New Hoot Gibson Western A Super-Action At The Capitol

The romance of the old West, not yet faded before the sweep of civilization and industrialization, lives again in vivid, thrilling moments of action and industrialization, lives again in vivid, thrilling moments of action and adventure as Hoot Gibson's latest and most realistic production, "Clearing the Range" at the Capitol Theathre. The western special, dealing with life on the limitless plains, started its local run yesterday.

Gibson's ability for humanizing the usually stagey and heroic role of the cowboy makes the character of Curt Fremont a likeable and interesting one.

Sally Eilers is pretty and convincing as the scornful girl whose flashing eyes brand the "peaceable" cowboy as a coward. She only knows what she sees—and Hoot, for reasons of his own, doesn't care to be seen in his true light as a reckless, fearless adventurer. Juan, his Mexican partner in nocturnal "banditry," is played splendidly by George Mendoza, a Paramount "find" remembered in "Let's Go Native" and "The Stampede." Robert Homans, Hooper Atchley, Mme. Eva Grippon, Jack Byron and others give sincere performances of other principal characters.

The originality and excellence of the plot, quite different from anything in the western line seen in the past year. Otto Brower's direction is admirable, but then one would expect only the best work from a man associated with such pictures as "Fighting Caravans," "Light of Western Stars," "Border Legion" and "The Santa Fe Trail." He lives up to his standards.

Mutual Life To Curtail Business In Canada

TORONTO, June 17—(By The Canadian Press)—Founded by a Canadian, the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York announced today it would write no more policies in Canada after August 1 next.

While continuing agencies in Canada for the benefit of present policy holders, the company will seek no new business, giving the reason that New York State laws which definitely restrict cost of all new business, no matter where obtained, make it increasingly difficult to compete with Canadian companies who are not similarly limited by Canadian laws. Company securities of a value (at December 31, 1931) of $14,000,000 will remain on deposit with the Dominion Government to protect Canadian policy holders.

The founding of the company by a Canadian is described in a tablet at 56 Wall Street, New York, which reads: "To the memory of Morris Robinson, a Canadian, born in Nova Scotia, September, 1874, cashier of the Bank of the United States, who as first president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York established on this spot the business of modern life insurance on the American Continent, Feb. 1, 1843."

To the end of 1930 the company had written 6,709 policies in Ontario aggregating $19,206,030, a small amount as compared with other United States insurance companies, provincial insurance department officials stated.

AIRPLANE IDEA IN 1640

The airplane and the submarine were thought of in the middle of the seventeenth century. This was declared by J. F. Rees, principal of the University of South Wales, in an address given at the annual meeting of the Caerleon and Monmouthshire Antiquarian Society in Caerleon, England, recently. He referred to a book written about 1640 by Lord Herbert Raylan. The title is "A Century of Invention," and the volume contains 100 suggestions, among them being ideas for airplanes and submarines.

BUCKWHEAT DESTROYS WEEDS

Among the many uses of buckwheat as a field crop perhaps none is more important than its value as a weed destroyer, states crop specialists of the Dominion Experimental Farm. Its value in this connection arises from its quick germination and rapid growth. The fact that two crops of buckwheat can be raised during one year usually makes it particularly effective in the eradication of even such difficult weed problems as those presented by the Sow Thistle and Quack Grass.

Seth Parker In "Way Back Home" At Prince Edward

Combining a wistful, rural simplicity with a stern drama as rugged as the Maine coast, Seth Parker, of broadcast fame, made an auspicious screen debut at the Prince Edward Theatre yesterday in "Way Back Home."

The film is a pleasing diversion reminiscent of the vigor, the spontaneous humor and homey rustic atmosphere of the immortal. "Way Down East." In it the currently popular Parker brings to the screen for the first time the simple philosophies, the nobility and uncompromising valor of country people in times of stress.

In a sense this unusual picture is an elaboration of the star's weekly broadcasts humanizing the farmer folk, consequently it is a distinct novelty whose wholesome character and entertainment values are in sharp contrast with the rapidly failing vogue of gangster films.

Parker is assisted by a cast almost equally made up of radio and film players. On the radio side are Parker (his real name is Phillips Lord), Sophia Lord, as "Lizzie", Effie Palmer as "Ma Parker", Raymond Hunter as "Captain Bang" and Bennett Kilpack as "Cephus."

The film players are Frank Albertson and Bette Davis, the young lovers of the story; Stanley Fields and Wade Boteler, villains, Frankie Darro, the homeless boy and Miss Peterson.

Another high spot of the Program was Andy Clyde's new comedy "Heavens! My Husband" also a Cartoon.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. AND MRS. PATRICK MORRISEY

The community of Orwell and surrounding districts were deeply grieved on May 26th when they learned of the sudden passing of their oldest and most respected citizen in the person of Patrick J. Morrisey at the age of 77 years. After only a few days illness, Mr. Morrisey contracted the flu, which developed into pneumonia and later caused his death on the above mentioned date, after receiving the rites of the Holy Catholic Church, administered by his pastor Rev. P. D. McGuigan.

In the passing of Mr. Morrisey, Orwell mourns the loss of one, who was always a body of cheerfulness in the community, loved and respected by all classes of people.

In the home he was a kind husband and devoted Father and where the weary traveller, always found a ready welcome, but above all he was a true Christian man, a devoted member of the Catholic Church.

His funeral to St. Joachims Church on Saturday morning, was largely attended despite the inclemency of the weather. Requiem Mass was sung by his Pastor, Rev. P. D. MacGuigan, after which his remains were tenderly laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

He leaves to mourn his only daughter Mary, one brother Joseph and one sister Mrs. T. G. Craig, Orwell Cove. One son predeceased him nine years ago.

His pall bearers were Daniel MacPherson, Archibald MacPherson, Peter MacQueen, Faber Dreelan, James Hughes, D. R. MacDonald.

Seldom has a home been called to mourn the passing within a few days of two of its loved ones, as this case when the morning after her husband's death, she too contracted the same disease and passed away on Tuesday, May 31st at the age of 83 years.

Mrs. Morrisey who was formerly Eunice MacInnis of Earnscliffe was married to the late Patrick Morrisey over forty years, and by their earnest endeavors they succeeded in building up one of the finest homes in this community.

Mrs. Morrisey was a woman of more than ordinary intelligence, a general favorite with both old and young and her sudden passing after such a short illness has been keenly felt by her many friends. It may be truly said that she bore the white flower of a blameless life. She was ever a devout Catholic and was frequently visited during her illness by her pastor Rev. P. D. MacGuigan who administered the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church.

The death of their only son nine years ago was a severe blow to his parents, but they bore it with a true Christian spirit and faith in Him who gave him.

They who had lived such a long and useful life together were not separated long by death, but they have left behind them a record well spent in this world.

She leaves to mourn her only daughter Mary, to whom the sympathy of the whole community is extended in her hour of double bereavement.

She also leaves two sisters namely: Mrs. William Sullivan, Magdalin Islands; Mrs. Walter Morrissey, Earnscliffe.

The large concourse of people that followed her remains to their last resting place bore testimony of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Requiem Mass was sung by the Rev. P. D. MacGuigan after which all that was mortal of that loving Mother was tenderly laid to rest beside her husband by the same pall bearers.

FUNERAL OF CHARLES WING.—Final rites were held Tuesdny for the late Charles Wing, Oriental proprietor of the Paris Cafe, Moncton, who was found dead in a local hotel on Sunday last. The funeral was attended by all members of the Chinese colony in the city, as well as by relatives and friends of deceased from Saint John, Prince Edward Island, Sackville and Amherst, while several citizens were also at the obsequies. The service was held at four o'clock in Tuttle Bros. Chappel, Lutz street, and was conducted by Rev. George E. Whitehouse, pastor of First Baptist Church, who spoke sympathetically of the loss the relatives and Chinese population here had sustained in deceased's tragic passing. Numerous beautiful floral tributes banked the casket, the silent tokens of sympathy including several from business concerns with whom deceased dealt, as well as from friends and relatives.—Moncton Times.

Cornwall

The Mission Band Pageant was presented on Sunday evening in Cornwall Church before a large congregation. Mrs. D. K. Ross presided with Mrs. W. R. Shaw and Mrs. MacMillan assisting. All the performers acted in a very creditable manner and the pageant was much enjoyed. The following is the programme: Doxology and Invocation; Singing, Hymn 590; Reading, Scripture lesson; announcements; singing, "Tell Others," by the Band; an exercise by Ellen Shaw and Mildred Hyde; solo by Isabel Howard; recitation, by Ruth Stone; a trio by Helen and Lulu Scott and Hazel Boyle; recitation by Lillian Scott; singing by Senior Girls; recitation by Hazel Boyle; dust by Mary and Dorothy Walker; recitation by Alice Howard; solo, Louise Scott; pageant, by Band; solo, by Muriel McDonald; recitation by Etta Ross, "Hear the pennies dropping;" offering; recitation by Reta Pethick; exercise by 5 Mission Band children; recitation by Norma Walker; singing, "Sending the Word;" Mizpah Benediction.

(Rev.) E. M. and Mrs. Aitken with Mildred and Douglas and Mr. Buchanan of Sydney, N. S., visited Cornwall on Tuesday of this week. They returned to Sydney the following day but expect to return in August for their annual vacation.

Under the auspices of the Cornwall York Point Institute, the Wiltshire players presented an enjoyable play in Cornwall Hall last Friday evening. Between the acts Mrs. Gordon McLean (nee) Marie Crosby, gave two delightful readings and George McLean's mandolin playing was much enjoyed.

The Cornwall Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Frank Boyle on Monday evening, the thirteenth, with the President, Mrs. D. K. Ross, in the chair. Twenty-two members answered the roll call. Mrs. Watson Livingstone gave the reading from the study book and Mrs. W. W. Crosby favored the meeting with a reading.

$100,000 Spent

To Perfect This Perfumed Mist . . . The Ideal Way to Kill All

Flies and Mosquitoes

Fly-Tox was developed at Mellon Institute of Industrial Research by Rax Research Fellowship. Ten years have been spent in perfecting it, and more than $100,000.

It is based on extracts from flowers of Japan, which insects cannot tolerate. An extract pleasant in odor, harmless to people, stainless to anything. But every fly or mosquito perishes quickly at a touch of the mist it creates.

These pests are your deadly enemies. They carry disease germs to infect every food they touch. Their every bite is poison. Over 30 diseases are carried in this way. Many thousands of children, every year, die from their contaminations.

Fly-Tox, used rightly, kills all these pests at once. The way is easy and pleasant, the results are sure, the cost 1 or 2 cents per room.

This new Fly-Tox—based on flowers—is many times as effective as methods of the past. Every lot is tested on flies in our laboratory to insure its quick effects.

FLY-TOX ONLY

A Rax Research Product

Use Fly-Tox only, and always in the new-type Fly-Tox sprayer. Spray to the ceiling, to create in your room a cloud of all-pervading mist. As this mist falls, every fly or mosquito dies at its touch. Yet no harm to people, no offense, no stains. Accept nothing less effective when the safety of your home is at stake. Sold in a million stores the world over. Get Fly-Tox now. Made in Canada.

Bedeque Notes

The many friends of Little Morris Clark, the eleven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Clark will be very sorry to hear that the little lad suffered a very severe and painful accident on Wednesday, in some unfortunate way, he fell against a desk in the school, and severely cut his leg. Some of the other lads in school, immediately carried him to the Doctor's office, and where the doctor found it necessary to insert five stitches to close the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. James Clark of Bedeque, were visitors to the Western Capital last week.

The South Bedeque Women's Institute presented a very amusing "Variety Concert," in the Central Bedeque Hall on Friday evening to a large and appreciative audience. The programme consisted of Harmonica and Harp music by Mr. Harold Hennigar of Albany, Violin selections with piano accompaniment by Miss Rosamond Richardson, vocal solo "Mother McChree," Miss Verna Schurman, dialogue, Reading, Miss Richardson (encore) Pantomime, "Little Jack Horner, violin selections by Master Jimmy Forbes, vocal solo, Miss Winnifred Wright (encore), vocal duette, Mrs. George Henderson and Miss Winnifred Wright and several other numbers all of which caused much laughter and amusement. A sale of candy took place at the intermission.

The farmers in this community are hard at work planting potatoes and it is expected that the planting of potatoes and turnips will be completed this week.

British Premier And Herriot Arrive In Geneva

GENEVA, June 16—(A. P.) Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald and Premier Edouard Herriot arrived in Geneva tonight for a brief visit which will have important effects on the future of the disarmament conference which has been in session here for the last four months.

There has been much agitation in Geneva during the last week as the result of two widely circulated reports. One of these was that Britain was preparing to launch a new disarmament idea in the hope of reviving the conference. The second was that Britain and other important European governments had decided to suspend the arms conference until the reparations meeting at Lausanne is over and perhaps for a longer period.

The conference bureau will hold a meeting tomorrow and at that time the foggy situation is expected to be cleared.

Mr. MacDonald and M. Herriot are here on their way to the Lausanne meeting, which opens Thursday. Foreign Minister Dino Grandi of Italy, also enroute to Lausanne, arrived in Geneva today.

The British and French statesmen came here after arriving at "the basis of a common viewpoint" looking toward the solution of current international problems. They achieved this in week end discussions at Paris.

PETERS ROAD AND VICINITY

There is now no lack of moisture and with a little more sunshine and warmeth the crop situation would be most promising.

Owing to the continued high winds, the fishermen in general were unable to haul their gear for the past two or three days. At this time of mailing 13th. inst. however, a decided improvement is apparent in weather conditions, favoring alike the deep-sea fisherman and giving assurance to the farmer of better hopes of success on the land.

After an absence of about three years, Mrs. Edith McAulay of Newbury, Mass, arrived at her home, Peter's Road where she will spend her vacation with her son Raymond and her aunt Miss Grace Macdonald. Mrs. McAulay says the "Depression" is most acute in the U. S. at the present time. The car-ferry "Charlottetown" she considers a wonderful ship with splendid facilities for service, and the staff spares no pains to make the "run" a pleasant one.

Mr. J. Russell Finlay and Mrs. Finlay sr. recently motored from their home at Montague calling on relatives and friends at Peters Road and Cambridge.

Mrs. Lyle Beaton, Halifax, is now visiting at the home of Mr. Beaton's parents Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Beaton and family, Peters Road.

Among the tenders received and published for the construction of New Prince of Wales College at Charlottetown we note the name of Mr. H. G. Macdonald, Architect, Edmonton, Mr. Macdonald a graduate in Architecture from McGill University has been located in the West for some years, and is a native of P. E. I.—a son of the late William Macdonald and Mrs. Macdonald, Peters Road.

Considerable sickness is prevalent in this locality. In some cases it appears to be the last kick of that obnoxious scourge known as Mumps, while others have contracted colds which have developed into a species of Flu.

Mr. W. E. Jenkins, Creek River, has for some considerable time been engaged in the preserving of lobsters in his factory here.—P.

MIXTURE FOOLS THE FLIES

This is the time of the year when a great majority of us seek pleasures of forest, field and stream and it is a time when it is useful to know an effective protection from the attacks of flies, mosquitoes and forest insects. The Entomological Branch of the federal Department of Agriculture has tried and recommends the following oil preparation:

	Ounces
Oil of Citronello	3
Spirits of Camphor	1
Oil of Tar	1
Oil of Pennyroyal	¼
Castor Oil	4 to 6

(Depending on sensitiveness of the skin).

If a salve or grease is preferred instead of an oil, tallow may be used in place of the castor oil.
