NEWS OF THE HORSES FROM ALL SOURCES

BOSTON HERALD: The second matinee of the fan series of the Metropolitan Driving Club of Boston attracted a big crowd of spectators to Charles River Speedway yesterday afternoon. The racing, although it was fair, was not up to that of last week.

The fast pace was a disappointment. Louis E., who stepped a heat in 1.01¼ last week and then made the bay gelding Chief Wilkie come back in 1.02¼ in the second heat, was way off yesterday, and Mr. Furbush's speedway champion had things all his own way, winning easily. His two heats, each in 1.03, were very creditable under the conditions.

The Furbush brothers, W.J. and A.J furnished a lot of entertainment for the crowd with their pacers Phoebon W. and Gaznault. The former won, but it was a close fit and both teamsters put up good strenuous drives that greatly pleased the crowd. (This is the horse which was put up at a lottery in St. John about three years ago. The drawing never came off although hundreds of tickets were sold. Several Moncton people still hold tickets.)

ALL OF MR. LAWSON'S race horses consigned to the New York sale, except Boralma, raises the question "why is he retained?"

Boralma is not outclassed and not broken down and is only 10 years old.

Mr Lawson retains him for purely sentimental reasons. He was a race horse as game as ever looked through a bridle and brought all the racing glory to the Lawson stable it ever had. Shortly after his purchase as a 3-year-old by Mr. Lawson, in 1899, he won the great Kentucky Futurity, of $20,000 value, for 3 year old, in 2:11 1-2 close to Siliko's winning record of this year 2:11 1-4. The next year he won the Transylvania, the most fashionable classic for aged trotters, in 2.08 and is the only horse to win both a Futurity and the latter event. Moreover he did this in his 4-year old form, an age when most colts and fillies are not in physical condition to train and race.

His time in the Transylvania, 2.08, had been exceeded but once, by John Nolan the year previous in 2 07 3-4

Boralma's sire was Boreal, by Bow Bells, a son of Electioneer and the wonderful great brood mare Beautiful Bells, dam of 11 trotters in the list. The dam of Boralma was Eralma, by Earl, a son of Princeps, by Woodford Mambrino. His breeding for racing speed was in the highest lines.

AT THE DORCHESTER, Mass., Driving Club matinee at Franklin Field last week General Fiske finished 1, 1, 2 in the class L. pacing, which was unfinished because of rain and the slippery track. The times were 32, 31½, 32½. The Boston Herald says:

"The fast pace was the number which carried the most interest, as the rivalry between the friends of General Fiske, Wilkesbrino and Charlena, the three starters, is very keen. Although this event was the first on the card it was not started until late. Gen. Fiske won the first two heats in fast time, with Wilkesbrino close up. The track was very slippery when they were sent away for the third heat, Gen. Fiske wears the hopples, and as Wilkesbrino goes with little rigging, and is a good actor, he had the advantage in the heavy going and caught Gen. Fiske at the finish. Mr. Legg, the owner of Wilkesbrino, wanted to go on with the race, but the race was postponed."

A STERLING INVESTMENT.

Business Chances Which Bring 100 cents on the Dollar

In the past few years the commercial world has had practical demonstration of the good judgment of business man who buy high-class goods.

In Saskatoon recently a merchant sold his stock at 100 cents on the dollar, and the chief reason the buyers ascribed for paying the price was that the seller had the Slater Shoe Agency. A franchise for the exclusive handling of the Slater Shoe is a valuable asset. The Slater Shoe stock usually brings a premium, and would have done so in this case but for the fact that other goods of shrinkable value were in the stock. Goff Bros, exclusive agents, Charlottetown.

JUMPING WITH NERVE PAIN.

That's how you feel with neuralgia. But why lie awake at night, grumble or complain—get busy with a bottle of Nerviline. It does act like magic, seeks out the pain and destroys it. Harmless and certain, instant in effect, nothing is so popular as Nerviline for aches and pains of all kinds. Try it for lumbago, test it in rheumatism, prove it in neuralgia pleurisy or colds. You'll soon acknowledge that Polson's Nerviline beats them all. Sold everywhere in large 25c. bottles.
