BRUINS MAY TRAIN IN N.B. NEXT FALL

FREDERICTON, N. B., Feb. 15.—(By The Canadian Press)—Tentative arrangements are underway for the Boston Bruins hockey club to use New Brunswick as a training ground prior to the opening of the N. H. L. season. It was announced today by D. Leo Dolan, director of the New Brunswick Government Bureau of Information and Tourist Travel. The idea was favored by Art Ross, Bruins' manager, who conferred with Mr. Dolan at Boston last week, and the proposal will be placed before Charles F. Adams, owner of the Bruins' club.

Under tentative plans, the Bruins would come to New Brunswick about October 15, proceed to several hunting camps and spend two weeks in the woods, doing "road work" and hiking daily in search of big game. It is also planned to give the Bruins their first hockey practice prior to the 1933 season in New Brunswick. Engagement of the arena at Moncton for practice sessions early in November will be sought. The Bruins plan to play a series of exhibitions in New Brunswick as part of their pre-season training.

Communal Disturbance Reported At Mirpur

SRINGAR, India, Feb. 15. (A.P.)—Fifteen Hindus and three Moslems were killed and 75 houses were pillaged and burned in communal disturbances at Hirpur today. At Dharmal five Moslems were killed when a Moslem mob attacked a police party escorting Hindu refugees in the city to safety. The bed of the Whelum River was the scene of a fierce Moslem attack in another communal disturbance. Although active rebellion has been suppressed in many districts by the presence of troops, the situation continued serious. Rumors are current that the Government may create a Council of Ministers in Kashmir state containing a majority of British officials, thus establishing a virtual regency for the present Hindu maharajah and giving the government control of the state, one of the richest in India.

The presence of the British, United States, French and Japanese Minister in Shanghai may offer an opportunity for opening such negotiations, the spokesman said, but Japan wants the municipal authorities of the international settlement included in order to stress the local nature of the parley.

Sudden Death Of Sir Arthur Duckham

ASHTOARD, Surrey, Eng., Feb. 15. (Canadian and Associated Press Cables)—Sir Arthur McDougall, Duckham, president-elect of the Federated British Industries, a prominent industrialist, engineer and expert on the coal industry, died suddenly today. He was 52 years old.

Sir Arthur Duckham, who was born in 1879, served for a time in engineering workshops under Sir George Livesay, specializing in furnace work, carbonization of coal and engineering connected with chemical developments. He was a member of the Council of the Ministry of Munitions, a member of the air council, and director-general of aircraft production.

Last year he visited the United States, and on his return predicted the American Government would have to adopt the "dole" system for relief of the country's unemployed.

Frantic Rush To Enter British Market

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 15. (By the Canadian Press)—Rushing goods to the British markets, to get inside before the tariff gates are closed on March first, United States shippers are loading trans-Atlantic liners to capacity.

Some of the ships are loaded before they leave New York, others pick up cargo at Halifax, brought here by rail from the United States middle west. One or two vessels have been advised that the Antonio, to call here next Saturday from New York on her way to Liverpool, will accept no further freight bookings.

While nearly all the commodities affected by the tariff are to be found in the holds of the liners, apples have predominated so far. Yesterday the Adriatic arrived with 58,000 barrels of United States apples and large quantities of other commodities. She took only 2,000 barrels of Nova Scotia apples, bringing her total up to 60,000 barrels, one of the largest single cargoes to be sent across the Atlantic. The Pennland and other liners also were heavily laden and took small quantities of Nova Scotia apples.

Races Wednesday

Now that the hockey excitement is subsiding somewhat the horsemen are commencing to get excited. The Victoria Driving Club has a good many arguments to settle, so to give some of the owners a chance to settle their differences they are putting on a race meet Wednesday afternoon, February 17, at 2 o'clock sharp. A new course has been laid out on the Harbour ice almost alongside the one used a few days ago. It is clear and fast and some great racing should be seen on it on Wednesday.

Class A trot and pace will have Briar Mac, Johnny Walker and Lealock as contenders.

Class B trot and pace will have Waltz, Mr. Henley, Ruth S. and La Rico.

Class C trot and pace has Sybil Set, Poinsnet, Real Great and La Copla Belle as entries.

Officials who so capably handled the other races will please be on hand sharp at two o'clock to take charge of the program. The ice has been measured and the thickness of upwards of 14 inches ensures safety for all spectators.

Much Interest In Research Fellowship

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 14. (By the Canadian Press)—Widespread interest is being manifested in the ten travelling research fellowships to be awarded Canadian students this spring by the Royal Society of Canada. The fellowships, valued at $1,500 each, are donated from the Carnegie Endowment Fund and the winners must undertake travelling research work in any of the branches of science, economics or literature.

At a meeting of the Royal Society Fellowships board in Ottawa on Saturday it was decided that all applications for fellowships together with supporting papers must be in the hands of the Secretary of the Board in Ottawa not later than March 15. Under the procedure adopted by the Royal Society each of these applications is carefully considered by a special committee. There are five of these committees, representing five divisions of science or literature.

Each committee reports its conclusions to the board, and the board, after weighing the recommendations of the five committees, finally decides what ten young Canadians are to be the lucky recipients of fellowships. The awards will be announced about the middle of April.

The task of selecting those to whom fellowships are to be given is by no means an easy one, as there are already nearly a hundred candidates. Approximately one-quarter of the applicants are women. They represent practically every Canadian university from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and most of them have done post-graduate

Prime Minister To Have Complete Rest

LONDON, Feb. 15. (A.P.)—A three weeks' complete rest was ordered today for Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, so he can recover from a recent operation on his left eye.

An official statement said: "A thorough examination of the Prime Minister's left eye was made today when it was found that the result of an operation on the left eye was very satisfactory.

In order to maintain this good result, however, it is essential for him to have at least three weeks complete rest. It has been urged upon the Prime Minister that his slight requires greater care in the future than it has been receiving."

The Premier, who was operated on for Glaucoma, a diminution of the vision, was expected to leave the nursing home by the middle of the week.

Stewarts 10 Highfield 3

On Thursday evening, February 11th, Stewart's Bakers journeyed to Highfield, accompanied by a number of fans, and had an enjoyable night's sport. The hockey match between the Bakers and Granites was a fast, clean and well-played game, followed by 1 1/2 hours skate on a wonderful sheet of ice, which was a credit to the rink management.

The first period started fast. After 5 minutes of play, Whalen scored the first tally for the Granites on a pass out from behind the net, two minutes later McMillan evened the count with a wicked shot from centre ice, this was followed shortly after with a nice combination play with McMillan scoring on a pass from Cairns. Just before the bell, McNevin made the count 3-1 in favor of the Bakers, scoring from a three man combination play. Shortly after the start of the second period, McMillan again scored from a mixup in front of the net. Highfield came back strong and Hurry scored the second goal for his team unassisted. Whitlock netted the fifth for the Bakers receiving a pass from Cairns, McMillan followed shortly after with the sixth, a pass from Whitlock. Currie ended the scoring for the session with a nice wing shot, the period ending, Stewart's, 7; Granites, 2.

Highfield started strong in the third period and shortly after the bell, Coles netted the third and last goal for his team. The Bakers had a decided advantage for the rest of the period. Stewart, Currie and Whitlock scoring one each, the game ended with Highfield forcing the play, but unable to score, both goalies made many brilliant saves. The game was capably handled by referee Wm. Ryan, only one penalty being handed out. R. McLellan received this for checking to the boards.

Japs To Establish A Neutral Zone

TOKYO, Feb. 15.—(A.P.)—When Lieutenant General Kenkichi Ueyeda, commander of the Japanese army expedition to Shanghai, arrives in the field he will propose that the British, United States and French commanders request the Chinese troops to withdraw and permit the establishment of a neutral zone 15 to 20 miles in extent.

Official sources disclosing this plan said today that if the foreign commanders declined the Japanese would demand a Chinese withdrawal within a stated period which would virtually be an ultimatum.

A foreign office spokesman emphasized that Japan was anxious to have the Shanghai problem settled by international negotiations,
