LOCAL BRIEFS

The Latest News of the City and Province.

Gathered By Guardian Reporter's and Correspondents Everywhere.

(See also on page 7.)

THERE was no crossing at the Capes on Saturday and consequently no foreign mail.

THE Stanley did not leave Pictou on Saturday, owing to the storm, but will leave this morning for Georgetown.

THE LOYAL CRUSADERS will meet in the lower room of Wright's Hall, while the upper room is being repaired.

VICTORIA DIVISION S. of T. will meet in Orient Division Room this evening, as the upper room is undergoing repairs.

THE artistic window dressing in Mr. W. W. Wellner's jewelry store on Saturday evening was greatly admired by pedestrians.

THE meeting of District Lodge, I. O. G. T. at Pownal, to have been held Saturday, has been postponed on account of the storm until Friday next at 1 30 p. m. Revs. McConnell, D. B. McLeod, Howard and Spurr and other speakers will address the meeting.

Two young men, Mr. John Ramsay and Mr. Herbert Hardy, left Montrose Thursday morning for Edmonton, N. W. T. While regretting the loss of such stalwart and exemplary young men we wish them God-speed to their far distant home. They carry with them the best wishes and esteem of the whole community.—Montrose Cor.

JAMES MCDONALD, who lives at North River, was in the city Friday, and went home in the evening under the influence of liquor. Upon his return he attempted to beat his wife, but his son interfered and after punishing the father severely tied him hand and foot and brought him into the city and gave him in charge of the police. Saturday morning the father was arranged before the Stipendiary Magistrate and remanded for trial today.

THE regular monthly meeting of the Local Council of Women convened in P. W. College Saturday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. There was a good attendance, considering the condition of the streets. The report of the committee on the Bureau of Labor was adopted and ordered to be carried into effect. The following committees were appointed:—To prepare by-laws; to gather information regarding compulsory attendance at school, and to wait on the School Board regarding the number of children who ought to be in school. Other business was held over till next meeting.

O. Y. B's will meet tonight for practice at 8 o'clock.

REV. G. F. DAWSON preached an exceptionally practical and helpful sermon in Cornwall Methodist church, yesterday morning, basing his remarks on Acts 3:6.

ST. PETERS'S CATHEDRAL.—The Rev. Marcell Couran will deliver addresses to girls and young women daily this week, at 4 p. m. He will also preach each evening at 7.30 o'clock. Children's service daily at 5 p. m. m27 t1 fri

THE show window of Ramsay & Co's. store in the new Prowse Block, presented an unusually attractive appearance Saturday evening, for in it was displayed an exceptionally nobby line of hats and caps. The hats especially are of the newest and latest American style and are greatly in advance of former years. Mr. Ramsay has displayed unusual care in selecting as evidenced by his grand display.

THE report of the marriage of Miss Margaret Jane Corbett, South Grandville, to Mr. Peter Davison Morrison, of the same place as appeared in Saturday morning's issue, has turned out to be incorrect. The party who so boldly brought the item into this office and asked to have it inserted, will save himself trouble by confessing to the parties interested and settling with them as they may desire, otherwise the GUARDIAN will find means of exposing him and punishing him to the fullest extent of the law. THE GUARDIAN regrets deeply that such a false statement should have appeared in these columns.

THE quarterly examination of Montrose school took place on the 22nd inst. There were some 37 children present, besides the following parents and visitors:—Mrs. Jas Gillis, Mrs. J. Dennis, Mrs. John Bowness, Mrs. Chas Pridham and Messrs. Geo R. Hardy, Phil. Pridham, Atley Hockin and A. D. McDonald. The examination was principally conducted by the Rev. A. D. McDonald. In the various branches examined, including reading, spelling, arithmetic, English, history and geography, the pupils acquitted themselves most satisfactorily, evincing an interest and proficiency in their studies, which it is only fair to attribute in large measure to faithful and painstaking efforts on the part of their kind and sympathetic teacher. A very pleasing feature of the examination was the well-rendered recitation given by two of the children, Miss B. Dennis and Master Albert Dennis. At the close the usual complimentary addresses were given in which special mention was made of the healthy and hopeful tone of the school and the progress made during the term. The examiners then presented each child with a bag of confectionary, thus bringing to a close one of the best examinations ever held here.—Com.

CURRENT EVENTS

Close of Competition Near at Hand.

Important Matters for the Consideration of Those Competing for the Prizes Soon to be Awarded.

THE GUARDIAN Competition in Current Events has excited very great interest, both among the pupils and teachers of our public schools. The competition is now drawing to a close. In a few weeks the test questions will be given. As last year there will be one school prize for the first class school making the highest aggregate of marks in the first examination; one school prize for the lower class school making the highest aggregate of marks, an individual prize for the pupil of a high school making highest marks, and one individual prize for the pupil of a lower class school making highest marks.

The teachers of schools desiring to compete will intimate their intention to compete to the Editor of THE GUARDIAN not later than the 20th of April. Arrangements will be made for the conducting of the examination and questions sent out in time. The questions will be previously published as was done last year. Further intimation in reference to the examination and the date will be announced later.

QUESTIONS FOR THIS WEEK.

- I. What seaport stands next to London in its world-wide commerce?
- II. What is the name of the new President of France?
- III. What celebrated Englishman died recently in the United States?
- IV. What important announcement has the Dominion Premier made in reference to the prohibition of the liquor traffic?
- V. Who is Rudyard Kipling? What do you know about him?
- VI. Describe briefly the present condition of affairs in the Philippines.
- VII. What international exhibition will be held in 1900?
- VIII. Who is Governor of Porto Rico? Describe the attitude of the islanders towards American rule.
- IX. Has the output of gold in the Yukon been as great as was anticipated?
- X. Who has lately been appointed American Ambassador to England?

The Wall Papers Are Ready.

Each year as spring came round we've thought—"well—we can never beat this Wall Paper display anyway." Then every succeeding Spring we did beat it. This spring we've beaten our previous records so badly that they should feel small. Yes we're proud of this Wall Paper department. Bright, fresh, new Wall Papers, in charming designs—at such trifling prices. And such an enormous range we have. We venture to say—without any fear of contradiction—that not a half dozen of towns of this size—in Canada—can produce such a range as ours. Does that seem a bold claim? It's so
