The Housewife

And they don't, either. Mr. Aage Thaarup (pronounced Oer Torerp, though few of his clients know and he doesn't encourage it—sound being too easily confused with Coocher)—has explained it all to me, and as he makes between five and six thousand hats a year he seems a good enough example. Everything he does he thinks of in terms of hats!

So as he has just been furnishing a house to live in his collection in preparation is just like that. Miniature models of Adam fireplaces, of Chippendale chairs and old-fashioned clocks to be worn where we used to put flowers and feathers.

There is even to be a hat stuffed with down, like a cushion. So like a cushion in fact, that you'll be able to take it off and sit on it at the pictures without affecting the shape.

FOR A MAN'S ROOM

A manish atmosphere can be obtained for a bedroom by using wallpaper with a brown background with an off-white lattice pattern design. Draperies could be candlewick, brown tufts contrasting with natural background and the furniture mahogany Chippendale.

Touches of red in hunting prints and leather chair add zest to the color scheme.

THE COOK'S CORNER

CRANBERRY APPLE COCKTAIL

Peel and cut apples in one-half inch dice; cover with above mixture for cranberry cocktail and allow to stand one hour before serving.

CRANBERRY MOUSSE

3 cups cranberries
3-4 cup water
1-1/4 cups sugar
1 pint whipping cream
1 Grated rind and juice of 1 small orange

Cook cranberries with water until soft. Rub through sieve. Add sugar to pulp and cook 5 minutes. Add grated rind and juice. Cool. Fold in cream, whipped until stiff. Freeze.

CRANBERRY APPLES

1 cup cranberries
1 cup sugar
1 cup water
6 apples

Cover cranberries with water and cook until broken. Press through a coarse sieve. Add sugar, bring to a boil; add apples peeled, cored, and cut in eighths. Cook very slowly until apples are clear and have absorbed the juice. Cool and serve with whipped cream as dessert. Use apples which do not break up in cooking. Spy, Delicious, Russet, or Tolman Sweet are good varieties for this purpose.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

marries. Be stingy with your demonstrations of affection. Men value them, as they are hard to get. Once a girl has the reputation of being free with her charms, she cheapens herself so that few men give her more than a passing glance with anything other in their minds than a brief enjoyment of what they can get without entangling themselves.

Don't pick out a husband with less thought than you would give to selecting a hat. There is a lot more to love than a few fleeting moments of physical pleasure. The love that celebrates silver and golden anniversaries is built on a mutual respect and companionship that calls for a oneness of thought and impulse greater than can be discovered by a casual chat or a brief intimacy.

This is what a lot of college boys of my age think about girls.

Answer: B. I. R.

And wise thoughts they are, buddy. I hope that some of the many girls who write to me that men only like wild women take your thoughts to heart.

Dear Miss Dix—What can a woman do who has a husband who lolls around the house all day long playing solitaire from sun up to sunset; who seems only to care to eat, sleep, read; who is always going to do things but never does, when there is a young son to be educated, when the home is in debt, when the wife has done everything she possibly can to support the family? That is my fix and I don't know the answer.

Answer: MARGARET.

There are only two things she can do. One is to refuse to support her lazy, good-for-nothing husband any longer and turn him out of the house. The other is just to accept the situation and quit worrying over it and regard him as a piece of household bric-a-brac.

DOROTHY DIX.
