ALL EYES

sooner or later are candidates for glasses. Only an expert optician can tell you just when that day has arrived. A sensible regard for one's eyesight dictates the use of spectacles the moment they are necessary. Show foresight and not hindsight in safeguarding your vision. An examination by us which costs nothing may prevent consequences which later on would be inevitable. We fit everyone exactly.

SUDDEN DEATH OF AN OLD DIVINE

Probably Oldest Anglican Bishop In World

Bishop Clark of Rhode Island was Thrown From his Carriage and Fatally Injured. He Was Born in 1812.

NEWPORT, R I., Sept. 7.—Right Rev. Thomas March Clark, Bishop of Rhode Island and by virtue of his seniority presiding bishop of the Episcopal church in this country, as well as the oldest bishop in the Anglican community, if not the world, died today at his home in Middletown, a few miles from thie city. Bishop Clark was thrown from his carriage while driving here about a month ago, but apparently recovered from the accident. He was taken suddenly ill this afternoon and died within an hour. Bishop Clark was born in Newburyport, Mass., on July 4, 1812. He was graduated at Yale in 1833, and studied theology at Princeton until 1833, when on completing his course he received a license to preach by the presbytery of his native place. He was made deacon of Grace Church in Boston in 1836 and advanced to the priesthood in November of that year. He officiated at Grace church until 1842, when he left for Philadelphia, where he was rector of St Andrew's church until 1847. He then returned to Boston as assistant rector of Trinity church, and finally became rector of the Church of Christ at Hartford, Conn. He remained there from 1850 until 1854, when he was consecrated Bishop of Rhode Island in Grace church, Providence on Dec. 6, 1854. He was not only Bishop of Rhode Island, but for twelve years acted as rector for Grace church in Providence. The fortieth anniversary of his consecration as bishop was celebratec in 1794. Four years later he gave up the active duties of his diocese to Rev W M McVicar who now becomes Bisnop of Rhode Island.

He leaves a daughter, Mrs Eugene Sturtevant, and a son, J Mitchell Clark.

HIS LIVER DIDN'T WORK

And Dreadful Headaches and Depression Followed—Cured by

FERROZONE

Mr. Lionel S. Lascelle of Strathcona had a trying time with liver complaint, but wisely used Ferrozone in time. He says: "My liver got sluggish and torpid and made me feel about half dead. When I got up in the morning I was as tired as if I hadn't slept at all. My head ached, and specks swam before my eyes incessantly. If I bent over or did any stooping work I would be in a perfect whirl in two minutes. I felt depressed and out of sorts, and only got relief from Ferrozone. It went right to work, and before long cured me. I feel ever so much improved in health since using Ferrozone, which I strongly recommend for the kidneys and liver."

Mr. Ed. D. Moncrief of Springfield says: "For years I was subject to frequent attacks of liver complaint, and no remedy ever cured like Ferrozone. When my head ached fit to split, and I felt drowsy and sick, Ferrozone relieved quickly. I used Ferrozone two months after being cured, and have'nt been bothered since."

When it comes to curing liver and kidney ills you can't beat Ferrozone. It has a specific action on these organs, and at once puts them in a strong healthy condition. Ferrozone isn't the kind that just relieves—it cures, and cures thoroughly. Ferrozone prevents a return of further trouble, and costs only 50c a box, or six boxes for $2.50. ELIGIBLE FOR THE HIGHEST RANKS

Phenomenal Examination Passed by Major Williams

Brother of Rev. Leo Williams, Rector of St. Paul's Church in this City—May Succeed Col. Lessard.

QUEBEC, Sept. 6.—There arrived on the steamer Parisian a quartet of Canadians who were among the members of a class of 24 that have just taken a course in tactical fitness at Aldershot and Salisbury Plains, and are now qualified to take any command in the British service. They were Major Victor Williams of the Royal Canadian Dragoons, Toronto; Lieut-Col. Benson, R. C. A., Quebec; Lieut Col Wadmore, R. C. R., Fredericton, and Lieut-Col. Macdougall, R. C. R., St. Johns. The course was one of three months duration, and the work was largely in the field, conducted under the critical eyes of generals of the British army. The Canadians were treated with the greatest respect and courtesy by the English, nothing being good enough for them.

Major Williams took a phenomenal stand at the examination, obtaining the highest possible certificate with one hundred per cent. of the marks obtainable and is eligible now for the highest position in the British army. This standing has very rarely been taken by any competitor, and probably never before was attained by a colonial officer. Major Williams showed remarkable efficiency in his work and was highly congratulated on his success. He will be directly in line for a commission in the event of occasion arising that would require his services.

Major Williams arrived in Toronto yesterday and was seen at his residence, 124 St George street. He was reticent regarding his own affairs, but corroborated the statement that the Canadian officers had been extremely well used in England. He had been attached to the 13th Hussars, the Royal Horse Artillery and the second division of the 3rd Infantry Brigade.

The major stated that much attention was being paid to shooting in the English army by all ranks in the service. Many prizes were being given to encourage good shooting and the greatest interest was taken in the matches by colonels and privates alike. There had been a decided improvement in the service in the past ten years. Tommy Atkins was now taught to think for himself instead of blindly trusting to his superior officer.

The revelations in the War Office had created no excitement among military men, it being spoken of very little among them or in the clubs. It was considered chiefly a political matter, and very little attention was paid to it.—Toronto World. [Major Williams is a brother of Rev. Leo Williams of this city and was second in command in the 2nd Canadian Mounted Rifles who participated in the late South African war. It is thought that Major Williams may shortly supersede Colonel Lessard, D. S. O., Inspector of Cavalry and, Colonel commanding the Royal Canadian Dragoons. It was Colonel Lessard who inspected the Light Horse here last July.]
