Cardigan Head And Vicinity

Mr. Neil Nicholson, Cardigan Head, made a business trip to Mt. Stewart, on Thursday.

Many sportsmen spent the holiday at Beatons Dam enjoying the popular sport of the day, fishing, while many others visited the new hatchery and added attraction to this part of the Island.

Mr. Gordon Scrimgeour, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce staff, Montague, spent the holiday at his home in Cardigan.

Many of the young people of this vicinity attended the dance in Cardigan Head on Tuesday night, an excellent time was enjoyed by all, music furnished by Webster's Orchestra.

Mr. Bernard McQuaid, 48 Road, was a visitor to Cardigan on Thursday.

Mr. Neil Nicholson, Cardigan Head, met with the serious loss on Wednesday of a very fine horse.

A most enjoyable dance was held in Lorne Valley Hall Wednesday night under the auspices of the Women's Institute. There was a large crowd in attendance and a good time enjoyed by all.

Reverend Owen Hughes, Montague, was a visitor to Lorne Valley on Thursday evening.

Mr. Joseph McAulay (Jr.) P. E. I. Telephone employee, Charlottetown, is spending a few days at his home in Cardigan Head.

Mrs. Earl McDonald, Miss Anna McCannell and Miss Isabelle McLeod, Lorne Valley, were visitors to Montague, during the past week.

Mrs. Philip McInnis, returned to her home in Lorne Valley, having spent the past two weeks visiting in Charlottetown. —C.

MR. JUSTICE KRUSCHEN IN THE HYGIENE COURT OF JUSTICE

Rheumatic Pains Gone
Welcome Reformation
JUDGE CONGRATULATES EX-PRISONER

"I remember your case very distinctly and I congratulate you on your recovery. I hope you now realize how serious your crime—rheumatic pains—was and how easily it can be avoided."

The judge then added that if the few remaining foolish people would only realize that a little daily dose of Kruschen Salts is as necessary to cleanliness as soap and water there would be fewer aches and ailments. There would be less suffering from the pains of rheumatism, neuritis, gout, sciatica or lumbago. Constipation would be on the wane and there would be fewer cases of getting run-down, and far less likelihood of catching colds.

KRUSCHEN SALTS
relieve constipation and rheumatism

Kruschen is a combination of several mineral salts which your body must get, in some way, to keep the blood pure, the inside clean, and the system generally toned up, but which you can't get in Nature's own way without abundant exercise and fresh air. You should have those salts every day; hence the importance of the "little-daily dose". Every drug counter sells Kruschen in 25c, 45c and 75c bottles. It's the little daily dose that does it.

SPENDS WEEK-END HERE—Mrs. R. J. Bradley, of Edmonton, Alta., and Mrs. A. L. MacFadden, left to spend the week-end in Charlottetown, P. E. I. Mrs. Bradley is spending some time visiting the scenes of her childhood in Mergomish and New Glasgow and renewing friendships.—New Glasgow Chronicle.

VISITING IN FREDERICTON — Mrs. D. M. Sinclair of Prince Edward Island, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. H. Daughney and Mr. Daughney, in Newcastle for a few days, is in Fredericton the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, the University. She will join Rev. Mr. Sinclair in Sackville, where he has been attending the Maritime Conference of the United Church of Canada.—Fredericton Gleaner.

ENJOYED MARITIMES — "The natural beauty of the Maritimes is very impressive," Sir Francis Floud, retiring British high commissioner to Canada, said when he and Lady Floud arrived on their first visit to Saint John. "We have visited Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and now New Brunswick, as well as Newfoundland, and the Maritimes appear to be one of the loveliest places in the entire Dominion," he said. Sir Francis was tendered a luncheon by the Common Council and Board of Trade. He and Lady Floud were guests of Lieutenant-Governor Murray MacLaren Friday evening and on Monday the high commissioner addressed the Service Club members.

One brother Malcolm, who owns the King George Hotel in Cape Town, South Africa and has been absent for thirty years, is also going to join them. Mrs. Harding who has resided in the United States for thirty-one years, has only visited her old home once. She received the very sad news about six weeks ago of the sudden death of her nephew Harry, who owned the Grand Hotel in Elgin, Inverness Shire Scotland, after two days illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Hardy intends to return in the fall.

Mr. Percy Barlow has as his guest Mrs. Barlow's mother, Mrs. Whidden and her sister, Mrs. Smith of Milford, N.S.

Crop Conditions

WINNIPEG, June 13. — Cool, windy weather over Manitoba and Saskatchewan and warm, windy weather in Alberta characterized Western Crop conditions for the past week. Scattered showers, mostly of little significance occurred at a number of points in the three prairie provinces. With all seeding completed except for odd fields of green feed or sloughs and wet spots previously inaccessible crop news now centres on possibility of damage from any source or progress made through absence of these factors according to the weekly crop report of the Department of Agriculture, Canadian National Railways.

Judith Brought Ancient Thrill In Sword Clash

(By Gladys M. Arnold)
(Canadian Press Correspondent)

PARIS, June 13—With the French the affaire d'honneur is traditional and the sword fight between Henry Bernstein, the author, and Edouard Bourdet, playwright-administrator of the Comedie Francaise has given them heaps to talk about.

Nothing else has had a conversational chance since the "theatre battle" pushed the Pyrenees frontier, the Czechoslovakia Sudetes, the Chinese Wall and even the instability of the "franc" off the front pages.

Every headline read like a bulletin from the War Office. "Situation tense" — "conflict aggravated" — "taken to court" — "reconciliation impossible" — "resort to arms" — "victory for Bernstein" — and all for the sake of "Judith" who isn't even a flesh and blood heroine.

It happened Bernstein arranged for the production of his play "Judith" at the Comedie Francaise before Bourdet was appointed administrator. The author inquired of the administrator when the play would go on and got the impression Bourdet was not much interested.

Bernstein went into reflection, leaving unanswered the letters announcing the beginning of rehearsals. Whether he decided M. Bourdet was too slow, or not enthusiastic enough, it is known that he wrote: "I've decided to take 'Judith' back. It shall not appear in the Comedie Francaise as long as you remain the director....And send back my other plays too, 'The Secret' and 'La Rafale' (The Squall) also. Though they have been part of the repertoire for years. But it isn't the first time I've withdrawn a play."

"As you like, but you pay for the stage settings already ordered for 'Judith,'" replied Bourdet. "And as for your personal reflections—I do not recognize in you qualities which justify your right to set yourself as a judge of my conduct or anybody else's."

One retort led to another and Bourdet said finally in a postscript: "In case you wish to communicate with me by any other medium than the press columns I will be back in Paris Wednesday."

"I never miss a challenge of that sort," Bernstein told reporters as he sparred and practised on the roof in full view of the neighbors. "It will be swords." So the duel went on and when Bourdet was wounded Bernstein was declared victor.

But that's not all—it is said they are not in the least reconciled.

Bernstein is 62 years old, but with his he-man navy blue shirt-hairout and agility, he is undoubtedly reassured of his youth and prowess. Canadians know many of his plays which have been translated into English and played on stage and screen. Among them are "Felix," "Melo," "Day," "The Voyage," and one of the most recent to be filmed, "Le Bonheur."
