

The Davison Undertaking Co Ltd

Calls promptly attended to at any hour day or night. Embalming a specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Lady assistant to handle all female cases.

C. F. DAVISON,
Manager

Office and snow room
207 209 Prince St.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all. Today is All Fools' Day.

Mrs (Senator) Robertson, Montague, has returned from Ottawa.

Any girl desiring housework in a small family in this city should apply at this office at once.

Miss Jenni Orr of the P. W. C. spent her Easter holidays at her home in New Glasgow Mills.

The many friends of Miss Elsie Skarry will be pleased to see her out again after her recent illness.

Look out for the Auction Sale of Mr Paul McPhee's farm, stock, crop, and implements at Long Creek on Wednesday, April 6th. For further particulars see hand bills. 4-1-10

Miss Maggie Herrel, City, is visiting friends in Lincoln.

A. B. Warburton, M. P. City, was in Halifax Wednesday.

W. C. Hogan, Station Master, at Bloomfield was in the city yesterday.

A. E. Massie and wife of Fredericton who are well known here are visiting in St John.

Donald McMillan, St. Avar's, leaves this morning for Edmonton taking with him a number of horses.

The Star Steam Laundry is well equipped to wash heavy cloth and other kinds of shirts. See ad. on page four.

All readers when writing to advertisers in this or any other issue of this paper, are requested to mention The Guardian.

F. W. Hatheway, well known to many in this Province has been appointed vestry clerk for St Peter's Church, Springhill, N. B.

The Northumberland will make the first trip of the season on Monday when she will leave the Navigation Wharf at seven thirty a. m. for Picton.

The Sacred Concert of the season will be given next week, Thursday evening, in Grace Church, by the Choir. An excellent program is being prepared.

Yesterday, B. A. Bent, Contractor, of Hildes Curry, & Co., Amherst, inspected the Market Building, and handed in his report to the Market Committee.

E. A. Schofield of the Schofield Paper Co Ltd, St John, and well known here has been appointed warden in St Paul's Church of England at Hampton, N. B.

The highest temperature recorded yesterday was thirty-nine above zero and the coldest was thirty-one above up till nine p.m. The coldest recorded the previous night was twenty-nine above.

A splendid large great Dane dog, owned by P. P. Gillis, City, was stabbed yesterday morning in several places. The animal died later from its injuries. The dog was perhaps the largest in the city.

Miss May Sterns, daughter of Harvey Sterns, of this city, was one of the performers at an entertainment held in Kreuscher's Hall, New York, on the 15th inst. Miss Sterns contributed a very enjoyable piano solo.

In regard to the statement in Tuesday's Guardian that a public meeting had been called at the hall in Mount Herbert to discuss the automobile question it may be stated that the information was furnished by a reputable citizen on the north side of the river.

At the Easter annual meeting of Trinity Church, St. John, Thomas Paton, formerly of this city, was appointed a church warden. At the meeting of the Mission Church of St. John Baptist, held the same day, H. B. Schofield, of the Schofield Paper Co., Ltd., so well known here, occupied the chair in the absence of the priest in charge. Mr. Schofield is also a permanent trustee.

A good deal of comment has been passed of late on the annoying habit of carrying on a persistent and much too audible conversation during performances in the Opera House. Only performers can tell just how this discourages them during the rendition of a piece and those who pay for seats, too often have their pleasure marred by a noisy babble around them. This especially applies to musical performances when silence in the auditorium is necessary to the full appreciation of the concert.

H. M. Robertson, son of Peter Robertson, Marshfield, left Wednesday morning for Western Canada, where a good position awaits him. Mr Robertson is particularly well known in athletic circles having figured so prominently in the rowing races last year. On the eve of his departure his fellow boarders at the Morell Hotel, City, presented him with a beautiful travelling dressing case and an appropriate address expressing regret at his departure and hope for his future success. Mr Robertson made a suitable reply. Supper was served by Mrs Seller in her usual capable manner. His many friends wish him the best of success in his future home.

Our Display of Spring Prints, Hats and Furnishings are of interest to Men

You are doubtlessly thinking about your New Spring Suit. If you want the latest and best drop in to-day and look our stock over. We're proud of it—its better and bigger than it ever was. The qualities are the right sort that give thorough satisfaction only to be had in clothes that are tailored right—stitch by stitch—inside and outside.

Just now we are showing two special assortment

Men's Suits at $12.75 Men's Suits at $15.00

In a fine grade of tweeds, blue and black serges etc. Not cotton mixtures but pure wool through and through we've tested them—we know.

Hand tailored with more style and snap to them than you'll find in most made to order suits that cost nearly twice the price.

The New Hats are Calling you, Men

Right now we are doing the greatest Hat selling in this store's history. There's a reason. We show probably three times the variety of styles you'll see elsewhere. We have the smartest shapes—and every hat we sell has a reputation, and our prices are less than asked for Hats of inferior makes.

Come in, we'll hat you right.

Christys, London Hats . . . $1.00, $2.00, $3.00
"Scott", England's Best . . . $3.00 to $5.00
"Hawes" New York Hats . . . $3.00
Stetson's, Americans . . . $3.50, to $5.00

The New Furnishings are here in Extensive Assortments

Its the natty little "fixings" that lend elegance and grace to a man's wearing apparel, shirts, ties, pretty hosiery etc. To look and feel well dressed is an easy matter for the man who trades here, some how this is a GREAT STORE FOR MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

What the secret? Variety? yes, Quality? yes, Price? yes, and if we should tell you there isn't a more carefully selected stock in this city you'd think it just ordinary store talk. Is it? Come and be the judge.

Prowse Bros. Ltd.
163 Kent Street, No. 211.

There were no cases before the Police Court in the City yesterday.

G. H. Holbrook, City, returned from Somerville, Mass, yesterday.

Attention is called to the ad of incubators, which appears in this issue.

It was the Minto's freight of the previous day which appeared in The Guardian of the 29th.

A special train leaves this city this morning at 7.30 to connect with the Minto at Georgetown.

Stephen Bradley, City, vice-principal of Queen Square School, is visiting friends in Kelly's Cross.

The outward cargo by the Earl Grey this morning will include two cars oats, one car machinery and two cars mixed freight.

Any city girl with a fair education, who desires to learn type setting, should call at the Guardian office between eight and ten this morning.

It is useless for Guardian readers to apply for name and address of any advertiser when not given in advertisement as same is received in confidence.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a splendid program of moving pictures one of the best he has ever shown. The pictures were loaned by Mrs Hogg, manager of New Wonderland, who is to be congratulated on being able to secure such high-class pictures. The Institution is very grateful to Mrs Hogg for this extreme kindness.

The case of Martin vs. Whiteway occupied the attention of the Vice-Chancellor on Wednesday and was concluded yesterday morning. In this case the bill asked that a certain judgment obtained in the Supreme Court be set aside. The Vice-Chancellor gave judgment declining to set aside the judgment as asked for and dismissed the bill with costs. A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. McKinnon for complainants; Agnes A. McDonald, Chas. R. Smallwood and Kenneth Martin for defendants.

Murdoch Ross, City, the fashionable Great George Street Tailor, is removing his place of business one door south of the present location. Owing to a steadily increasing business which necessitated a corresponding increase of employees his old quarters have become too small and he will now be in a larger and more commodious store where he will be better able than ever to cater to the wants of his many customers. His new store, which has been repaired and renovated, will present a neat, tidy and business-like appearance.

Theatre goers are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the Colonial Stock Company next week. They have proven such favorites in this City in the past with their fine plays beautifully costumed and staged, that they are sure of good houses. Each member has won individual friends who are waiting to give them a hearty welcome. The opening play will be The Two Orphans with a strong vigorous cast calling forth the best qualities in the different actors and one which is sure to commend itself to the lovers of good entertainment. Popular prices will prevail the plan opening tomorrow morning.

It is useless for Guardian readers to apply for name and address of any advertiser when not given in advertisement as same is received in confidence.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a splendid program of moving pictures one of the best he has ever shown. The pictures were loaned by Mrs Hogg, manager of New Wonderland, who is to be congratulated on being able to secure such high-class pictures. The Institution is very grateful to Mrs Hogg for this extreme kindness.

The case of Martin vs. Whiteway occupied the attention of the Vice-Chancellor on Wednesday and was concluded yesterday morning. In this case the bill asked that a certain judgment obtained in the Supreme Court be set aside. The Vice-Chancellor gave judgment declining to set aside the judgment as asked for and dismissed the bill with costs. A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. McKinnon for complainants; Agnes A. McDonald, Chas. R. Smallwood and Kenneth Martin for defendants.

Murdoch Ross, City, the fashionable Great George Street Tailor, is removing his place of business one door south of the present location. Owing to a steadily increasing business which necessitated a corresponding increase of employees his old quarters have become too small and he will now be in a larger and more commodious store where he will be better able than ever to cater to the wants of his many customers. His new store, which has been repaired and renovated, will present a neat, tidy and business-like appearance.

Theatre goers are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the Colonial Stock Company next week. They have proven such favorites in this City in the past with their fine plays beautifully costumed and staged, that they are sure of good houses. Each member has won individual friends who are waiting to give them a hearty welcome. The opening play will be The Two Orphans with a strong vigorous cast calling forth the best qualities in the different actors and one which is sure to commend itself to the lovers of good entertainment. Popular prices will prevail the plan opening tomorrow morning.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a splendid program of moving pictures one of the best he has ever shown. The pictures were loaned by Mrs Hogg, manager of New Wonderland, who is to be congratulated on being able to secure such high-class pictures. The Institution is very grateful to Mrs Hogg for this extreme kindness.

The case of Martin vs. Whiteway occupied the attention of the Vice-Chancellor on Wednesday and was concluded yesterday morning. In this case the bill asked that a certain judgment obtained in the Supreme Court be set aside. The Vice-Chancellor gave judgment declining to set aside the judgment as asked for and dismissed the bill with costs. A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. McKinnon for complainants; Agnes A. McDonald, Chas. R. Smallwood and Kenneth Martin for defendants.

Murdoch Ross, City, the fashionable Great George Street Tailor, is removing his place of business one door south of the present location. Owing to a steadily increasing business which necessitated a corresponding increase of employees his old quarters have become too small and he will now be in a larger and more commodious store where he will be better able than ever to cater to the wants of his many customers. His new store, which has been repaired and renovated, will present a neat, tidy and business-like appearance.

Theatre goers are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the Colonial Stock Company next week. They have proven such favorites in this City in the past with their fine plays beautifully costumed and staged, that they are sure of good houses. Each member has won individual friends who are waiting to give them a hearty welcome. The opening play will be The Two Orphans with a strong vigorous cast calling forth the best qualities in the different actors and one which is sure to commend itself to the lovers of good entertainment. Popular prices will prevail the plan opening tomorrow morning.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a splendid program of moving pictures one of the best he has ever shown. The pictures were loaned by Mrs Hogg, manager of New Wonderland, who is to be congratulated on being able to secure such high-class pictures. The Institution is very grateful to Mrs Hogg for this extreme kindness.

The case of Martin vs. Whiteway occupied the attention of the Vice-Chancellor on Wednesday and was concluded yesterday morning. In this case the bill asked that a certain judgment obtained in the Supreme Court be set aside. The Vice-Chancellor gave judgment declining to set aside the judgment as asked for and dismissed the bill with costs. A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. McKinnon for complainants; Agnes A. McDonald, Chas. R. Smallwood and Kenneth Martin for defendants.

Murdoch Ross, City, the fashionable Great George Street Tailor, is removing his place of business one door south of the present location. Owing to a steadily increasing business which necessitated a corresponding increase of employees his old quarters have become too small and he will now be in a larger and more commodious store where he will be better able than ever to cater to the wants of his many customers. His new store, which has been repaired and renovated, will present a neat, tidy and business-like appearance.

Theatre goers are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the Colonial Stock Company next week. They have proven such favorites in this City in the past with their fine plays beautifully costumed and staged, that they are sure of good houses. Each member has won individual friends who are waiting to give them a hearty welcome. The opening play will be The Two Orphans with a strong vigorous cast calling forth the best qualities in the different actors and one which is sure to commend itself to the lovers of good entertainment. Popular prices will prevail the plan opening tomorrow morning.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a splendid program of moving pictures one of the best he has ever shown. The pictures were loaned by Mrs Hogg, manager of New Wonderland, who is to be congratulated on being able to secure such high-class pictures. The Institution is very grateful to Mrs Hogg for this extreme kindness.

The case of Martin vs. Whiteway occupied the attention of the Vice-Chancellor on Wednesday and was concluded yesterday morning. In this case the bill asked that a certain judgment obtained in the Supreme Court be set aside. The Vice-Chancellor gave judgment declining to set aside the judgment as asked for and dismissed the bill with costs. A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. McKinnon for complainants; Agnes A. McDonald, Chas. R. Smallwood and Kenneth Martin for defendants.

Murdoch Ross, City, the fashionable Great George Street Tailor, is removing his place of business one door south of the present location. Owing to a steadily increasing business which necessitated a corresponding increase of employees his old quarters have become too small and he will now be in a larger and more commodious store where he will be better able than ever to cater to the wants of his many customers. His new store, which has been repaired and renovated, will present a neat, tidy and business-like appearance.

Theatre goers are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the Colonial Stock Company next week. They have proven such favorites in this City in the past with their fine plays beautifully costumed and staged, that they are sure of good houses. Each member has won individual friends who are waiting to give them a hearty welcome. The opening play will be The Two Orphans with a strong vigorous cast calling forth the best qualities in the different actors and one which is sure to commend itself to the lovers of good entertainment. Popular prices will prevail the plan opening tomorrow morning.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a splendid program of moving pictures one of the best he has ever shown. The pictures were loaned by Mrs Hogg, manager of New Wonderland, who is to be congratulated on being able to secure such high-class pictures. The Institution is very grateful to Mrs Hogg for this extreme kindness.

The case of Martin vs. Whiteway occupied the attention of the Vice-Chancellor on Wednesday and was concluded yesterday morning. In this case the bill asked that a certain judgment obtained in the Supreme Court be set aside. The Vice-Chancellor gave judgment declining to set aside the judgment as asked for and dismissed the bill with costs. A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. McKinnon for complainants; Agnes A. McDonald, Chas. R. Smallwood and Kenneth Martin for defendants.

Murdoch Ross, City, the fashionable Great George Street Tailor, is removing his place of business one door south of the present location. Owing to a steadily increasing business which necessitated a corresponding increase of employees his old quarters have become too small and he will now be in a larger and more commodious store where he will be better able than ever to cater to the wants of his many customers. His new store, which has been repaired and renovated, will present a neat, tidy and business-like appearance.

Theatre goers are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the Colonial Stock Company next week. They have proven such favorites in this City in the past with their fine plays beautifully costumed and staged, that they are sure of good houses. Each member has won individual friends who are waiting to give them a hearty welcome. The opening play will be The Two Orphans with a strong vigorous cast calling forth the best qualities in the different actors and one which is sure to commend itself to the lovers of good entertainment. Popular prices will prevail the plan opening tomorrow morning.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a splendid program of moving pictures one of the best he has ever shown. The pictures were loaned by Mrs Hogg, manager of New Wonderland, who is to be congratulated on being able to secure such high-class pictures. The Institution is very grateful to Mrs Hogg for this extreme kindness.

The case of Martin vs. Whiteway occupied the attention of the Vice-Chancellor on Wednesday and was concluded yesterday morning. In this case the bill asked that a certain judgment obtained in the Supreme Court be set aside. The Vice-Chancellor gave judgment declining to set aside the judgment as asked for and dismissed the bill with costs. A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. McKinnon for complainants; Agnes A. McDonald, Chas. R. Smallwood and Kenneth Martin for defendants.

Murdoch Ross, City, the fashionable Great George Street Tailor, is removing his place of business one door south of the present location. Owing to a steadily increasing business which necessitated a corresponding increase of employees his old quarters have become too small and he will now be in a larger and more commodious store where he will be better able than ever to cater to the wants of his many customers. His new store, which has been repaired and renovated, will present a neat, tidy and business-like appearance.

Theatre goers are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the Colonial Stock Company next week. They have proven such favorites in this City in the past with their fine plays beautifully costumed and staged, that they are sure of good houses. Each member has won individual friends who are waiting to give them a hearty welcome. The opening play will be The Two Orphans with a strong vigorous cast calling forth the best qualities in the different actors and one which is sure to commend itself to the lovers of good entertainment. Popular prices will prevail the plan opening tomorrow morning.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a splendid program of moving pictures one of the best he has ever shown. The pictures were loaned by Mrs Hogg, manager of New Wonderland, who is to be congratulated on being able to secure such high-class pictures. The Institution is very grateful to Mrs Hogg for this extreme kindness.

The case of Martin vs. Whiteway occupied the attention of the Vice-Chancellor on Wednesday and was concluded yesterday morning. In this case the bill asked that a certain judgment obtained in the Supreme Court be set aside. The Vice-Chancellor gave judgment declining to set aside the judgment as asked for and dismissed the bill with costs. A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. McKinnon for complainants; Agnes A. McDonald, Chas. R. Smallwood and Kenneth Martin for defendants.

Murdoch Ross, City, the fashionable Great George Street Tailor, is removing his place of business one door south of the present location. Owing to a steadily increasing business which necessitated a corresponding increase of employees his old quarters have become too small and he will now be in a larger and more commodious store where he will be better able than ever to cater to the wants of his many customers. His new store, which has been repaired and renovated, will present a neat, tidy and business-like appearance.

Theatre goers are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the Colonial Stock Company next week. They have proven such favorites in this City in the past with their fine plays beautifully costumed and staged, that they are sure of good houses. Each member has won individual friends who are waiting to give them a hearty welcome. The opening play will be The Two Orphans with a strong vigorous cast calling forth the best qualities in the different actors and one which is sure to commend itself to the lovers of good entertainment. Popular prices will prevail the plan opening tomorrow morning.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a splendid program of moving pictures one of the best he has ever shown. The pictures were loaned by Mrs Hogg, manager of New Wonderland, who is to be congratulated on being able to secure such high-class pictures. The Institution is very grateful to Mrs Hogg for this extreme kindness.

The case of Martin vs. Whiteway occupied the attention of the Vice-Chancellor on Wednesday and was concluded yesterday morning. In this case the bill asked that a certain judgment obtained in the Supreme Court be set aside. The Vice-Chancellor gave judgment declining to set aside the judgment as asked for and dismissed the bill with costs. A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. McKinnon for complainants; Agnes A. McDonald, Chas. R. Smallwood and Kenneth Martin for defendants.

Murdoch Ross, City, the fashionable Great George Street Tailor, is removing his place of business one door south of the present location. Owing to a steadily increasing business which necessitated a corresponding increase of employees his old quarters have become too small and he will now be in a larger and more commodious store where he will be better able than ever to cater to the wants of his many customers. His new store, which has been repaired and renovated, will present a neat, tidy and business-like appearance.

Theatre goers are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the Colonial Stock Company next week. They have proven such favorites in this City in the past with their fine plays beautifully costumed and staged, that they are sure of good houses. Each member has won individual friends who are waiting to give them a hearty welcome. The opening play will be The Two Orphans with a strong vigorous cast calling forth the best qualities in the different actors and one which is sure to commend itself to the lovers of good entertainment. Popular prices will prevail the plan opening tomorrow morning.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a splendid program of moving pictures one of the best he has ever shown. The pictures were loaned by Mrs Hogg, manager of New Wonderland, who is to be congratulated on being able to secure such high-class pictures. The Institution is very grateful to Mrs Hogg for this extreme kindness.

The case of Martin vs. Whiteway occupied the attention of the Vice-Chancellor on Wednesday and was concluded yesterday morning. In this case the bill asked that a certain judgment obtained in the Supreme Court be set aside. The Vice-Chancellor gave judgment declining to set aside the judgment as asked for and dismissed the bill with costs. A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. McKinnon for complainants; Agnes A. McDonald, Chas. R. Smallwood and Kenneth Martin for defendants.

Murdoch Ross, City, the fashionable Great George Street Tailor, is removing his place of business one door south of the present location. Owing to a steadily increasing business which necessitated a corresponding increase of employees his old quarters have become too small and he will now be in a larger and more commodious store where he will be better able than ever to cater to the wants of his many customers. His new store, which has been repaired and renovated, will present a neat, tidy and business-like appearance.

Theatre goers are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the Colonial Stock Company next week. They have proven such favorites in this City in the past with their fine plays beautifully costumed and staged, that they are sure of good houses. Each member has won individual friends who are waiting to give them a hearty welcome. The opening play will be The Two Orphans with a strong vigorous cast calling forth the best qualities in the different actors and one which is sure to commend itself to the lovers of good entertainment. Popular prices will prevail the plan opening tomorrow morning.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a splendid program of moving pictures one of the best he has ever shown. The pictures were loaned by Mrs Hogg, manager of New Wonderland, who is to be congratulated on being able to secure such high-class pictures. The Institution is very grateful to Mrs Hogg for this extreme kindness.

The case of Martin vs. Whiteway occupied the attention of the Vice-Chancellor on Wednesday and was concluded yesterday morning. In this case the bill asked that a certain judgment obtained in the Supreme Court be set aside. The Vice-Chancellor gave judgment declining to set aside the judgment as asked for and dismissed the bill with costs. A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. McKinnon for complainants; Agnes A. McDonald, Chas. R. Smallwood and Kenneth Martin for defendants.

Murdoch Ross, City, the fashionable Great George Street Tailor, is removing his place of business one door south of the present location. Owing to a steadily increasing business which necessitated a corresponding increase of employees his old quarters have become too small and he will now be in a larger and more commodious store where he will be better able than ever to cater to the wants of his many customers. His new store, which has been repaired and renovated, will present a neat, tidy and business-like appearance.

Theatre goers are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the Colonial Stock Company next week. They have proven such favorites in this City in the past with their fine plays beautifully costumed and staged, that they are sure of good houses. Each member has won individual friends who are waiting to give them a hearty welcome. The opening play will be The Two Orphans with a strong vigorous cast calling forth the best qualities in the different actors and one which is sure to commend itself to the lovers of good entertainment. Popular prices will prevail the plan opening tomorrow morning.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a splendid program of moving pictures one of the best he has ever shown. The pictures were loaned by Mrs Hogg, manager of New Wonderland, who is to be congratulated on being able to secure such high-class pictures. The Institution is very grateful to Mrs Hogg for this extreme kindness.

The case of Martin vs. Whiteway occupied the attention of the Vice-Chancellor on Wednesday and was concluded yesterday morning. In this case the bill asked that a certain judgment obtained in the Supreme Court be set aside. The Vice-Chancellor gave judgment declining to set aside the judgment as asked for and dismissed the bill with costs. A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. McKinnon for complainants; Agnes A. McDonald, Chas. R. Smallwood and Kenneth Martin for defendants.

Murdoch Ross, City, the fashionable Great George Street Tailor, is removing his place of business one door south of the present location. Owing to a steadily increasing business which necessitated a corresponding increase of employees his old quarters have become too small and he will now be in a larger and more commodious store where he will be better able than ever to cater to the wants of his many customers. His new store, which has been repaired and renovated, will present a neat, tidy and business-like appearance.

Theatre goers are looking forward with pleasure to the coming of the Colonial Stock Company next week. They have proven such favorites in this City in the past with their fine plays beautifully costumed and staged, that they are sure of good houses. Each member has won individual friends who are waiting to give them a hearty welcome. The opening play will be The Two Orphans with a strong vigorous cast calling forth the best qualities in the different actors and one which is sure to commend itself to the lovers of good entertainment. Popular prices will prevail the plan opening tomorrow morning.

Next Thursday, April the 7th, is the date of the Sacred Concert to be given by the Choir, in Grace Church, assisted by some of the best outside talent obtainable.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the conclusion of the case before the Court of Chancery, the opening of which on Wednesday was concluded in yesterday's Guardian.

The Earl Grey arrived in this port yesterday at ten o'clock with forty six passengers, two cars of kerosene, two cars of seed, a car of wagons and four cars of way freight.

Benj. Carter & Co., Auctioneers, will hold a furniture sale at Geo. Strickland's, 16 Chestnut St., on April 7, at one o'clock p.m. For further particulars see ad in this issue.

No one should forget the operetta tonight given by the girls of Prince Street School. This is one of the finest productions ever given and through the kindness of many assistants should give a pleasant entertainment to all those who hear it. It will commence sharp at 8.15 p. m.

About the end of April the Department of Agriculture will hold a sale of Pure Bred Stock at the Provincial Farm. Any one having Pure Bred Stock for sale will be given permission to offer them at this sale and it would be well for any one planning to offer stock to communicate at once with the Department of Agriculture.

The patients and nurses of Falconwood had a rare treat a few evenings ago. W. E. Burke gave a