ELECTION CAMPAIGN IN UNITED KINGDOM

Stormy Scenes in Ireland, Free Fights Abound, Meeting Broken Up. Some Canadian Candidates Have Good Chances. Sixty-Four Elections on January 15.

Special to The Guardian.
LONDON, January 4—Disorderly scenes were witnessed at the political meetings in Cork and Mayo.
One of the meetings was broken up by men on horseback who charged wildly through the police cordon and dispersed all listeners.
At Crossmolina a meeting was held to settle the preliminaries for a convention.
The ruling of the chairman aroused resentment and a large crowd rushed to the door and several persons were assaulted, while in a side room all efforts to speak were terminated by the mob smashing the windows and pouring by scores into the room.

Free fights ensued and the delegates to the meeting were pelted with stones and mud.
Joe Martin thinks he has a chance of being elected.

Donald Macmaster also believes himself a winner.
And Hamar Greenwood can't see where he can get left.
There will be sixty-four elections on January 15, including eighteen in London, six in Manchester and seven in Birmingham.
The results of these ought to give a pretty good indication of how the rest will go.

BRYCE ON THE CHRISTIAN AGE

ROCHESTER, N. Y., January 3—British Ambassador James Bryce was the chief speaker at the night session of the convention of the Student Volunteer Movement in Convention Hall, Bishop Hartzell, of the Methodist Church, whose field is in Africa, also spoke.
Ambassador Bryce characterized the present time as a critical and also auspicious one for Christianity. There had been such progress in thirty years, he said, that today ninety per cent of the habitable earth was under the control of the so-called Christian powers, "and, though vast multitudes remain non-Christian, there is scarcely a spot in which the influence of the white race is not felt, and in which the uncivilized and semi-civilized native peoples are not being penetrated by the ideas and habits of those more advanced nations."
Attention was called to the breaking up of the old ideas and customs in backward nations, and the advance in western civilization, and with these changes the necessity that was laid upon Christian nations to "implant a new and better faith."
Ambassador Bryce then spoke of the harm done among un-Christian peoples by "members of the Christian nations who disregard the teaching of their religion," and then described the present age among English-speaking peoples as unprecedented in its power to draw men to the pursuit of wealth and enjoyment. The address closed with an exhortation to "live lives 'in the true Gospel spirit,' whether at home or in foreign fields."

BOSTON, Jan. 3—If the track measurement was correct Hont. A. Fowler, of Cambridge, established a new world's amateur indoor running record for most of the distances up to 20 miles. In a match race in the Charlestown Armory, with Henri Renaud of Nashua, N. H., winner of the last Boston Marathon, and Joseph C. Silva of the South Boston A. C., Fowler won covering the twenty miles in one hour forty-eight minutes thirty-one seconds. Renaud was a poor second. Silva dropped out in the nineteenth mile. Fowler led after the fourth mile. The present amateur record for 20 miles out of doors, one hour 51 minutes 54 seconds, is held by G. Grossland of England, since 1904. The general opinion among amateur sport followers here is that the track was short.

FORGET SEES A GREAT YEAR AHEAD

MONTREAL, Jan 3—Rodolph Forget, M. P., the King of the Montreal Stock Exchange, is of the opinion that 1910 will be the greatest year financially and commercially the Dominion has ever seen, and he also believes that this will extend all over the continent. No one he adds can properly realize the amount of money in this country awaiting opportunities for safe speculation or legitimate investment.
In fact, Mr. Forget only sees one cloud on the financial horizon and that is the possibility of a war between England and Germany, but he cannot think that such an event comes even within the range of possibility. He says that Germany has been in a very bad condition lately, and now that she is only recovering it is not at all reasonable to suppose that she would go headlong into a ruinous war with a powerful state.

BANK TELLER IS SENT TO JAIL

PITTSBURG, Jan 3—Charles Vereka, bookkeeper and teller of the Workingman's saving bank & trust company, north side, was committed to jail today on charges of embezzlement. The officials of the Workingman's saving bank & trust company issued a statement this afternoon in which they say:
"It is true that a shortage appears in the accounts of Mr. Muelbrunner and Mr. Vereka, two of our employees, the amount being approximately $25,000."
Just as to how Muelbrunner figures in the trouble is not made clear.

GIRL OF TAFT KIN BELIEVED STOLEN

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan 3—Search was renewed today for Dorothy Taft, the twelve-year-old adopted daughter of the Rev. S. H. Taft, a cousin of the President, who disappeared Friday when coming here on a train from Pomona.
Police officers here and in Dolgeville, the only place the train stopped after leaving Pomona, searched all night for the missing child.
"I am sure somebody has stolen our little girl," said Mrs. Taft, after all inquiries in Pomona and at the railroad offices here had elicited no information.
The child was placed on a Southern Pacific train Friday by Mrs. S. C. W. Bowen, of Pomona, at whose home she had spent a week. No one has been found who saw her after that.
Mr. and Mrs. Taft adopted Dorothy when she was a baby. According to Mrs. Taft, the mother is in Texas. Mr. Taft is pastor of a church at Sawtelle, where the Soldiers' Home is located.

WILD SCENES IN IRELAND

LONDON, January 3—Disorderly scenes were witnessed at meetings in counties Cork and Mayo on Sunday. Mr. Flynn, M.P. for North Cork, who was visiting his constituents, met with severe opposition from the supporters of Mr. Guiney, a county councillor running in the O'Brien interests, and one of his meetings was broken up by men on horseback, who charged wildly through the police cordon and dispersed his listeners helterskelter.
At Crossmolina, in county Mayo, a meeting was held to settle the preliminaries for the convention, and a ruling of the chairman, Mr. Johnston, representing the National Directory, aroused resentment in certain quarters. A large crowd rushed to the door, and several persons were assaulted, while inside the room the efforts of Father Quin, of Barilina, and Mr. Conor O'Kelly, M. P. for North Mayo, to speak at the same time were terminated by the mob smashing into the windows and pouring by scores into the room. Free fights ensued, and up to a late hour the streets remained in a disturbed condition. The delegates to the meeting were pelted with stones and mud as they left the town.

REVIVE OLD REGIMENTS

BIRMINGHAM, January 3—The Post says it understands that the government will shortly announce its approval of the revival suggested by the Dominion government of three old Canadian infantry regiments, the most noted of which was the old One Hundredth.
The 100th Regiment was raised in Canada during the Crimean war. It was a British regiment and was paid by the war office, but was recruited here. The regiment left Quebec for the Crimea. When, however, it reached Gibraltar the war was coming to an end, and it did not proceed further. The 100th was always known as a Canadian regiment. It was, however, not Canadian in its personnel in later years. Ten or twelve years ago it was disbanded.

MAY MEAN SALVATION OF THE FUR SEAL

SAN DIEGO, Cal, Jan 3—Boatswain Judson Thurber, of the United States revenue cutter Bear, now here, has received orders to report to Washington, D. C., and there explain his method of raising orphan fur seal pups, two of which he brought alive from the Trinity islands, Alaska, to San Diego on board the Bear.
The significance of the order, from Washington lies in the fact that Thurber's method may mean the salvation of the fur seal of Alaska, now fast disappearing as a result of the activities of poachers who kill mother seals regardless of the existence of pups and leave the latter to die of starvation.

COMFORT

Say, You've struck a heap of trouble—
Business, lost your wife;
Nose aches a cent about you,
You don't care a cent for life;
Hard luck has hope left yet you,
Health is failing, wish you'd die—
Why, you've still the sunshine left you,
And the big, blue sky.

Dancing shadows, green, still meadows—
Don't you mope, you've still got these.
These, and none can take them from you;
These, and none can weigh their worth.
What! you're tired and broke and beaten?
Why, you're rich—you've got the earth!

Yes, if you're a tramp in tatters,
While the blue sky bends above,
You've got nearly all that matters,
You've got God, and God is love.

—Robert W. Service.

Sky so blue it makes you wonder
If it's heaven shining through;
Earth so smiling 'way out yonder,
Sun so bright it dazzles you,
Birds a-singing, flowers a-flouring
All their fragrance on the breeze;
