MORNING MARKET LETTER

New York July 31—The market opened lower Friday and continued to sag quietly for the balance of the session. The strength in the dollar and general weakness in commodities seemed to be the most important developments during the day. In view of this decline in stocks was moderate and the lack of volume encouraging. The expectation of a secondary reaction is quite general and there no doubt has been some selling in anticipation of it. Covering from apparently premature selling seemed to be responsible for the late rally Thursday. Secondary reactions are sufficiently consistent to justify the expectation of one in this instance, but when one will appear cannot be determined.

Developments in the exchange and commodity markets today should again be important factors.—Laidlaw and Company.

FORECAST

Reactionary tendencies are expected to predominate in today's sessions.

New York July 31—Wall Street Mirror. More irregularity will be seen this week with most stocks showing a tendency to seek slightly lower levels. As measured by the Dow Jones averages the industrials could very easily fall back to around the 90-91 level where they would be an excellent purchase.

The stock market has all the appearance of one in which accumulation is once again taking place. In this connection, it is well to look upon it as one in which purchases should be made only on weak spots for the time being. Of course there is always the possibility that some startling piece of news from Washington is likely to change the entire situation, but until such a development occurs keep a trading position.

One of the factors present at this time which has not been in evidence in previous years, is that the normal midsummer reactions is but faintly discernable. Business according to Dun and Bradstreet shows a uniform lack of evidence of any reversal of trend which has been progressively upward for nearly four months.

In the Steel Industry the outlook for the third quarter is viewed as good, prices are being stabilized, and adoption of the Steel Industry code would bring about better quotations and eliminate many of the sharp practices which have prevailed.

Remington Rand has joined the list of companies which is now operating in the black. The company began to operate on the right side of the ledger in June for the first time since December 1930, when the market turns up again Remington Rand will move along with it.

Resumption of the payment of dividends by Great Western Sugar is expected not later than October. Gossip from the floor of the Stock Exchange on Friday was that Baldwin is ready to move.—Mirror.

Wheat Prices Fall Maximum Amounts

CHICAGO, July 31—(A.P.)—For the third successive day, grain prices today fell the maximum amounts permitted under new regulations of the leading American exchanges, three to five cents.

Liquidating sales were strongly in evidence, and despite numerous rallies proved persistent enough to dominate over all other factors. During much of the day, business was virtually at a standstill, with brokers holding quantities of selling orders that could not be executed.

August monthly unofficial domestic crop summaries to be issued tomorrow were expected to show the smallest aggregate yield of wheat and oats since 1893.

Wheat closed almost lifeless, 4 7/8 cents under Saturday's finish, corn 4 cents down, oats 3 cents off, and provisions at 12 to 50 cents decline.

MODERATOR HERE — Rev. Dr. George E. Ross, moderator of presbytery of Ottawa, arrived in the city yesterday morning by motor car, accompanied by Mrs. Ross. They will remain a week in Charlottetown and next Sunday Dr. Ross will preach in Zion Presbyterian Church, of which he was formerly a pastor. Last year he represented the Presbyterian Church in Canada at the general assemblies of the Presbyterian Churches in the British Isles and a number of interesting articles from his pen appeared in the Montreal press.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH — Exchanging for the morning service with Rev. A. K. Herman, the Rev. C. N. Brown was the preacher in the Baptist Church. He delivered an interesting and thoughtful sermon on "Jesus, my prophet, priest and king. Mrs. F. M. Nash sang very expressively "Just for today." The Rev. A. K. Herman was the speaker at the evening service, which was broadcast by station CHCK. Miss Verna Rodd sang very sweetly, "Nearer My God to Thee."

INCREASED INFLUX OF TOURISTS—During the last week in July there was an increased influx of tourists into the Province, and prospects for August are bright. It has been noted this year that there is an increased number of visitors from Ontario and Quebec, and fewer from United States as compared with last year. Many of the visiting tourists have arrived on the passenger steamers which have called in this port frequently during the last two months. Many of the summer hotels at the tourist resorts are well filled.

RECEIVED INJURIES—While on his way to the fishing grounds near Savage Harbour yesterday, Mr. James J. MacIntyre, Mount Stewart, received severe injuries. Mr. MacIntyre, who fishes alone, left shore early yesterday morning for the codfish grounds. It was very rough on the bar and as he was standing up looking for the outside buoy he was thrown against the engine and rendered unconscious. Mr. Louis Pigott and his brother-in-law from New York, who were going out fishing, noticed that something was apparently wrong with the boat as it was drifting about in the breakers and drew alongside. They found Mr. MacIntyre lying unconscious. They at once took him ashore and rushed him in their automobile to Mt. Stewart where he received medical treatment. It was found that his face was badly cut, requiring several stitches, also that his breast and other parts of his body were bruised. He recovered consciousness a short time after receiving treatment and he was able to tell what happened. The engine was found to be stopped when Mr. Pigott came alongside, and it is thought that Mr. MacIntyre in falling had shut off the switch. The injured man is now at his home in Mt. Stewart. It is expected that he may be able to be around in a few days.

CALEDONIAN CLUB MEETING—At a meeting of the Caledonia Club last evening, a most satisfactory report of the annual Scottish Gathering was presented. Clansman F. A. A. Mutch presided. Secretary, Clansman L. M. MacMillan for the Games Committee read the report. In it reference was made to the picturesque surroundings in which the gathering was held, and to the fact that the ancestors of the sturdy people settled at Churchill one hundred years ago. Details of the Gathering were then given, and a surplus reported. The Games Committee was composed of Clansmen J. G. MacFadyen, A. B. Brown, F. A. A. Mutch, John Anderson and L. M. MacMillan. Many favorable comments were made on the manner in which the people of Churchill carried out their part of the programme. A resolution was passed amending the by-laws, to provide for holding of quarterly meetings rather than monthly meetings which have been held heretofore.
