"Now how about you and me lighting a little tiny fire in OUR waiting room"

Joining thousands of other Canadians who are contributing to the Canadian Appeal for Children, His Excellency the Governor-General, is pictured here making his donation of one day's pay. His Excellency made his contribution in a brief ceremony at Rideau Hall. The cheque was received by C. E. Pickering, national campaign chairman, while Donald A. Baptist, chairman of the eastern Ontario committee of the Appeal looks on. The Canadian Appeal for Children seeks to collect $10 million to assist 400 million children in Europe and Asia whose lives have been blighted by war. The fund will be used to purchase food, clothing, medical and educational supplies for these children.

Dr. Frankisek Nemeš, Czech minister to Canada, announced on Wednesday that he had resigned his post and will remain in Canada as a private citizen. He said practically all his staff also has resigned and will remain in Canada. He made this decision known to the government of the Czechoslovak Republic in Ottawa. In addition to himself, would stay in Ottawa in private life, he added. The U. S. Czech envoy, Jursi Slavik, also resigned his post in protest over the Communist coup in his homeland, Washington announced.
