

Fashion and Comfort.
 For once fashion and common sense have joined in the cause of comfort in ladies' footwear.
 The really fashionable shoe is built much like a man's shoe on a womanly scale.
 This fashion has the advantage of a fine appearance, combined with common-sense comfort, and will therefore be a permanent one.
 Won the gold medal at Paris Exposition.
 $3 and $4. Sold everywhere.
 Genuine only when stamped—

SUM'SIDE AND WEST

Mr. J. S. Hinton, who spent Sunday in Charlottetown, returned home yesterday morning.

The Northumberland's cargo yesterday consisted of three cars oysters, three ears oats, one ear live geese, 435 lambs and sundries.

Mr. H. D. McLEAN Souris arrived by Port du Chene yesterday after a short vacation in Amherst. Close relations between the two towns are expected.

Mr. Archibald Thompson of Darnley left by the Northumberland yesterday morning enroute to Washtacuna, Washington State, where he will spend the winter with his daughter, Mrs. W. B. Smith.

Sinclair & Stewart are showing a line of Boys' Heavy Fall and Winter Suits, made of all wool Canadian frieze, double breasted, in two and three pieces, good fitters and well made—a very durable and comfortable garment and will give the boys lots of wear for money expended. Try one and be convinced. 15, 11 & W.

ANY person desiring to purchase a winter's supply of coal or even a load will find it to their advantage to call on Mr. James Brehaut of this town. Mr. Brehaut sells only good coal at a reasonable price and always gives good weight. He also purchases produce and wants immediately a quantity of white or black oats and McIntyre potatoes. Call and see Mr. Brehaut.

The marriage takes place at Alberton at an early hour this morning of Mr. J. Willard Waugh, druggist at that place, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Waugh, Summerside, to Miss Lizzie Dyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dyer of Alberton. The bride is attended by her sister, Miss Maud Dyer and Mr. Fred Clark, Post Master, supports the groom, while Rev. D. Davis ties the nuptial knot. The ceremony takes place in St. Peter's Episcopal church. After a wedding breakfast the happy couple will leave by train for S'ide and take passage by the Northumberland en route on a trip to St. John and Halifax. THE GUARDIAN joins with many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Waugh much happiness.

Messrs J. C. Jardine and Lemuel McGregor have bought out the stock and trade of Mr. R. H. Montgomery—the bookstore formerly owned by Mr. D. K. Currie and have entered the business area of S'ide under the firm name of Jardine and McGregor. Mr. Jardine is the S'ide representative of the Patriot and is already well known to the public, while his partner Mr. McGregor is not a stranger to the people of this district. They are both popular young men. They have entered upon a new venture in which they are deserving of a liberal share of the public patronage and in which they will no doubt hold up the reputation of the Prince County bookstore. THE GUARDIAN wishes them every success.
