...The death of Miss Catherine McDonald, Lot 40, took place Wednesday. The deceased took ill of pneumonia about a week ago and proved fatal for one of her aged, 75 years. She was a cousin of Hon Lauchlin McDonald, East Point. The funeral takes place this morning at 8 o'clock to St. Andrew's Cemetery.

...Word has been received of an accident in the Tiro General Mine, Charcas, Mexico, in which Frank S. Robertson, son of the late Peter Robertson, formerly of New Perth, P. E. I., and nephew of Senator Robertson, Montague, lost his life. Mr. Robertson, who was about 40 years of age, held the position of Superintendent of the mine, and was inspecting the telephone lines 80 feet down the shaft in an open cage when one of the Peon's or Mexican natives lost control of a car on one of the levels, letting it go over the edge of the shaft. It crashed down on top of the cage, knocking Mr. Robertson out. He fell to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of 300 feet. Mr. Robertson was a brother of Mrs. W. E. Poole, Edmonton; Mrs. (Dr.) Meares, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Miss Nellie, Kansas City, Mo.; Edgard of Texas; Ernest, Central, Mexico; and Fred of Brudenell, P. E. I.

...A Fortune Bay correspondent writes:—Wm. Dingwell, the contractor, is pushing the erection of the new school-house along rapidly when weather conditions permit. Large quantities of herring are being caught in Fortune Bay. Johnson Bros. are discharging a load of coal at Johnson's Wharf and will then load produce for the Cape Breton market. The Cape Breton schooner, L. C. Garstin, took a cargo of produce from Fortune Wharf, loaded by Milton R. Dingwell. The "Beatrice," Capt. McCarthy, is now loading potatoes at Fortune Wharf for Glouce Bay, C. B. Capt. Haffin has his two schooners engaged carrying hay from Fortune to Souris. The large crop of hay grown at the "Point" will keep these vessels busy for some time. William Burke arrived home last week to spend the winter with his parents, Daniel and Mrs. Burke. Mrs. C. H. Dingwell, Charlottetown, spent a week in Fortune, the guest of Mrs. H. A. Dingwell. Messrs. Chas. Dingwell, Reginald Dingwell and Vernon McKie left this week for Boston. Geo. P. and Mrs. Clapp have returned from Charlottetown, having accompanied Mr. Clapp's father as far as the city. This was Mr. Clapp, sr.'s first visit to the Island and he was favorably impressed with the country.

...Do you enjoy that cold? If you do not we suggest a box of Gibson's Laxative Cold Cure (25c). It starts everything working and you feel well before you realize it. Contains no quinine but does the work. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside. 11-3431.

"You can wear wool underwear this fall and winter if you have never been able to wear it before. We had to get it made for ourselves to get just what we wanted, and now we have it for you. Try us for a suit. Ask to see 88 and 22. Paton's 11-4dtf.

...Mrs D. McKay has returned to her home in Montague after a trip to Boston.—L. L.

...Joseph A. Kennedy of the Government Dredge Prince Edward, was in Montague on Monday.—L. L.

...Mrs. D. W. Morrissey, of Georgetown has returned home after a four months' trip to the Pacific Coast. She spent most of the time at Stewart, B. C., with her husband, and also visited Prince Rupert, Skegway, Seattle, Vancouver, and other places in the west. At Prince Rupert she met a number of Georgetown people including Mrs. Joseph R. MacDonald and members of her family. She also renewed acquaintance of Island friends on other parts of the coast and had a most enjoyable trip. She reports great activity in railroad construction and building operations generally at Prince Rupert, Stewart, and other points.

...A correspondent from Gaspeaux writes:—The farmers of this section have about completed their fall work. Quite a number of vessels are loading produce at Gaspeaux wharf at the present time. Donald R. Steele, and family have recently moved into their new residence which adds quite an appearance to the vicinity. Sidney Nelson, Montague, paid Gaspeaux a flying visit recently. Mrs. B. Johnstone has disposed of part of her valuable farm to Archie C. McLeod of Alliston. Mr. McLeod has always been considered a good farmer and has many close friends in Gaspeaux. He thought it a prize in securing a farm with such advantages as this one. George H. Hiehon, Agent of the Empire Cream Separator Co., is doing a rushing business around Gaspeaux. Mrs. A. McDonald, Stallton, N. S., returned to her home after spending a few days in this vicinity, the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Reynolds. Percy Dixon is busy thrashing the last of the season's crop at Pamure Island with his Gasoline Engine. Earl Lewellyn spent Sunday last in Gaspeaux, the guest of Mrs. A. Reynolds. Benjamin Hayter is doing a rushing business at the present time moving his dwelling house. No doubt the people of the community will wish him prosperity.

WHY NOT ENTERTAIN WITH AN INFORMAL GRAM-O-PHONE MUSICAL?

"Gram-o-phone Afternoons" are becoming popular with discriminating hostesses. The variety of the 3,000 selections afforded by Victor Records make such affairs pleasant backgrounds for informal "four-o'clock-teas" with Canada's Best Piano, the Willis. The Willis piano selected by The Guardian for a grand prize is the best that Canada's leading manufacturers can produce. The tone of the Willis is sweet as the harp of the ancient gods, its finish can be ranked with examples of modern art and its lasting qualities are akin to those of Gibraltar. Like every other Canadian product the Willis is honestly and thoroughly made—it is the best piano for the home that money, brains and skill can produce. See our showing. Also the piano selected by The Guardian. Montague Furnishing Co. Ltd Montague.

A Book for Christmas Entertainers

Every promoter of holiday entertainments should immediately secure our excellent book, "Glad Tidings," which contains a complete service for Christmas entertainments. This book contains sixteen pages, each replete with invaluable musical gems and suggestions for the proper conduct of Yuletide concerts. The book is very tastefully gotten up, containing eleven songs with music, one reading, three exercises and two recitations. The following are the names of the songs and choruses, each with individual music:

The Children's Army Ring Out, O Bells! Shout the Glad Tidings Merry Christmas Sing, O Ye Heavens Hosanna

Christmas Hearts with Rapture Bounding O Little Babe of Bethlehem Glory to God in the Highest Christ is King Indeed.
