—STORM SEVERE.—The storm on Thursday has been the worst in Prince County this year, and if it were not for the lateness of the season would lead one to think we were in for a repetition of last year's fall of snow. The train going West of Summerside at noon was cancelled. S.

—ISLANDER HAS TYPHOID IN LOS ANGELES.—Mr. Robert Crafer of Malpeque, who went recently to Los Angeles, Cal., developed a bad case of typhoid fever, and is at present in a hospital in the Western City. The last report of his condition was encouraging, and his family and many friends hope for his complete recovery.—K.

—K. F. D. ENTERTAINMENT.—An eminently successful basket social and musical entertainment in aid of the Kensington Fire Dept. was staged in the Strand Theatre, Kensington on the evening of Feb. 14th. The sum of $115.00 was realized—some of the baskets sold as high as $10.00.—The music and declamatory numbers were received with avidity by the large audience. Messrs T. W. Bentley, M. L. A., and Gordon Leitch of Charlottetown, both favorites on the "boards" at Kensington made a special trip home in order to assist. The Kensington people, almost, intend to have a fire dept. 100 per cent efficient. The management wish to thank the out-of-town people and citizens who assisted in such a marked degree to make the entertainment a social and financial success. The following programme was rendered: Piano duet by Miriam Proffitt and Thos. Millman. Reading by Anna Sheen, Violin selection by Roscoe Walker, Solo by Gordon Leitch, Reading by Bertha Thompson, Solo by T. W. Bentley. Reading by Jean McFadyen, Violin selection by Helen Rogers, Quartette by Ward McCannell and Coby Lewis, Brewer Auld and J. B. Lewis. Each number was enthusiastically endorsed. The solos by T. W. Bentley, Mgr., of Maritime Assurance Co., Charlottetown deserve special mention. Whitfield can capitalize on his natural vocal endowment.—K.

—WEDDING BELLS.—In St. Mary's Chapel, Kensington on Wednesday morning, Rev. Mgr. D. J. Gillis, P. P., performed the ceremony that made Miss Margaret Ahern, daughter of Mr. Andrew Ahern, Summerside and Mr. J. Albert McLellan, a prosperous young farmer of Indian River, man and wife. The chapel was comfortably filled with friends and well-wishers of the contracting parties and the choir, under the skillful direction of Mrs. Dr. Gillis rendered music appropriate to the occasion, both for the ceremony and for the nuptial Mass. Mgr. Gillis spoke a few words of appropriate import and wished the contracting parties all the blessings that so holy a sacrament imparts. The groom was supported by his brother, Dr. W. J. McLellan, Charlottetown and the bride was attended by Miss Janie Heckey, Indian River. The wedding gifts were most thoughtful, useful, and appropriate, including silverware, pyrex, glassware, linen, aluminum, and some substantial cheques. These all endorsed the genuine good will of the many friends that the contracting parties have in Indian River, Kensington and elsewhere. Miss Ella McMahon beautifully rendered the wedding march as the wedding party moved down the aisle and were surrounded by their many friends. After the ceremony was performed the wedding party and Mr. Gillis had breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parnell McMahon, Kensington. After felicitations had been showered upon the wedding party, they proceeded to the home of the groom, Mr. John S. McLellan's Indian River where the wedding feast was spread and bountifully enjoyed by the wedding party. The happy couple departed by the afternoon train east to enjoy a honeymoon abroad. When returned they will reside at Indian River.—Y.

—A GOOD TIME.—One of the most enjoyable dances of the year was given at the Olympia Dance hall on Wednesday night, Dixon's Orchestra of Charlottetown, furnishing the music for the occasion, and judging from the large number in attendance, this band of musicians would always be welcomed back. The proprietor of the Olympia is to be commended for the trouble he went to, to have these players here, and is assured that this is appreciated. S.

—RETURNS FROM DOMINION LIVE STOCK CONFERENCE.—Mr. Melburn Leard of Kensington returned recently from the Dominion Live Stock conference held at Toronto. Lea, former Commissioner of Agriculture for Prince Edward Island represented the Edstein Dept., for the three Provinces. Our Island live stock men are establishing a reputation abroad.—K.

Easy to Darken Your Gray Hair

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

ARE YOU TREATING HIM SQUARELY? WHY SHOULD WE LET HIM STRAIN HIS EYES

The health of your boy, his future happiness and success are dependent upon the development of his eyesight. He may be severely straining his eyes; they may not be as well equipped to stand the strain as you suppose; they may be a handicap to his progress in school. But how can you tell? He may not complain; you may not attribute irritableness, slight headaches, a stomach disorder, backwardness in his school work to the condition of his eyesight. Have his eyes examined! He may not need glasses but if he does, treat him squarely, give him the opportunity to prepare himself under no physical handicap for which you will feel responsible. Consult above named teams on Thursday night was postponed "sine die." The ostensible reason was poor ice of which the surface was anything but "glassy." The Bedeque players, although exhibiting the spirit of sport at all times, seemed to lack the aptitude (or disposition) to make the best of conditions presenting themselves at the moment about three hundred fans had assembled to witness the game. While a parley between the teams was being held, as to the advisability of playing, some harbinger of joyful news announced that "lunch" was ready at Mr. Wright's house, which suddenly put an end to the possibility of the game being played. The Kensington boys' olfactory nerves must have been quite sensitive—they seemed to get to "palace of sweets" very quickly. Over thirty partook of Mrs. Wright's savoury cooking—including hockey players, fans, erstwhile orators? And "skinnners." The Kensington "fans" who journeyed to Bedeque by train certainly did not have the trip for nothing. They voted to return en masse when the Hercules struggle to decide the superiority of the teams takes place.—K.

Monte Cristo Up-to-Date

AFTER a search that led through untold hardships, the Count of Monte Cristo found the secret cavern. Gold, gems and untold wealth were his.

But think of this! Every day, simply by spending a few minutes running through the advertising columns of this paper, you can find a wealth of things that Monte Cristo could never know. Things that make your life rich in comforts! Countless conveniences that iron out the mechanics of existence! Economies that bring within your easy reach, things that once were priceless!

We sometimes overlook the important role that advertising plays in making our lives pleasant and altogether livable. Advertising is as much a part of to-day's life as electricity, antiseptic surgery or automobiles. It keeps us up-to-date on the many things we need in order to live profitable, happy and useful lives. It presents for our approval articles of all kinds and for all purposes. The requirements of each member of the family are met by advertised offers of good merchandise of proved value.

The advertisements save time, money and effort for those who read them and follow their guidance. They are practical guarantees of satisfaction.
