THE WORLD'S UNREST

The fiends of discord and anarchy appear to have been let loose in the world to further perpetuate the horrors of a four years war.

It will be remembered that since the Peace Conference opened the Bolshevik leaders were asked to meet with representatives of the Supreme War Council in conference at Princes' Island in the Sea of Marmora and endeavour to arrive at a settlement.

Just what effect the invitation to a discussion of their grievances and their claims will have upon the Bolsheviks in Russia and elsewhere is problematical.

far short of justice. Yet the invitation to discuss whether there was a better way of settling matters in Russia than murder and robbery and pillage has given the Bolsheviks a recognition among the nations that will enable them to hold up their heads.

In Russia it would appear as if nothing could be done except to let them devour each other, a process in which they will be materially helped by starvation and famine.

REPATRIATING THE SOLDIERS

The men who come back will want to "come back" industrially and it is the duty of every Canadian to see to it that they do have every opportunity to come back into civilian life without handicaps and without friction.

The Government some time ago organized a department of Soldiers Civil Re-Establishment to handle these problems, and to that end it is devoting its energies.

This committee sees to it that the sick are made well, the wounded healed. The men who have lost limbs or sight or suffer other physical handicaps are provided with limbs and other equipment to overcome so far as can be done the difficulties of their positions.

with his new limbs he is given a course in vocational training, if he so desires. Many do. They are taught how to make themselves self supporting in fact many unskilled laborers have been given trades, and their efficiency and earning powers have been greatly enhanced.

The Repatriation committee is now engaged in looking after the uninjured soldiers who will come back to Canada by the hundreds of thousands in the next year.

In this work every man every citizen of Canada will give his assistance. If you know of a good job, which a returned soldier can fill notify the soldier. That's all that is needed just now.

A job for every soldier and every soldier in a job—that's the idea.

SOLDIERS' LAND SETTLEMENT

With regard to the placing of soldiers upon the land, W. G. Black of the Soldiers' Land Settlement has issued the following statement: "The Soldiers' Land Settlement is completing its organization with the utmost rapidity."

Legislation providing for the requirements of land near railways will be presented to Parliament at the next opening. All soldiers in Alberta and any other Province who are qualified by farm experience to go on the land next Spring will have equal opportunity of doing so.

There is Crown Land available upon which they might settle, but the Settlement Board is discouraging all soldier settlers from locating at points remote from the market facilities and on land not of the finest quality.

ing at points remote from the market facilities and on land not of the finest quality. It is the policy of the Board to see to it that no soldier is permitted to settle under conditions whereby he will not be able to secure the highest results for his labours.

If in the minds of some people any delay seems apparent it should be borne in mind that such has been occasioned entirely through the policy of the Soldiers' Settlement Board to follow a course which in the end may render assurance of success on the part of the settler undoubted."

A BIBLICAL CURIOSITY

A New York Bible student finds that the armistice was signed at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month of the year; and that eleventh verse of the eleventh chapter of the eleventh book of the Bible reads thus concerning an ancient king. The passage has a present day application:

Forasmuch as this is done of thee and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee: I will surely rend thy kingdom from thee and will give it to thy servant.—The Outlook.

THE HEART'S STORY

I will not doubt, though all my ships at sea

Come drifting home with broken masts and sails,

I will believe the Hand which never fails,

From seeming evil worketh good for me;

And though I weep because those sails are tattered,

Still will I cry while my best hopes are shattered,

"I trust in Thee"

I will not doubt, though all my prayers return

Unanswered from the still white realm above;

I will believe it is an all-wise love

Which has refused these things for which I yearn;

And though at times I cannot keep from grieving,

Yet the poor ardor of my fixed believing

Undimmed shall burn.

I will not doubt, though sorrows fall like rain,

And troubles swarm like bees about to hive;

I will believe the heights for which I strive

Are only reached by anguish and by pain,

And, though I groan and writhe beneath my crosses,

I yet shall see through my severest losses

The greater gain.

I will not doubt, well anchored in this faith,

Like some staunch ship, my soul braves every gale;

So strong its courage will not quail To breast the mighty unknown sea of death.

Oh, may I cry, when body parts with spirit,

"I do not doubt," so listening worlds may hear it,

With my last breath!

and K. Ochial. The delegates of the small nations will be announced later.

Ortseifen-Dalton Nuptials

The following particulars are copied from the South Shore Country Club Magazine of Chicago which contained a handsome photograph of the young bride in her handsome wedding gown:

"We are glad to give additional details of the wedding of Miss Frega Dalton of Boston, to Mr. Adolph J. Ortseifen, on November 27th, at St. Louis. By an error our item last month said Mr. Ortseifen was a resident of St. Louis, while as a matter of fact he is a Chicagoan, and one of our most popular members. Temporarily he has been stationed at St. Louis with the construction division of the Quartermaster's Corps.

The bride is a daughter of the Hon. and Mrs. Charles Dalton of Boston, Mass., and Charlotetown, P. E. I. Capt. Ortseifen is the son of former Treasurer of the City of Chicago, and Mrs. Adam Ortseifen, who are widely known for their associations with the charitable and social activities of the city.

The ceremony was performed in the beautiful Sacred Heart Chapel of the Catholic Cathedral, which is one of the finest church edifices in the United States. The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of white chiffon and ivory satin, with veil of tulle caught with pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, dipped with white orchids. She was given in marriage by her father who wore his official robes of the Order of St. Gregory the Great. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Zita Dalton, who wore orchid pink charmeuse and point Venice lace, and carried a bouquet of orchids, while the bride-groom was attended by his brother, Mr. George Ortseifen, of Chicago.

Besides the immediate families only a few guests were present, including Major Charles E. Chase, Capt. E. E. Amory, Capt. and Mrs. Daniel Thornton. The immediate families included the Hon. and Mrs. Charles Dalton, Dr. Howard Dalton and the Misses Nora, Zita, Edith and Irene Dalton, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Adam Ortseifen, Mr. and Mrs. George Ortseifen and Miss Marion Ortseifen, Lieut. and Mrs. Philip J. Reddy of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Sullivan, of Peiham, N. Y.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Statler Hotel, a unique feature being the cutting of the bride's cake with the sword of her father's official uniform. Capt. Ortseifen and his bride will reside at the Statler Hotel until early in 1919, after which time they will make their home in Chicago.

Interesting Judgment On Prohibition Case

ST. JOHN, Jan. 30.—In the Supreme Court Chambers this morning Judge Crockett delivered an interesting judgment in the case of the King vs Robert J. Ritchie ex-parte Frank Totten. In this case Totten was convicted by police Magistrate Robert Ritchie on November 4th last for having liquor other than in his own private dwelling and was fined $200. His Honor handed down a very lengthy judgment criticizing parts of the Prohibition Act as "un-British" and quashed the conviction, making the order nisi absolute.
