

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

A motor boat is at present carrying foot passengers across the harbour to Lower Montserrat...

Dr. Bruce MacCannell, Amherst, is arriving in the city today to attend the funeral of his sister...

Mr. Ward Landry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Landry, Water Street, returned to his home on Thursday from Boston, Mass...

ARRIVE HOME—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coyle arrived in Summerside on Friday night to stay, following their honeymoon in Virginia...

Mr. and Mrs. James Morton of New York City have purchased the home formerly known as the Michael MacDonald property...

The sympathy of this community is extended to Mrs. George Fridman and family, Montrose, of their great sorrow, in the death of Mr. Fridman...

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS—Mr. and Mrs. L.R. Allen entertained a number of their friends on Thursday evening at their spacious home in Summerside...

HAS HANDS BADLY BURNED—Mr. Vincent Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurine Martin, City, had his hands badly burned Saturday afternoon...

FUNERAL AT ROLLO BAY—The funeral of the late Charlotte Murphy took place Thursday morning at 8:15 from the Frank Hanratty Funeral Home to St. Alexis Church, Rollo Bay...

FUNERAL SATURDAY—The funeral of the late Wilfred Coyle took place Saturday morning at 8:45 from his late residence, 70 Prince Street, to St. Dunstan's Basilica where Requiem High Mass was celebrated...

FUNERAL AT BRACKLEY BEACH—The funeral of the late Mrs. C. Hamilton Shaw was held from her late residence at Brackley Beach yesterday afternoon...

FUNERAL AT BRACKLEY BEACH—The funeral of the late Mrs. C. Hamilton Shaw was held from her late residence at Brackley Beach yesterday afternoon...

ON MOTOR TRIP—Dr. A.istin Delaney, Summerside, left Saturday noon by motor for a week's vacation trip to Montreal and will return by way of New York City and Boston, Mass...

FUNERAL AT TRYON—The funeral of the late Mrs. Christine Lord, wife of the late Artemas Lord, was held Sunday afternoon. A short service at the residence was followed by service at 2:30 at the Tryon United Church...

FROM INDIA—Miss Mary Holby of Kangra, India has arrived in Prince Edward Island from Saint John, N.B. where she was the special speaker at the 45th annual meetings of the Fredericton Diocesan W. A. Miss Holby is an associate of Dr. Florence Haslam of the Maple Leaf Hospital in the Kangra Mission...

45th annual meetings of the Fredericton Diocesan W. A. Miss Holby is an associate of Dr. Florence Haslam of the Maple Leaf Hospital in the Kangra Mission...

The quantity of potatoes moved by the Island Division of the Canadian National Railways since Sept. 15, last, is close to six million bushels...

B. C. TOURISTS—Mr. and Mrs. Milton Adams of Seymour Narrows, on the northern end of Vancouver Island, have been visiting in the Province for the past week...

A wedding of much interest to the residents of O'Leary and the West Prince district and in other sections of the Maritimes was solemnized Monday, April 12th when Miss Grace Ruth, only daughter of Rev. Arthur P. Baker and the late Mary (Lucas) Baker, LaHave, N.S. was united in the bonds of Holy Matrimony to Mr. William MacAulay, Baddeck, Cape Breton...

The funeral of the late Robert Gordon Campbell, who passed away at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Halifax, on April 14, was held from the MacLean Funeral Home Saturday, where service was conducted by Rev. Horace MacEwen and Rev. J.D. Davison...

The members A.P. and A.M. attended the funeral in a body, and the Masonic funeral service was conducted by Mr. Reginald Kemp. Members of the Canadian Legion also attended in a body...

The late Mr. Campbell served overseas in World War I as a Lieutenant, and since that time, has been a member of the crew of the Car Ferry at Borden. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. John G. Anderson and Mrs. John J. Roche, both of Lynn, Mass. His wife predeceased him three years ago...

Mrs. Lorne MacNeill, Cavendish, spent a pleasant weekend in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Bulman...

Rev. T. W. Goodwell is leaving this morning for Boston, Cambridge, Somerville and Lowell, Mass., Brewer, Maine...

The many friends of Miss Lottie Nicholson, Brookline, Mass., formerly of Hunter River, P. E. Island are pleased to see her a round again after her recent serious operation...

On Saturday the C. H. Llewellyn and Sons lobster smack made the trip to Souris and return, this is no doubt the first water trip of the season between these two points...

The Georgetown-Lower Montserrat ferry under command of Captain H. Larsen made her first regular crossings on Sunday, the 18th...

dent in the Neurological Hospital, Montreal, and reports received during the week end indicate that his health is greatly improved. He expects to return home shortly...

Mrs. Fred Horns, Moncton, was called home on account of the illness of her father, Mr. Albert E. Wright, Central Bedeque, who had pneumonia. Mr. Wright's many friends will be glad to learn that he is improving and all wish him a speedy recovery...

The marriage is taking place in Montreal in May of Mary Elsie and Catherine Winnifred, daughters of Mr. Victor Egan of Mt. Stewart, to Claud Raymond and Paul Joseph, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Harper of Hillsboro, N. B. Happiest good wishes are being forwarded to the popular bride-to-be from their Mt. Stewart relatives and friends...

HOME BEHEAVED—Miss Anthea MacDonald, Brookline, Mass., formerly of O'Leary, P. E. Island, has received the sad news of her sister's death in Regina, Sask. Mrs. Richard Gordon (Flora MacDonald) went out west a good many years ago and made her home there. Her husband passed away a few years ago. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones...

ADDITIONAL SCHOLARSHIPS—P. E. I. MUSICAL FESTIVAL—Harold Gaudet, Proprietor Capitol Theatre, Summerside, has awarded a scholarship for Class 35—Girl's solo, 12 years and under, "Berceuse". Another scholarship, awarded by Smallman's Limited, Summerside, is for Class 34—Girl's solo, 15 years and under, "A Child's Prayer". These scholarships are for $25.00 each...

The regular monthly meeting of the Junior Ladies Aid of the Prince Edward Island Hospital was held at the Cundall Home with Mrs. A.J. Haslam presiding. There were 32 members present. It was announced that the Cosmo Electric Incubator Bassinet, which was purchased some time ago as a gift to the Prince Edward Island Hospital, had arrived...

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Morgan which was largely attended, was held yesterday morning from her late residence, 14 Valley Street to the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Walter Mann, C.S.S.R. The pallbearers were Messrs. James J. Coyle, J. A. Griffiths, John Callaghan, Joseph J. Paquet, Allan J. MacDonald and John Feavour. Interment took place in the family plot in the Catholic Cemetery where services were conducted by Rev. Richard Baines, C.S.S.R...

Rev. J. M. Fraser and Mrs. Fraser left Alberton for their new charge in Brooklyn, N. S., shortly after Easter after giving splendid service for five years on the Alberton United Church pastoral charge. He was inducted into his new charge on Friday evening April 2nd. The Chairman of the Lunenburg-Queens Presbytery, Guy C. Dexter of Liverpool presided. The Scriptures were read by Rev. F. J. Scoates of Port Monmouth, and prayer was offered by Rev. C.H. Johnson of Bridgewater. An address to the Minister was given by Rev. F. J. Scoates and an address to the people by Rev. M. A. MacDonald of Liverpool. Rev. M. Fraser, the new Minister, pronounced the Benediction, after which there was a reception for Rev. and Mrs. Fraser in the Church Vestry...

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Younker, Darlington, were guests on Sunday of Mrs. Younker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hickox, Burlington—Bur.

Mrs. William J. Paynter returned to her home in Burlington last week after a pleasant visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Moase, New Annan—Bur.

Fire broke out early last Thursday morning at the home of Mr. Cyril Arsenault, Abram's Village. Seems the fire started in the attic and before anything could be done it was too late to save the house. However most of the furniture was saved...

The many friends of Mr. L. G. Henry, 306 Richmond Street, will be sorry to learn that he has entered the Charlottetown Hospital for an operation...

The many friends of Mrs. Duncan MacKinnon, Riverdale, are sorry to hear of her serious illness at her home, for the past four weeks, but hope to see her up and around again in the near future...

LEFT TO ATTEND FUNERAL—Mrs. J. A. MacDonald of Cardigan left yesterday morning for Jenk-

intown, Penn., to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Harry Stone, who passed away suddenly on April 19, 1948.

Mr. Waldo White, Saskatchewan arrived in Montague Saturday night, and is the guest of his father, Mr. Clarence White. He is also visiting his sister, Mrs. George Gordon who is seriously ill at her home in Montague.

ON AUTOMOBILE TRIP—Messrs. Willard Kelly, Roy Bevan and Willard MacDonald are on an automobile trip through Quebec and the Eastern United States visiting race courses at Woodstock, Richelieu and Saratoga. They are renewing many old acquaintances in the harness horse racing game.

LEAVES FOR OTTAWA—Premier J. Walter Jones will leave by plane this morning for Ottawa should flying conditions be favourable. He will represent the Province at the conference next Saturday in Ottawa of the seven provincial premiers of the Dominion and the Eastern United States with respect to the recent 21-per-cent freight increase. Neither Ontario nor Quebec will be represented at the Conference.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of the late Mrs. Leonard Vatcher of 198 Grafton St. was held yesterday afternoon from the Baptist Church. Services were conducted by the Rev. J.D. Davison, assisted by the Rev. J.T. Hobb. The pallbearers were George MacNeill, Melbourne McEachern, Warren MacDonald, Stewart MacDonald, Harold Messervy and H.B. Weeks. Interment was in the People's Cemetery.

PHALANX MEETING—The regular supper meeting of Phalanx Fraternity was held on Friday evening at the Queen Hotel with Charlie Downe presiding. Following the supper a sing-song was conducted by Fred Norton and Wendell MacLaine. Included in business items was the voting in of four new members, Grant Thompson, George Reed, Keith Henry, and Robert Watson.

Seven hundred and fifteen veterans of World War II have been established either on farms, small holdings, or as commercial fishermen. It was learned yesterday, the establishing of the men in their own business was done under the provisions of the Veterans' Land Act and the figures represent the number of men placed up to April 1st last.

The death occurred in the Charlottetown Hospital on Saturday evening of Peter Scully, of St. Andrew's, aged 80 years. Mr. Scully at one time lived at Red Bank, where the Indians at that time resided and the school was at the corner where the People's Cemetery is now located. His funeral was held at St. Andrew's Church on Tuesday morning. Services at the church and grave were conducted by his pastor, Rev. T. Campbell.

Major Alex Knox returned by plane last night from a business trip to Ottawa, Toronto and Montreal.

McGUGAN—At the Charlottetown Hospital on April 13, 1948, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur McGugan, Charlottetown, a son.

ACTING PREMIER—The Hon. A.W. Matheson, Minister of Public Health and Welfare, is acting-Premier during the absence of Premier Jones who left yesterday for Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Younker, Darlington, were guests on Sunday of Mrs. Younker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hickox, Burlington—Bur.

Mrs. William J. Paynter returned to her home in Burlington last week after a pleasant visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Moase, New Annan—Bur.

Fire broke out early last Thursday morning at the home of Mr. Cyril Arsenault, Abram's Village. Seems the fire started in the attic and before anything could be done it was too late to save the house. However most of the furniture was saved...

The many friends of Mr. L. G. Henry, 306 Richmond Street, will be sorry to learn that he has entered the Charlottetown Hospital for an operation...

The many friends of Mrs. Duncan MacKinnon, Riverdale, are sorry to hear of her serious illness at her home, for the past four weeks, but hope to see her up and around again in the near future...

LEFT TO ATTEND FUNERAL—Mrs. J. A. MacDonald of Cardigan left yesterday morning for Jenk-

llington, was conducted by Mr. William J. Proffit. The lessons were read by Mr. Layton Proffit, and Mr. Ivan Harrington delivered the sermon—Bur.

PATIENTS ENTERTAINED—On Tuesday evening the patients at the Provincial Sanatorium were entertained with songs and instrumental music, which was supplied by Herman Deveaux, Ray Thompson and Sterling Young. Sport MacDonald in his capable manner thanked them on behalf of the patients.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Steves, Turin, Creek Albert County, recently when Rev. W. Smith united in marriage Leta I. Layton of Curryville, daughter of Mrs. Maud Steves and the late Elin Steves to Herman C. MacDonald, of Belfast, P. E. Island. Mrs. C. O. Vincent, of Moncton, played the nuptial music.

The Fairmiles owned by Messrs. Grant Graham, Albert Griffin and Lorne Johnston are being prepared for the summer work. Mr. Graham expects to leave port during the next week. Although these boats will be hauling cargoes from different ports Mr. Graham will engage in scallop fishing during the season. Reports are that Newfoundland schooners will soon be arriving in port, and the summer schedule of the Surf from Sydney will begin shortly.

The death of Mrs. Angus Lamont in her 93rd year occurred at her home in Summerside on Tuesday, April 20th. The late Mrs. Lamont had been ailing for some time. At home with her were her son William and her daughter Mary. She also leaves to survive three other sons in Western Canada, and one brother, Mr. John MacLeod, Victoria Cross. Funeral service will take place from her home, and interment in the Monague community cemetery.

ISLANDER PASSES—Mrs. William Matheson, Oyster Bed Bridge, has received the sad news of the death of Neil MacNaughton at Monticello, Minnesota, U. S. A. on the 5th of April. He was formerly of Winsloe, P. E. I. Left to mourn are his widow the former Clara A. Matheson of Oyster Bed Bridge and one son Reginald of New Brighton, Minn., also three sisters, Mrs. David McInnis (Katie) Sage him out around a year ago. Mrs. Eisman (Annie) Minnesota, Mrs. Robert Kirkwood (Florence) Winnipeg.

The community of Ellerslie and vicinity was greatly shocked to learn of the sudden passing on Tuesday morning, March 9th, of Mr. Frank Brumtram Brundage at the age of 64. Although seriously ill during the fall and early winter, he apparently was well on the road to recovery, and his neighbors were looking forward to seeing him out around as usual. His unexpected death came as a severe blow to his family and friends.

Mr. Brundage was born in Caspucum, son of Bartholomew and Martha (Dumville) Brundage, and lived there the greater part of his life.

APPOINTED TO POST—The many friends of Miss Ruth E. Nicholson, fourth year graduate of Prince of Wales and now third year science student at Dalhousie University, Halifax, will be pleased to learn that she has been appointed analytical chemist by the Fisheries Board. She will do laboratory work in the Fisheries Experimental Station in Halifax. She is the youngest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Nicholson of Millford Station, N. S. Rev. and Mrs. Nicholson were former residents of P. E. I. as Mr. Nicholson was Minister of York United Church for ten years.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary E. (Patterson) Dickleson of 15 South street, Auburn, who died March 8th in her home, took place at 2:30 p.m. Thursday at Longstreet Colonial Chapel. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery, Auburn. She was born in New Brunswick, Can., daughter of the late Chambers and Martha (Proctor) Patterson. Besides her husband, Isaac H. Dickleson, she leaves four brothers, Edward of Whitinsville, George of Manchester, William of Gorton and Wesley of New Brunswick, and a sister, Mrs. Ida C. Stevens of Stevensville, Mont. She had lived in Auburn 37 years.

Following an illness of only one week at her home of Long River, Miss Eva Paynter was called to her Eternal Home on Monday, April 12th, 1948. She was born at Long River 72 years ago, and for many years had lived with her only surviving sister, Miss Rose Paynter, "Eve", as she was affectionately known by a wide circle of friends, was apparently as well as usual, and was returning to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after a visit with members of the family living on the homestead, when she became ill. Her condition rapidly became worse, and neither the best medical attention nor the tenderest nursing by her devoted sister, who was assisted by their niece, Mrs. Elmer Parsons and other friends and relatives, could restore her health. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian Church and was strongly sustained in the "faith and was returned to her home after