

Week's News Budget for Our Saturday Subscribers

MONDAY
CONVALESCING—Mr. B. J. Gaudet, who has been confined to the City Hospital for the past four weeks, undergoing treatment for a fracture of the hip, is now convalescing at his home, although progress towards recovery is rather slow, his case being considered as very unusual.

ORDAINED AS DEACON—Yesterday morning Mr. Louis Dougan, son of Mr. Richard Dougan, City, was ordained as deacon. The service was held at 9 o'clock at St. Dunstan's College by His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan, who preached the fine sermon on the Holy Ghost. The Bishop was assisted in the service by Rev. Fathers Murphy, Sullivan and McMahon.

PLANS RECEIVED—Plans for the new Prince of Wales College have been received by the Provincial Department; of Public Works, and tenders are being called, as advertised elsewhere in today's Guardian. Mr. Marani, of Marani, Lawson and Morris, Toronto, architects, was here last week in connection with the delivery of the plans and tenders. It is intended to speed up the work as quickly as possible, consistent with efficiency.

WOODS FIRE—A fire which might easily have been much more serious occurred at Belle River yesterday afternoon when a quantity of standing timber owned by E. Compton & Co. was destroyed by fire. The blaze started about noon and finally burned out late in the afternoon when its progress was stopped by the river. A large crowd of neighbors gathered to assist in preventing the fire from spreading. The Compton Mills and a large pile of lumber valued at $7,000 were damaged but were unharmed. The origin of the fire is not known.

DEATH OF GILBERT GAUDET OF MISCOUCHE—There passed away on Saturday morning at his home in Miscoche Mr. Gilbert Gaudet at the age of seventy years after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Gaudet was a life-long resident of Miscoche and a successful farmer most highly respected in the community. He was a devout member of the Roman Catholic Church at Miscoche. There are left to mourn his widow, one son, Regis, at home and five daughters: Mrs. Albert Desrois and Mrs. Edna in Lawrence, Mass.; Mrs. Joseph Gallant, Haverhill, N. S. A.; Mrs. Verne McEachern of Charlottetown and Mrs. Patrick Martin of Miscoche; also two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Gaudet of Miscoche and Mrs. Fidele Arsenault of Wellington to whom much sympathy is extended.—S.

A large concourse of citizens from all parts of the province attended the funeral services for the late Mrs. McArthur, wife of Senator Creelman McArthur, which were held on Saturday afternoon at the family residence on Spring Street, Summerside. The service was conducted by Rev. W. H. Harding. Rev. B. McLean read the scripture lesson from 1 Cor., 15th chapter. The choir of the Christian Church feelingly rendered "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Abide With Me."

Rev. L. B. Campbell offered prayer and Rev. W. H. Harding delivered the address in which he paid high tribute to the deceased and spoke words of comfort and hope for the life to come to the bereaved family. As one who had known Mrs. McArthur from her girlhood he could speak with sympathy and understanding and his words touched the hearts of his hearers and brought vividly before them that in the midst of life we are in death.

Representing the provincial government were: Hon. J. D. Stewart, Hon. W. M. Lea, Hon. G. Shelton, Hon. A. R. Arsenault, Hon. J. Heath Strong, K. C. M. L. A., Mr. L. R. Allen, M. L. A., Mr. J. A. Campbell, M. L. A. and others present, were Mayor W. Manson and members of the council, Horace Wright, Mr. J. Arnet, Mr. D. B. McDonald, Mr. J. Morris and others. There were many beautiful floral tributes from the Federal and Provincial Governments, individual members and prominent people at Ottawa and other friends. The services at the home were conducted by Rev. W. Harding.

Mr. Frank Teed, City Weigher, left Saturday morning on a visit to Montreal. During his absence of ten days, Mr. Robert Dalsiel is in charge.

The many friends in Georgetown of Mr. E. B. MacLaren are pleased to hear that he is doing as well as can be expected from a broken leg. Mr. MacLaren is very popular in Georgetown and everyone wishes him a speedy recovery.

Miss Belle MacGowan has returned to Montague after spending a week at Halifax, the guest of her brother Jack, who received his B. Sc. degree at Dalhousie University. Miss MacGowan had a wonderful time and attended all the dances and functions of the week.

—RESIDENCE ON FIRE—Through the prompt action of neighbors the residence of Mr. Russell Yeo of Lion's Road near Harmony was saved from complete destruction by fire. About 4:30 on Thursday evening the roof was noticed to be on fire. Neighbors quickly responded to the call for help and although the house was considerably damaged by water and smoke the building and its contents were saved.—S.

BEREAVED OF FATHER—Word was received here Friday of the death in Alma, Prince Edward Island, of David Marchbank, father of Mrs. Johnson Clarke of Amherst and brother of Mrs. A. I. MacLean. The news of his serious illness was received by Mrs. Clarke last Friday and she and Mrs. MacLean left at once for her former home. Death was due to pneumonia and heart attack. No further particulars were given. There will be great sympathy with the members of the family in their sad and unexpected loss.—Amherst News.

QUOTA RETURNS—Lieut. J. J. Connolly, three ratings of the R. C. N. V. R., W. Cullen, seaman gunner, George McMahon, torpedoman and J. Chipman, A. B. are back in Charlottetown after an interesting four months' cruise around the West Indies on H. M. C. S. Champlain. The party left Halifax on the H. M. C. S. Saguenay, on January 11 calling at Bermuda, where they stayed for three weeks, and Jamaica. They called at Ponce, Porto Rico and St. Kitts where they spent a week. St. John's, Antigua; Martinique; and Port of Spain, Trinidad were also ports of call. Leaving the latter they returned to Bermuda and then to Halifax.

TUESDAY

ON MOTOR TRIP—Hon. Cyrus Crosby, accompanied by his son-in-law, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Mathews and their daughter of Souris, spent the week end at Bonshaw, where they visited Mr. Crosby's brother, Mr. Heath Crosby. They returned to Souris yesterday making the trip by motor car.

BRILLIANT STUDENT—Numbered among the 3rd year Dalhousie medical students appears the name of F. L. McPhail, North River, whose name was overlooked in the previous list. Mr. McPhail passed in Lab. Diagnosis, Pathology, Surgery, Pharmacology, obstetrics and Gynaecology, and won distinction in medicine.

—CELEBRATES FIRST SOLEMN HIGH MASS—Rev. Joseph Douglas McNeill, who was ordained to the Holy Priesthood last Saturday in St. Paul's Church, Summerside, celebrated his first Solemn High Mass on Sunday in St. Paul's Church. There was a very large congregation. Assisting the new priest in his solemn duties were Rev. Dr. McLeellan as Master of Ceremonies, Rev. Urban Gillis as Deacon and Rev. Bennett McDonald as Sub Deacon. The altar boys served the Mass. Rev. A. L. Sinnott of Rollo Bay preached an eloquent sermon from the text, Thou art a priest forever according to the Order of Melchisedec. Leonard's Mass in E. Flat was very effectively rendered by a full choir. S.

AT GYRO—Mr. R. R. Bell was chairman at the regular weekly Gyro meeting held last evening in the Canadian National Hotel. The meeting was featured by the attendance of most of the ex-members in the city. Violin solos were rendered by Mr. Alfred McKeaney, piano solos by Mr. Walter MacNutt and vocal numbers by Mr. Robert Hyndman, Mr. Albert Blanchard was the accompanist. President Stewart Jones spoke on the meaning of Gyro. The guests were: Messrs Grant Gregory, Everett Ferguson, Robert T. Holman, C. M. Tait of Montreal, E. S. Chandler, A. R. McInnis, Fred I. The meeting was well attended and arrangements were made for the celebration of their seventy fifth anniversary which will be held in the middle of June.

JAMES WELDON—A wedding of interest took place in Moncton, Wednesday May 11th, when Miss Florence Weldon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weldon, Chatham, was united in marriage to Robert Lester James, Montreal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Odbury James, Sunny Brae. Rev. S. J. McArthur performed the ceremony in the presence of friends and relatives. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Charles Steeves, while Dale Weldon supported the groom. Following a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, Mr. and Mrs. James will return to Montreal where they will reside.

R. C. M. P. QUARTERS—Authorization from Ottawa has been received by the R. C. M. P. for the renting of the Alley property, corner of Prince and Dorchester Streets for use as barracks and offices. The building is now being renovated and put in condition for the occupation by the Mounties, which is expected to take place about the first of June. Living quarters will be provided for six single men, the married members of the force being permitted to dwell elsewhere. The offices of the R. C. M. P. will also be located in the same building.

WEDNESDAY
 The H. M. C. S. Champlain and the H. M. C. S. Saguenay arrived in port about 3:40 yesterday afternoon.

The Saguenay carried Commander Hoso who in the afternoon inspected the Charlottetown half company R. C. N. V. R. The Guard of Honour was mounted in front of the Naval Reserve Headquarters. After inspection he viewed the class in different drills and complimented them highly on the creditable showing they made. The force is commanded by Lieut. George Buntin and Lieut. Lieutenant J. G. Connolly. The Saguenay under Commander Nelles, carries a crew of 150 men and seven officers. Her armaments consist of four 4.5 inch guns, eight torpedoes and also anti aircraft guns.

The Champlain is in charge of Lieut. Commander Pressey and carries a crew of 92 men and six officers. She is armed with four torpedoes; three 4 inch guns and three anti-aircraft guns. Both vessels visited this port last summer. The cruisers sailed last night at 10 o'clock for Gaspe where they will spend two days, after which they will go to Quebec and Montreal.

—PRETTY WEDDING—The marriage took place on Tuesday morning in Seven Mile Bay Church at the residence of Miss M. M. Gueda Gaudet and Mr. W. Frederick Blaquiere both of Summerside, Rev. William Monaghan celebrating the Nuptial Mass. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends, about twenty accompanying the bridal couple from Summerside. The bride wore a pretty travelling suit of brown. She was attended by Miss Irene Gallant who wore a navy blue suit. The groom was supported by Mr. Leonard Peters. After the ceremony the wedding party motored to Borden where a wedding breakfast was served at the Abergweil Hotel. The guests numbered about twenty, among them being Rev. Father Monaghan, who gave the newly married couple his blessing and wished them every happiness through life. The party was photographed here they embarked on the S. S. Charlottetown. As the boat left the shore their friends sang "Wedding Bells". Mr. and Mrs. Blaquiere will honeymoon in St. John, N. B. before taking up their residence in Halifax, N. S. They were accompanied by Miss Eva Porter. The night previous to the marriage a reception was held in honour of the bride and groom at the home of Mr. Emanuel Gallant, uncle of the groom, at which about sixty guests were present. They were presented with an address and presentation of a case of silver ware and a beautiful green bedspread, besides several presents of money. The address was read by Miss Yvonne Arsenault and the presentation made by Ms Beatrice Arsenault. After a pleasant evening the young couple bid farewell to their friends amidst hearty good wishes.—S.

—VISITING BOSTON—Mrs. P. N. Pale of O'Leary left on Saturday on a visit to her son, Mr. Peter Pale of Boston, Mass., she was accompanied by Mrs. John A. Pale. They will return by car with Mrs. P. N. Pale who will spend the summer at her home in O'Leary.—S.

The Hon. Shelton Sharp, Minister of Agriculture, and Capt. J. H. Murray, Esplanade, motored Wednesday to Borden to meet the former's niece, Miss Joan Arbuckle who arrived from Montreal where she is attending McGill University. Miss Arbuckle is the daughter of Dr. Arbuckle of Vancouver, B. C. While on the Island she will be the guest of her uncle and aunt, Hon. Mr. Sharp and Mrs. Sharp, Esplanade. Miss Eleanor Bourke also motored from Borden with the party, after returning from a pleasant vacation spent in New Brunswick.

—CONGRATULATIONS—A number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. M. McLeod on the occasion of her 96th birthday to extend their congratulations. Mrs. McLeod who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Champion, enjoys exceeding good health and is quite active for her age. During the winter she hooked three beautiful rugs, which were much admired. A dainty lunch was served and the guests departed expressing the wish that they would meet again next year.—S.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Butler of Fort Frances, Ont., have been visiting friends and relatives at Peter's Road. It is upwards of twelve years since Mr. Butler last visited his native province and home at Peter's Road, where his father Mr. William Butler and Mrs. Butler reside. The trip was made by motor from Fort Frances chiefly through U. S. territory, making a rather circuitous journey. Mr. Butler, we are informed, is the proprietor of a large meat business at Fort Frances, employing a considerable staff of helpers. Mr. and Mrs. Butler have since returned home.

FEAST CELEBRATED—The Feast of Pentecost was fittingly celebrated at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer on Sunday last. Solemn High Mass was celebrated at 10:30 by Reverend Father J. McGree, C. S. R., with Reverend Father G. M. Murphy, C. S. R., Deacon, and Reverend J. F. Johnston, Sub-Deacon. The sermon was preached by Reverend Father S. L. Connolly, C. S. R. The mixed Choir rendered special music for the occasion. In the afternoon at 3:30 His Excellency Bishop J. A. O'Sullivan conferred the Sacrament of Confirmation on a class of boys and girls and gave them very helpful instructions on the Sacrament that they were about to receive. Pontifical Benediction was celebrated by His Excellency assisted by Fathers McGree and Murphy, with Father McMahon, D. D., as Master of Ceremonies. The mixed choir rendered appropriate music in an excellent manner. The Altar was nicely decorated with flowers and lights.

—WEDDING BELLS—A wedding of much interest was solemnized on Tuesday morning at seven o'clock in St. Paul's Church, Summerside, when Miss Marguerite Cecilia, daughter of Mr. J. J. Gaudet, proprietor of the Capitol Theatre was united in marriage to Mr. Harold Herbert Huest of Summerside. Rev. Bennett McDonald celebrated the Nuptial Mass. As the bridal party entered the church, Mrs. Roy Silliphant played the Wedding March. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked very charming in a wedding dress of Royal blue lace with hat and accessories to match, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Celanese Arsenault attended the bride and was daintily attired in a dress of love bird green with hat to match; her corsage bouquet was of yellow roses. Mr. Harold Gaudet supported the groom. During the Mass the Children of Mary rendered very sweetly appropriate hymns. At nine o'clock a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home for the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The dining room was a bower of loveliness with flowers and potted plants. After receiving the congratulations of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Gaudet left by car for Borden, where they crossed on the car ferry on a wedding tour of the American cities. The bride travelled in a navy blue suit with black hat. On their return the happy young couple will reside in Summerside where they have the best wishes of a host of friends and in which the Guardian joins.—S.

THURSDAY
ANOTHER FIRE LOSS—A new barn, including a quantity of hay and oats, the property of John Reeves, Freetown, was totally destroyed by fire last night about 9:30. The stock and machinery housed in the building were saved. Insurance unknown.

PROPERTY PURCHASED—The brick residential property on the corner of Queen and Fitzroy Streets now occupied by Mr. W. P. Doull and Mr. Louis C. Wright has been purchased by Mr. Nakad Tweel, brother of Mr. N. W. Tweel, Elm Avenue. Mr. Tweel intends converting the property into a grocery store within the next few months.

REMANDED TO SUPREME COURT—An autoist charged with reckless driving appeared before Magistrate Donald MacKinnon yesterday morning and was fined $10 and costs. Oliver Herring appeared on a charge of attempted rape and was remanded until the next session of the Supreme Court. The offence is said to have taken place at Harrington about three weeks ago.

ROGERSON—LEA—The United Church Parsonage at Tryon was the scene of a quiet wedding on Tuesday evening, April 19th, when Amy Lea, daughter of the late Brenton Lea and Mrs. Lea of Tryon, was united in marriage to Mr. William Rogerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rogerson of North Tryon. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, J. L. Lund. The young couple, who have the good wishes of their many friends, will reside at North Tryon.

After an eight weeks illness from heart trouble, Mr. William Moffatt peacefully passed away at his home in Mayfield early on Sunday morning. Mr. Moffatt was born on November 5, 1849, and was a son of James and Jane (Arthur) Moffatt, natives of Scotland. He was educated in the public schools and for many years carried on farming achieving success by his industry and intelligence. Some years ago he also engaged in the coal, lumber and produce trade, owning and running his schooner between the Island and Maritime ports, principally Sydney.

There are left to fondly cherish his memory, a widow, nee Miss Caroline Houston, and the following sons and daughters: David, on the homestead; Luther, John and Robert in Sydney; Mrs. Walter Houston and Bruce, in Vandura, Sask.; Mrs. Willard Nicholson, in Mayfield, and James Edward in New Glasgow.

He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Archibald and Miss Janie Moffatt, in New Glasgow, Prince Edward Island.

The annual meeting of the Charlottetown Driving Park and Provincial Exhibition Association was held in their office, Tweel Building, yesterday afternoon. The President, Mr. James Paton, presided. The report of the Directors for 1931, which is appended, was read and commented upon, also the financial statement which showed a deficit of $5,713.63, some of which however, is chargeable to repairs and replacements. All present considered that last year's Exhibition was a decided success from every angle and but for the bad weather would have been most outstanding. The Secretary stated that Premier J. D. Stewart, Hon. G. Shelton Sharp, Minister of Agriculture and W. R. Shaw, B. S. A., would cooperate with the Association in an advisory capacity representing the Government and that Councillors Samuel Kennedy and Frederick Trainor had been appointed to act similarly for the city. The appointment of Percy Williams as auditor was approved.

The election of Directors was proceeded with and the same board re-elected. After election of Directors the annual meeting was adjourned and a Directors' meeting took place at which Mr. James Paton was elected President, Hon. Geo. E. Hughes Vice President and J. W. B. Boulter Secretary Treasurer, with S. A. McLeod, V. C. Smallwood, W. C. S. McLure, M.P., James F. Roper, J. B. Andrew, T. W. L. Prowse and Colonel D. A. MacKinnon as co-directors.

Reference was made to the valuable services of the President, Mr. Paton, who has given a tremendous amount of time and energy to the Association. Although not in good health it was felt that by exercising good care the strain of his duties would not be injurious. As one Director put it "we need his guiding hand and good sound judgment."

adv'sability of holding an Exhibition this year with the uncertainty regarding the amount if any of Dominion grant, a cut in the City grant and the rather abnormal conditions in Agriculture. Mr. Boulter stated that the live stock men and exhibitors generally would be very greatly disappointed if the Exhibition was not held. Our Exhibition had become such a fixture that people look forward to it and prepare for it as the annual holiday. He had received a great many inquiries from the other provinces and from all parts of the Island and believed that it would go over big as usual.

After considerable discussion in which all took part it was decided that the Exhibition would be held the week of August 22nd, to 26th, and that the energies of Directors and staff would immediately be bent on getting everything ready for a great big show.

FRIDAY
FIRE ALARM—The firemen were called out about 4:40 yesterday afternoon for a roof fire at the residence of Mr. Samuel French, corner of Pownall and Euston Sts. A line of hose was laid and the blaze extinguished with little damage.

Edmund King, able seaman on the S. S. Ulva, which docked at the railroad wharf about 5:30 last evening, died suddenly about 4:30 while the ship was entering the harbor.

About 4 o'clock while at work he complained of dizziness and retired to his bunk where he lapsed into an unconscious condition and died within half an hour. The cause of death is unknown.

The regular weekly meeting of the Y's Mens Club was held in the Y social hall last evening with a good attendance. Pres. T. W. Bentley was in the chair. Visitors were Mr. J. N. Seelye of Halifax, N. S., and Mr. Kenneth Richards, city. The special speaker of the evening was Y's Man Reuel LePage who gave a most interesting address on "How to fit shoes." During his address Mr. LePage gave many helpful hints on the care of feet, etc.

INQUEST HELD—An inquest was held last evening at Covehead to enquire into the death of James R. MacMillan, 72 year old resident of Covehead West, whose body was found in barn of the deceased yesterday morning. The jury found that the deceased met death at his own hand while in a state of temporary despondency. The jurymen were: Ramsay Auld, (foreman) John Beaton, Miller Bearisto, Joseph May, Hibbert Hughes, Frank Hughes and James Allen.

A serious accident occurred about noon yesterday at Bell's Hill near Montague.

One of the Montague transfer trucks, driven by Mr. Lowell Pool was climbing the hill when the load of potatoes which the truck was carrying began to slip. Two young men Gordon McLean and Billy Landry were riding on the load at the time. Landry jumped and escaped injury. But before McLean could jump he was thrown to the ground, part of the load falling upon him.

The injured man was taken to his home at Montague, where it was found he suffered severe injuries to his back and head. At a late hour last night he was still in a semi-conscious condition.

could be summoned Mr. Colwill had expired.

The deceased, who was about forty-five years of age, had been in his usual health yesterday and his sudden passing is a great shock to his many friends. Some years ago in a bathing accident, he had suffered a severe heart strain from which it is probable he had never fully recovered.

The late Mr. Colwill as a young man entered the employ of the Hughes Drug Company Limited where he qualified as a druggist about twenty years ago he purchased the old established business of Johnson and Johnson from the estate of the late F. M. Johnson, and since that time devoted his energies untiringly to his profession. Successful in business, he was esteemed also as a man of high moral character and warm human sympathies. He regularly attended Trinity United Church and took a deep interest in its activities.

Surviving Mr. Colwill are three children, Freda, Constance, and Helene, also one sister, Miss Emma Colwill, at home, and one brother, Fred, in Boston. Mrs. Colwill, who was a daughter of Mr. George M. Moore of this city, predeceased her husband by about three years. The sympathy of all citizens will go out to the bereaved family in their sudden loss.
