

SOME COMMON SENSE ABOUT

flu

Flu, colds, and pneumonia are again on the spread. And health authorities everywhere are urging all precautions.

Just what causes flu is not yet scientifically known. But a weakened, run-down condition may lessen our chances of escaping flu—just as it lessens our chances of escaping other winter ailments. So it's wise to keep our resistance high. Avoid worry and exposure. Eat wholesome food. Get plenty of rest, fresh air and exercise. And start at once to take a good, fortifying tonic.

Doctors advise Scott's Emulsion. Scott's Emulsion is recommended by doctors because it brings the remarkable health-building and disease-resisting vitamins of cod-liver oil—in the pleasantest way. Scott's Emulsion is emulsified. So it's free from that strong "fishy" taste. Easier to take. Easier to digest. And more quickly absorbed into the blood stream.

As a result, Scott's Emulsion benefits you almost immediately. It promptly strengthens and revitalizes weakened systems. It improves your weight and appetite. It increases your resistance against pesky colds and other winter diseases.

Wonderful for children! Try Scott's Emulsion for pale, thin children, too. Made of purest, tested Norwegian cod liver oil. Scott's Emulsion is rich in vitamin A, the growth-promoting vitamin that helps guard against disease. It is rich in vitamin D, the sunshine vitamin that prevents rickets. It also contains vital mineral elements that aid in forming sound bones and teeth.

A shower was extended Mrs. Earl Wells at her home by the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church. Mrs. Wells was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts presented by her friends.

Miss Antoinette Proffitt, who lost the sum of $77 when a gust of wind blew it from her hand, had the fortune to recover her loss. This was probably due to the fact that the bills were large.

The Alberton Bridge Club entertained at the home of Mrs. Phillips on Tuesday evening. A pleasant time was had by all and great credit was given the hostess for making it so. Four tables were employed at bridge, after which a lunch was served.

History of the Presbyterian Church

(By Rev. F. Watson Currie)
1891-1894.

Rev. L. J. King supply and pastor.

On Sept. 6th, 1891, the congregations of Murray Harbor North & Peters Road formally became a separate charge with Rev. W. H. Spencer of Georgetown as Interim Moderator of Session. A long period of vacancy followed, as the congregation was not numerically nor financially strong and men were not easily secured. On the 27th of December 1892 a call was given to the Rev. Andrew Gray but before it reached him he had accepted and become settled in another place. The stipend promised in this call was $650.00 and it was expected that the Augmentation Fund would give a grant of $150 making a total of $800. Failing in this call a request was then made to Presbytery in June 1893 that Rev. L. J. King be continued as probation until matters are arranged so that he could be inducted as the Pastor he being the unanimous choice of the people. This was granted. His induction took place November 14th, 1893. But this pastorate was brief and after lasting only a year Mr. King resigned from the charge and was released from it by Presbytery on December 30th, 1894. We know no more than that he served for a time on the mainland.

JOHN G. CAMERON 1895-97
The Rev. Ewen Gillis acted as Interim Moderator during the vacancy and on July 3th, 1895 a cordial and unanimous call was extended to the Rev. John G. Cameron then settled at Bay Fortune and Souris P. E. I. Mr. Cameron accepted the call and was duly inducted to the pastorate in the month of August the same year. The settlement seems to have been a very happy one and Mr. Cameron threw himself heartily into the duties of his sacred office with an ardor too great for his strength. The membership increased, and the future seemed full of sunshine. A lover of good driving horses Mr. Cameron was on the road a great portion of his time visiting the people in their homes as every good pastor does, because many people are careless of Church relationship and ordinances and the field generally was in a run-down condition for some years. Mr. Cameron seems to have been a native of the Island and a man of long experience in previous charges. He was a most earnest and faithful laborer, a good sound practical preacher, a man of superior administrative ability, a kind and sympathetic pastor and greatly beloved by both old and young in his congregation. In his previous pastorate he had labored from 1873 till 1895 and brought to this charge the experience of successful labor. With the improved condition of this field many needed reforms were made. The Session was enlarged by the addition of several elders and a communion season never came that did not record many professions of faith by the people. But in the midst of this sunshine a cloud appeared and the faithful pastor was stricken down with what proved a fatal illness. It proved to be brief and on April 28th, 1897 the faithful pastor entered the rest that remaineth for the people of God. A brass tablet in the Murray Harbor North church, a brief resolution in the minutes of Session and Presbytery and the Christian names of several of the young men he had baptized are left to record the passing of this faithful minister of God.

REV. JOHN GILLIS 1897-1901
A brief vacancy followed in which Rev. Ewen Gillis of Murray Harbor South acted as Interim Moderator, when a call was given to Rev. John Gillis and accepted by him. The service of induction took place in the Murray Harbor North Church on August 17th, 1897. It would seem that the settlement was a happy one, and now we hear of the Session asserting their right in appointing all the Teachers and Officers of their Sabbath Schools, in obtaining a supply of tokens for communicants and appointing representative elders by vote according to age. Also, that the session use their influence to get the members of the congregation to vote for the Plebiscite. Also, that the Christian Endeavor Society hold meeting on Tuesday evenings instead of on Sabbath evenings. Also a committee was appointed to look after unruly boys and young men on meeting nights and bring them to justice in both sections of the congregation (names withheld). We also see that Session minutes are attested by Presbytery for the first time in accordance with instructions received from the General assembly that year. The sum of Five Dollars is ordered to be paid Rev. Wm. McLeod for service at the Communion Season. The Superintendent of the Sabbath School is given liberty to hold a social for the benefit of the Sabbath school.

On June 30th, 1900, James Dalzell is appointed superintendent and Mr. Cartney D. McClure Secretary and Treasurer of the same. We shall hear more of these men later. On October 25th, 1900, the Session unanimously granted Rev. Mr. Gillis three months leave of absence, he to provide supply and Rev. Wm. McLeod acted as such. It would seem from all the records that the pastorate ended early in the year 1901 being the longest for some time and in a time of stress and strain that taxed many of our congregation to the utmost especially in view of the Century Fund and other Claims that were made. In the experience of the writer there was a difficult situation all over Canada and especially in the Maritimes which was severe. But we read of collectors having been appointed in these congregations and figures show in the liberality of the people that there was a hearty response. It would appear the Rev. William McLeod was an energetic supply and here we find the mention of the Presbyterian Record being in circulation in the congregation and Rev. Wm. McLeod to act as agent.

OBJECT TO LIMITED WORKING DAY
(Canadian Press)

CALGARY, Alta., March 4.—Independent oil operators of Turner Valley, Alberta's promising oil fields, are opposed to the eight hour day and are urging elimination of the Factories Act, which limits the working time. Representatives of the operators intend interviewing the Alberta government, seeking abolishment of the act. They also wish the five per cent government tax on oil production adjusted.

Opposition to the limiting of working hours is on the grounds that the work is of such seasonal nature as to preclude fixed labor schedules. Adjustment of the government royalty is asked, because the operators declare the five percent rate is burdensome on young companies and should not be applied until they have at least reached the dividend paying stage.

If cancellation of the five percent rate cannot be effected the operators ask that it be lowered to two per cent.

TO REPRESENT CANADA AT LABOR CONFERENCE
(Canadian Press)

CALGARY, Alta., March 4.—Robert Livett, president of District 18 of the United Mine Workers of America, and a vice president of Alberta Federation of Labor, has been chosen by the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress as the Canadian delegate to the next British Trades Congress in Bristol, England, late this year.

Announcement of Mr. Livett's appointment was made at the annual convention of the Alberta Labor Federation, held here recently.

During the convention to Federation members favored a summer conference of the Dominion and provincial governments to form a program of winter employment to extend over several years. The report of the president, Fred J. White suggested that some form of unemployment insurance be enacted.

HOLIDAY CAME FOR BRITISH NUDISTS

PARIS, March 4.—British nudists and devotees of the Nudist cult will, next summer, be able to enjoy the amenities of the Sparta Club. The Sparta Club, home of the nudist cult, advertises its premises as a "health country club" and is prepared to issue "adhesion bulletins" for British members with a fee of 500 francs (about $20) for married couples and 300 francs for single persons. A passport is sufficient for identification but candidates have to submit to medical examination for soundness in bodily and mental health.

The diet at this country club is vegetarian and a high hedge surrounds the place in order to balk the ribal sensation-seekers and to keep away boisterous winds.

Guards parade the grounds and members are required, if desired, to produce a card which sets forth mean of identification as well as a photograph so that it is certain that only those accepted as members have gained admittance.

Six months ago a valued black fox Tutley farm at Hitchcock and when escaped from its pen on the Nick Harry and Ernie copied a dark animal prowling about the fields adjoining their house immediately they had visions of reaping a rich reward for the return of the missing fortune.

Leaping to their horses the boys gave chase. Twenty miles over the bald reaches of the prairie their quarry led them, dodging and circling until their weary mounts gave signs of playing out. Finally, however, the "fox" ran for cover through the open door of the section house at Lampman.

No chances were taken that the "fox" would duplicate his escape of last August. He was anchored with a heavy logging chain and the door of the building securely fastened with a heavy padlock. This done, Tatley was notified that his prized possession had been found.

Next morning Tatley's delight and the jubilation of the young "fox" hunters did a quick fadeout when Tatley exclaimed: "That's no fox, that's a mongrel pup."

MERRILL, Wis., Mar. 4.—Wisconsin fur farms are the world's greatest source of silver fox pelts. Local residents have been told by George Banzhaf, Manistique, Mich., fur farmer. A Hamburg, Wis., contributed 11,000 of the 27,000 pelts sold in the New York market during January, Banzhaf said. Since the 1920 "boom," when $810 was the record price for a single pelt, prices have averaged about $150.
