The Picture Magnificent

THE PICTURE THAT MADE ALL
NEW YORK APPLAUD

WHAT YOU WILL SEE

- You'll see a terrific head on collision between two giant locomotives, in the most colossal smash ever registered on the screen, a thrill you'll never forget
- You'll see—the famous New York Bowery bread line after dark, with the floating human derelicts that people the slums of the great cities.
- You'll see a thrilling jail delivery where a score of desperate convicts smash and crash their way to liberty.
- You'll see a punch drama of Broadway and Main Street, of dance halls and a little church, of cabarets and soda fountains—of a mother and her wayward boys—of a country lass and a chorus girl.
- You'll see—the back stage of a New York theatre in action, how scenes are handled, dressing rooms, the stage Johnnies, chorus girls, theatrical life, of the teeming Metropolis
- You'll see—the little church around the corner that is found in every city, town, village and hamlet throughout our land.
- You'll see—how vamps lure their victims to ruin, how money, jewels, jazz palaces and high jinks drag young men down
- You'll see—how a mother's heart can be breaking and how she still can smile thru her choking tears for the boy she loves.
- You'll see—Broadway jazz palaces with underdressed women and overdressed men aping the rich, despising the good, pursuing the god of good-times.
- You'll see—a wonderful Xmas eve's celebration in a gorgeous, glittering cabaret palace
- You'll see—a tremendous heart punch drama of smiles and tears, laughter and heartaches, happiness and the triumph of a mother's love.

MISPLACED COMMA CAUSES CONFUSION

(By Dominion News Service.)
LONDON, Oct. 4.—A misplaced comma in a newspaper summary of the will of the late Mr. H. F. House, a former Indian civil servant, who led a retired life in a London hotel, caused it to be understood that the will ordered the destruction of all Mr. House's books, including rare quarto editions of Shakespeare.
The sentence, as published, read: "All his editions of Shakespeare, with his MS notes, shall be burnt. It is now explained that the comma after Shakespeare should be omitted, making the sentence read: "All his editions of Shakespeare with MS notes shall be burnt." The editions containing Mr. House's notes are modern and of no special value. All the quarto editions and other treasures are now being catalogued, and will shortly be offered for sale.

Peter Arsenault to Harold Cormier son of Mr. and Mrs. Cormier both of English took place at St. Simon and Jude Catholic Church on September 25th, 1923. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. McLellan. The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of wine coloured velvet over which she wore a brown velvet coat with fur trimmings and hat to match and carried a beautiful bouquet. She was attended by her friend Miss Olive Arsenault who was prettily dressed in a coat of sand colored Polo with hat and shoes to match and wore a set of grey fur. The groom was supported by his brother Mr. Arthur Cormier. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the bride's home where a sumptuous dinner was awaiting them. In the evening the bridal party drove to the groom's home where a large number of guests partook of the delicacies served after which dancing began and continued until the wee small hours of the morning when all present departed after wishing grounds of the capitol or attends a social function—in fact wherever he goes for the next few months, he will wear Brockton shoes, made in Brockton on Brockton lasts and by Brockton shoeworkers. Three pairs of custom made footwear left Brockton this morning by registered parcel post consigned to the President, a special order just completed by the Stacy, Adams, Co.

The Presidents special last is approximately 7 1/2, and the shoes include a pair of black kangaroo ox-fords, a pair of black kid balls and a pair of patent cut button dress shoes.

The shoes were in process of manufacture just three weeks and went through in the usual form. Everything that goes to make up for modern shoe manufacture was incorporated in the workmanship.

While a guest of Brockton fair officials in 1919, President Coolidge, then Governor of the Bay State, was taken through the "mod-ern shoe factory" and saw a pair of shoes made for himself while he waited. So well pleased was he with the workmanship and quality that he became a "convert" and now sends to Brockton for his footwear.

The following pupils have received the highest averages for the month of September.

Grade X.—A. Mary McCloskey, Evelyn Connelly, Mary Hogan, B. Mary MacLennan, Bernice MacDonald, Mary Smith.

Grade VII.—1, Mary Moran, 2, Eva Ranahan, 3, Laurette Trainor.

Grade VI.—1, Helen Hornsby, 2, Helen Johnston, 3, Bernadette MacMillan.

Grade V.—1, Catherine Dieks, 2, Ethel Martin, 3, Agnes Pigot, Alice McGuigan.

NOTRE DAME ACADEMY

Grade IV.—1, Dorothy Robertson, 2, Margaret Mitchell, 3, Betty Doyle.

Grade III.—1, Ella Hogan, 2, Gertrude Fisher, 3, Mary McGarron.

Grade II.—1, Marie Arsenault, 2, Gertrude Walker, 3, Anna Murphy.

Grade I.—1, Marie Arsenault, 2, Gertrude Walker, 3, Anna Murphy.

Some of the girls have made a great showing this summer, and others have merely made a showing.

'First Aid' For Sick Children

THE experienced mother is not alarmed when a child becomes sick. She knows that most of the ailments of childhood are trifling. If it seems serious she calls a doctor, but whether or not she calls him, she gives, first of all, a good laxative medicine. The doctor would advise that anyway. It is his "first aid." Such experienced nurses as Mrs. G. R. Parquette, Motherville, Que., and Mrs. J. F. Denis, 325 Johnson Av., Winnipeg, always give Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin at the first indication of sickness. Such timely doses have saved them much worry.

The Meaning of "Good" All doctors agree that a thorough cleaning out of the bowels is of first importance for it removes dangerous intestinal poisons. They will also advise a "good laxative," and by "good" they mean one that is effective and yet harmless. They know that there are physics that never should be given to children—calomel, concentrate the blood and dry up the saliva. They consider Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin safe for all ages as they know it is a simple, vegetable compound of Egyptianenna with pepsin and agreeable aromatics. The formula is on the package.

Give Laxative for Colds Adults should have at least one movement of the bowels every 24 hours, and children two or three. Failure to have it means constipation, then headache, biliousness, drowsiness, lack of appetite. Give a dose of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin at bedtime, and there will be health and good feeling by morning. A dose costs less than a cent, and a bottle can be had at any drug store. Colds and constipation come together, so if you notice coughing or sneezing stop at once with Laxative Syrup Pepsin.
