutralizing acidity, regulating the constipated bowels and toning up the sluggish liver, and when this has been accomplished the headaches should disappear.

share and Virginia felt her own skin prickling uncomfortably. "I don't understand, Teresa," she began.

"I think you understand. I'd have sworn that you'd be honest with me—but it seems I was deceived. I had this fall I had Mary call you your family in Tennessee. They hadn't seen you since last Christmas and they had no idea where you were. I suppose it's that heel of a Mike Paul! Somehow I didn't expect that sort of thing from you, Virginia. Not that it makes any difference—so far as business is concerned. I'm a modern woman, I hope—but not too modern to have illusions yet to look for fitness in a few people."

"Teresa," said Virginia quickly, knowing that this would have to be set right at once. "I was married to Michael Paul in New York on Saturday. We planned not to tell anyone till Mike comes back from South America—so I didn't tell you. It was a family matter that took me away—marrying a husband is still a family matter, isn't it? But please don't tell anyone about it—not till we're ready to announce it."

"Mike is dear and fine—and we're going to be happy," Virginia said firmly, "and I'll be very grateful if you won't be cynical about my husband, Teresa."

"Good heavens! It's your privilege to tangle up your life in any absurd way you please—just so long as it doesn't interfere with my business. And I won't talk about it—not even to Mary but you can't keep a thing like that quiet, you know—it always leaks out somehow—and what's the use of secrecy, anyway? If you're married, get on back to the office now, and show up here promptly after lunch."

Virginia had never flown before, and a cold, nervous clutch at her
