ABBIES vs Crystals.—To-night.

The great hockey games will start at 8 o'clock sharp to-night.

J. P. McCloskey, the efficient representative of the Soranton Correspondence Schools in this city has the thanks of The Guardian for a useful map of the Maritime Provinces.

Rev. Mr. Matheson of Haverhill Mass., will occupy the pulpit of Zion Church next Sunday. Mr. Matheson is one of our successful men abroad and is highly spoken of as a minister of the Gospel.

A FEW nights ago Lemuel Carver of Pownal had his hand badly frozen by exposure to the cold. Mr. Carver is under the treatment of Dr. Rodgers of Verdon River Bridge and it is pleasing to know that it will not be necessary to amputate his hand.

FERRY PLAINS.—The cold weather still continues which is a great benefit to the farmers in hauling mussel mud, though it proved a serious disappointment to the C. M. B. A. of Verdon River who intended giving to a grand entertainment on the evening of the 8th inst. —George McMillan has disposed of his Clydesdale mare to Daniel Stewart of Lot 48.—Miss Maud Matic who has been visiting friends here returned to her home in Earnscliffe last evening.—Patrick Welsh of Summersville who has been suffering from a severe illness is convalescent and his complete recovery is eagerly looked for by his many friends.

ANGVIE SHOP.—The concert and social in the new hall was a decided success, the proceeds amounting to over $100 which amount will pay off the debt on the hall. The program was varied and interesting and was as follows:—Instrumental Music—Laura McLeod. Recitation—May McNeill. Song—Mal. McKenzie. Reading—Edith Stewart. Comic Play—Hampton friends. Song—Laura McLeod. Recitation—John Myers. Saxophone Selection—Regie Stewart, Charlottetown. Pipe Music and Highland Dance by Peter Ferguson and M. Webster, Charlottetown. Comic Song—Mr. Cstee, Charlottetown.

Death—Regie and May Stewart. Reading—Miss May McLeod. Patriotic Scene and Chorus. The best of order prevailed throughout the program, but when the sound of the pipe and sight of bonnet and plaid appeared loud and thrilling shouts announced the national element of the audience. The occasion on the whole was creditable and the Hall Co., desire to thank their friends from country and city.

The death took place at Brudenell on the 4th, inst in the fifty ninth year of his age, from pneumonia of Daniel Robertson, son of the late Alexander Robertson, Esq., who emigrated to this country from Blair Athol Scotland, in the year 1808. His aged mother, a daughter of the late Donald McDonald Esq. of New Perth, residing on the homestead, and an only brother in New York still survive him. The deceased was closely identified with the agricultural and dairying interests of King's County from his earliest youth. He strongly advocated the introduction of the co-operative dairying system into this Province and stood foremost among those whose enterprise carried the experiment to a successful issue. His stalwart figure will be missed from the Exhibition Grounds and Rifle Ranges of his native province, on which he was well known, and highly respected for his sound common sense, good judgment, and strongly marked patriotic feeling. His remains were accompanied to their last resting place in the old cemetery at Brudenell by a large concourse of friends and neighbors, and were consigned to Mother Earth according to the ancient Masonic ritual by his brothers of St. Andrews Lodge A F and A M of which he was a worthy and honored member and Past Master.

MARRIED.

OUR DUTY AS CHRISTIANS AND CITIZENS.

The campaign in Great Britain against the liquor traffic is evidently increasing in intensity and force. Rev. Canon Barker recently preached a vigorous sermon in the Manchester Cathedral strongly denouncing the proposed legislation in the interests of the liquor trade and calling upon all true citizens to unite in breaking the power of "the greatest" slavery that has ever oppressed mankind. It will be noticed that the virile sentiments expressed are in striking contrast with the sophistries and apologetic platitudes to which, both from pulpit and platform, our citizens have had at times to listen. Here is an extract from Canon Barker's sermon:—

"You may perceive that I speak with considerable warmth; God forbid that I should speak any way else. The subject is not one to treat with white kid gloves. It is a subject that needs every man to be in a fighting attitude. It is necessary for him to take off his coat, or to use the apostle's words, 'to brace up his loins,' to take 'the whole armour of God,' to fight against this Titanic evil. I say with emphasis that we are trifling with one of the deepest problems of the century, if we permit it to go unsolved, and allow the drink trade to tyrannize over us, and to corrupt at its fountain head all political and municipal life.

"God gave to us hearts of grace, the hearts of the prophets, the hearts of the apostles in this great crusade. It is not in the power, as I have said of men or devils to resist the onward march of a movement like this. Be true soldiers of the Cross, be men, be true citizens! Take from the people the burden which is crushing them down from day to day. Take from our homes the shadow which is making the word 'home' but a mere empty sound. Take from our children the curse of drunken parents, which ruins their prospects, blights their young lives, and casts them into the vortex of evil without guardianship, or care, or love.

"Think of poor women whose eyes often shed bitter tears for some drunken husband who makes their life a burden and a curse. If you have hearts, let those hearts speak and thrust to one side all those fatal sophistries which would beguile us. We may arouse great enmities, but we must make no compromise. We must go on with our battle till we have broken the tyranny of the greatest slavery that has ever oppressed mankind."

The saloon is a curse everywhere and always. Let us fight to the death the vile horde of rum-sellers—and their friends who in defiance of law and order are seeking to perpetuate its unhalloved existence in our midst.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE.

In store for Those Who Doubt.

When you read that a sufferer of many years' standing has been completely restored to health by using Smith's Cure-all, you are inclined to doubt the statement and, in fact, have no belief in it whatever. The reason for this is that so much is claimed for the Cure-all it is impossible for anyone to believe it; if the advertiser confined his claims to the curing of one disease, as do the proprietors of Pyramid Pile Cure, readers would have much more faith in published testimonials. Those familiar with this great remedy know that testimonials as to its merit may be relied upon implicitly, also that the cures brought about by its use are little short of marvelous. The genuineness of the testimonial here given is vouched for and is but one of thousands received:

"I wish to write you and tell you what your Pyramid Pile Cure has done for me. I have been troubled with piles for the past five years and used every remedy that was recommended to me. While some would give me relief for a while they never have cured. I was so bad this summer I could not get up or down with out pain. I could not attend to my household duties. Finally I got a 50 cent box of your Pyramid Pile Cure at the druggist's and it is now two months since I used the last of the box, and have had no trouble since. I can say it is really and truly a good remedy.

"I am so thankful I tried it as I know it has cured me, and if at any time I should have any such trouble again I would use it at once. Since I am cured I have recommended it to my friends, whom I know to be afflicted as I was, and I know they will use it too. I am so thankful I ever learned of your cure." Mrs. F. Hutt, 469 2nd street, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for fifty cents a package, or will be mailed to any address upon receipt of price by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich. Write this firm for their book describing the cause and cure of piles.
