...LABOR SAVING DEVICE.— Mr.
P. J. Solomon the enterprising merchant of Georgetown has recently purchased a new "Adding Machine" which will doubtless greatly facilitate his work, especially in the making up of his accounts. Mr. Solomon thinks that any labour and time-saving device is a good investment and is ever ready to add modern improvements to his fast increasing business and he promises to be the leading merchant of this vicinity in a very few years. Needless to say we all wish Mr. Solomon every success in whatever worthy line of work he may undertake.—G.

HALIFAX WOMEN DO WONDERFUL WORK

Imagine, if you can, an organization that has handled the reception of such a party as 600 women and children or 180 babies under the age of twelve months, asking, like Oliver Twist, for more, and you have an idea of the attitude of Halifax women's organizations at the present time.

The above number, 180 infants in arms, arrived on the Megantic last trip. On another occasion the total number of women and children arriving was 1,000. Yet the workers state that they would be glad to welcome more at the port.

Since the first boatload of soldiers dependents arrived, Halifax has achieved wonders. 100 voluntary workers, representing all branches of women's organizations, hold themselves in readiness to assist at the port any hour of the day or night.

Reception rooms for the mothers and children are splendidly adapted with good light and heat. There is a large nursery containing 20 beds, a rest room for the mothers with cosy chairs and couches, and a tea-room adjoining, where light refreshments are served at a very small cost. For instance two sandwiches and tea or coffee, can be obtained for ten cents, or refreshments are free for those who are short of money. Milk is distributed free of charge to the children and babies.

One of the best patronized departments is the babies washroom. This is stocked with all kinds of necessities for the little ones.

Frequently the rooms are kept open all night to accommodate travellers of small means who have to wait over, and on these occasions some entertainment, either in the form of a concert of pleasant social evening, is given. In this respect the Y. M.
C. A. have given splendid co-operation.

Special attention is given to the needs of the sick people. They are taken to the hospital, visited frequently and the military authorities have loaned an ambulance for such cases.

One little mother, who anticipated a new arrival, landed with two children. She was put into a hospital and local organizations cared for the children until the mother was fit to travel again. It was six weeks before the little party were re-united. In the meantime all had been cared for voluntarily by the organizations at this port. At the end of the time the mother of the bonny new-born babe and her other children were put safely on the train and in the care of other workers departed for their new home.

The National Red Cross Society has a trained nurse at this port to give advice and assistance, and her work has been particularly valuable in the case of young mothers travelling with infants.

Immigration and Railway officials have all contributed their share to make the work and reception and entraining pleasant and smooth.

The kindly, sympathetic women, who meet their stranger sisters from overseas, look after their baggage, help them through customs, see that the little parties get sufficient rest, post and write letters, exchange mouney, and in every possible way, even to providing warmer clothing for the children, help the new-comers feel that they have come to a land of friends.

Nor does the good work cease when the parties leave the port. They are escorted to the train by the same willing helpers and placed in charge of trained nurses, who travel with them.

One such train, a few weeks since,

RECEPTION AND PRESENTATION.

On the evening of February 28th, a large number of the citizens of Hartsville and the surrounding districts assembled at the Public Hall, Hartsville to do honor to several returned heroes and also to show the fathers and mothers of two of the heroes who had made the supreme sacrifice that they had not forgotten them and their great loss.

Mr. Dan McDonald occupied the chair. The soldiers' lads viz: Hugh Lamont, J. D. McDonald and Arthur McLeod in whose honor the reception was given were then invited to take a seat upon the platform. On their coming to the front the audience gave three hearty cheers and "a tiger."

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Buchanan and Mr. Roderick McLeod and also a number returned men were invited to a place on the platform.

The following programme was then well carried out:—Opening Chorus, "Home Again," Choir; Remarks by Chairman, Dan M. McDonald; Reading, Miss Annie McLeod, encore; Solo, Rev. R. H. Stavart, encore; Reading, Lieut. D. T. McDonald, encore; Chorus, Long, Long ago, Choir; Reading, Bruce McKenzie, encore; Reading, Miss Florrie McLean; Address, Rev.
R. H. Stavart. The young men were then presented with an address and a signet ring each. The address was read by Rev. R. H. Stavart, and the ring to Hugh Lamont, was presented by Miss Penzie Craswell, the ring to J. D. McDonald, was presented by Miss Mabel McKenzie; and the one to Arthur McLeod, was presented by Miss Marion McDonald. Mr. Stavart then addressed Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Buchanan and Mr. Roderick McLeod both of whom had lost a son at the front, and spoke to them very feelingly about their great loss and congratulated them on the honor of having given their sons for so great a cause.

Mr. Dan McDonald then presented Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan with a signet ring in memory of their son Alexander, and Mr. John Alex. McKenzie presented Roderick McLeod with a ring in memory of his son Oswald J.
Mr. Roderick McLeod in behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan and of himself in a few words thanked the people for their great kindness to them.

Short addresses were then given by Mr. Alex. McDonald, John Alex. Mc-Kenzie, John E. McLeod and Malcolm Gillis and Daniel Lamont gave two Gaelic solos and a reading. The ladies then treated all present to a dainty lunch. The rest of the evening was spent in playing games. After having bunched the three guests of honor Rev. R. H. Stavart, Lieut. D.
A. McDonald and several others of the returned men the gathering was closed with the National Anthem.

GENERAL ALLENBURY IN PARIS
PARIS, March 20.—General E. H.
H. Allenbury, commander of the British forces in Palestine, arrived here today from Egypt to advise the Supreme Council on Near Eastern questions.

carried 400 women and children in ten cars. The entire party was in charge of a medical officer and a trained nurse. The first day away a number of the children developed colds and minor ailments and the doctor established a clinic in the smoking room of one car, where the patients came in daily for dressings and medicine. Those who were too sick to walk to the little clinic were attended to by the nurse in their beds.

The women who are the objects of so much care and forethought are not slow to express their gratitude and appreciation.

The old saying that "first impressions are everything" is being worked to death in Halifax for the women of that city are evidently determined that no impression but the best and kindest shall be carried away by the parties whose initial entry into Canada will probably colour their whole aspect of life in this country for future days.

NAVY NICKNAMES.
Curious nicknames are applied to vessels of the British navy. The Ariadne is known as the "Hairy Angle" or "Hazy Agony," the Narcissus as the "Nasty Sister," the Cressy as the "Greaser," the Inconstant as the "Ink-stand," the Iphigenia as the "Silly Jane," the Lucifer as the "Match Box," the Hecate as the "He Cat," or "The Tom," and the Neptune as the "Jew's Harp." In the American navy similar nicknames have been used to some extent. The Sassacus was known as the "Sassy Cuss," the Miantonomoh as "My Aunt Don't Know You," the Wissahickon as the "Widow Higgins," the Winnebago or perhaps the Wyallusing as "We Know She Goes Slow."
