EVERYBODY is looking forward to the event of May 25 which is expected to eclipse anything in the entertainment line held in Summerside for a long time. There will be a real fur, with lots of high class vocal and instrumental music. At the Yacht Club Minstrel Show, Market Hall on Monday night.

THE marriage took place in St. Paul's church Summerside yesterday morning of John T. McNally to Miss Mary Fanning. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. McLeac. The groom was supported by the bride's brother P.F. Fanning while the bride was attended by Miss Murphy of Charlottetown. After breakfasting at the Queen Hotel Mr. and Mrs. McNally left by the Northumberland for a trip through the provinces.

A boy eleven years of age was captured here yesterday morning with a horse and carriage, which he quietly took on the previous day from the premises of Anthony McIntyre, Kildare, without notifying the owner. On Sunday night the young lad stopped at St. Eleanors and yesterday morning tied the horse in Mr. Holman's shed, when officer Phillips, who in response to a telephone message from Alberton was on the out look for him, found the team and held the boy until the owner, who arrived by the morning train, took charge. The young fellow said that he was going to Ch'town to visit a relative. Mr. McIntyre took his team and the boy home.

It is with profound regret that we chronicle the death of George S. Muttart, which occurred at Alberton at an early hour Sunday morning at the age of 78 years. Mr. Muttart was born at Augustine Cove in 1825, went to Alberton in 1868. He was for many years a local preacher in the Methodist Church. For the last few years he kept a book and confectionery store at Alberton. Mr. Muttart was a man of rare mental powers and always enjoyed the best of health. He married in 1856 Martha Wright, daughter of the late Nathaniel Wright of Bedeque. He leaves two daughters, Evelyn and Lavinia at home and two sons, Aretas in Alberton and Lorenzo, a Congregational minister in Maine. The funeral took place yesterday to the Methodist Cemetery and was very largely attended. Rev. Mr. Comden officiated.
