INSTITUTES FINANCE DENTAL CLINICS.—Three very successful dental clinics have been held recently at Bloomfield Corner, McNeill's Mills and Eglington which were sponsored and partly financed by the Women's Institutes of these districts. Forty-two children, twelve years of age and under, received treatment by Dr. Keefe, Dr. Purdy and Dr. A. H. Smallwood who conducted the clinics. The scheme for the rural dental clinics was outlined by the Canadian Dental Hygiene Council and is one followed by health organizations across the Dominion. Under the scheme the sponsoring group pays two thirds of the cost and the health department bears the remaining expense. Seventeen clinics of this type have been conducted in the province during the past eighteen months, in which the dental defects of 203 children have

In Memoriam

MRS. FRANCIS R. MONAGHAN

The great test of heroism is constant fidelity to the little things of life. Judged by this standard, the late Mrs. Francis R. Monaghan showed all the marks of a true heroine. She was of that noble race of women, whose high ideals helped to make the parish of Kelly's Cross what it was a generation ago. Unassuming in manner, timid even, she scarcely ever busied herself with the outside world. Her life ran its uneventful course quiet and peaceful with, however, the necessary element of suffering which is the portion of every true follower of Christ. She had learned the lesson of the Cross and she knew full well that the only way to heaven is that which passes by Calvary.

The late Mrs. Monaghan, who was born in Kelly's Cross 79 years ago, was the daughter of Francis McAvin, one of the pioneers of St. Joseph's parish, who came to this province from Ireland over a century ago. These Irish immigrants laid the foundation of the faith and kept untarnished the tradition handed down to them by their forefathers in the old country. Her funeral took place on the 5th instant from her late residence to St. Joseph's Church where requiem mass was celebrated by the pastor, Father McCabe who attended her in her last illness. Seated in the sanctuary were Rev. Dr. Curran, a former pastor, Rev. F. McQuaid, Rev. Dr. Gavan Monaghan and Rev. Ray McKenzie of St. Dunstan's University. Rev. Dr. Smith, Kinkora, Rev. Earl Dalton, Rev. Wilfred Keefe and Rev. J. Alfred Monaghan, S. J. Rev. Dr. Bernard Gillis assisted the choir. Left to mourn the loss of a loving mother are Phillip, Joseph and Emmet of Kelly's Cross, Aderina, who tenderly nursed her mother during her six months' illness, Sister Faustina of the city hospital staff, Mrs. John Doyle, Hope River, Mrs. A. Murray, Kinkora, Mrs. Bennet Traimor and Lucy, Kelly's Cross. The pall bearers were Joseph, Kelly, Joseph McAvin, Fred, Matt, Frank McAvin, Wilfred Kelly and Linus Monaghan. May her soul rest in peace.

ST. CATHERINE'S W. I.

McEachern Ave. 11th roll call to be answered by a Question Box. After a delicious lunch meeting closed by singing God Save the King.
