THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

HALL ENLARGED.—The Fredericton Hall has been enlarged by the addition of some 15 feet in length.

THE G. C. KELLY.—The schooner G. C. Kelly with a cargo of coal for C. Lyons & Co., arrived in Charlottetown yesterday from Sydney.

ST. CATHERINES.—M. C. McKinnon will preach on Saturday, the 14th) at St. Catherine's at 7.30, and on Sabbath, the 15th, at Churchill at 10.30 and the People's Church at 7.

HAVE SECURED HOMES.— The five little orphans who arrived in Charlottetown Tuesday are now being cared for by people who have taken them into their homes. One has found a home in Kensington and the other four at Murray Harbor. They left the city yesterday afternoon.

WELL NURSED—His many friends will be pleased to learn that Master Wilfrid Walsh, Longworth St., who has been very ill, is improving rapidly and is now on the sure road to recovery. Master Wilfrid in addition to the usual medical professional attendance, had the advantage of being nursed by Mr. Hudson Sherren, a fact which contributed largely to his speedy recovery.

ROAD CONDITIONS—In conversation yesterday with Mr. Neil McNevin, Mail Courier, between Charlottetown and Hampton over which route he travels twice a day summer and winter, and with utmost satisfaction to the public, he informed the Guardian that the roads are, generally speaking most creditable. From North River Bridge to Churchill, a distance of about ten miles, the road is all that could be desired and a credit to the Road Masters. From Churchill to DeSable, on the post road, conditions are not as they ought to be particularly in Bonshaw where there are sections which are actually dangerous, no work having been done here yet. The Road Masters in this territory require a little urging on by the authorities. From DeSable to Hampton the roads are now being put in good condition and will shortly be quite creditable and a pleasure to drive on. On the return stretch along DeSable and Argyle Shore the roads were put in good condition early in the spring and are excellent.

YOUTHFUL ROBBERS.— Yesterday morning Mr. Magistrate Martin had before him at the Charlottetown Police Court eight little boys, whose ages ranged from eight to ten or twelve years, against whom the serious charge of breaking and entering into business premises was made. These were the boys implicated in the robbery committed a few nights ago at the business places of Messrs. Fennell & Chandler and Mr. C. L. Grant, from which a large quantity of hardware was stolen. The youthful robbers, it appeared, effected their enterance into the places by breaking one of the glass windows, after which it was plain sailing for them. The stuff they succeeded in carrying away, it seems, they hid in one of those shanties called shacks, which method was adopted in order to conceal their wrongdoings from their parents. They were brought up before the Magistrate yesterday morning, their parents being in attendance; and Mr. Martin had them all before him in his private office where he dealt with the matter. The boys it is understood, did not deny their guilt, and received no doubt a severe warning from the Magistrate, while it is expected that their parents did not escape a little homily on their duties, and the care of their children. Nothing, of course, was done to the young people in the matter of punishment, but they no doubt heard more of this side of the question from their parents in the privacy of their homes.
