MR. J. FRANK ARNETT,
 Conservative Candidate for Prince
 One of the most forceful and engaging personalities in politics today is Mr. J. Frank Arnett, Conservative Candidate for Prince. He has been a very successful business man, and yet has had time to devote to public affairs both in the town of Summerside and in the county. He has been an energetic member of the Town Council and a most popular mayor; and in all good work and matters of public interest he has borne more than an ordinary share. When the Conservative Convention offered him the nomination for the county he accepted the honor and responsibility fully realizing that it entailed great sacrifices and much arduous work on his part; and since then has nobly thrown himself into the conflict, with such zest and effectiveness, that his opponent has had to work as even he never worked before to avoid being completely snowed under.

—SETTLEMENT ARRIVED AT—Judge A. E. Arsenault held a session of the Chancery Court at the Court House, Summerside, on the 22nd, when the case of Ambrose Monaghan vs Joseph Monaghan was disposed of. The parties belong to Kinkora and this was an action to have a deed cancelled on the ground that it was claimed that covenants had not been complied with. The parties being father and son, the Judge before entering on the hearing of the case strongly advised a settlement and stated that he was adjourning the Court until the afternoon to give the parties a chance to come to an agreement. At the afternoon session

Counsel informed the Court a settlement had been reached. The Judge expressed his pleasure that a settlement had been reached and the parties shook hands before him and left the Court room. Messrs Henry W. Noonan and Heath Strong, K. C., for the complainant, Messrs Ernest H. Strong, K. C., and K. J. Martin, K. C., for defendant.—S.

—SKUNKS VISIT CHICKEN COOPS—From the different stories told by a number of citizens of Summerside that obnoxious animal, the skunk, has been visiting the poultry yards of Summerside citizens. Mrs. Thomas Johnson, on going out one morning recently to the hen yard, was horrified to see ten of her young chickens about three months old lying dead in a heap, on investigating the matter she discovered that there were only two chickens remaining out of twenty five birds. The blood had apparently been sucked from the young chicks. A trap was set for the intruder but it did not go near it. The following night however, it was round again and was eating an old hen when Mrs. Johnson put the flash light on it. Unfortunately there was no gun handy or else the thief would have a bad time of it. Later in the evening a gun was procured and Mr. Skunk will have a right good reception when he visits that hen house again. Another Summerside lady saw one of these disreputable animals in her hen coop and opened a battle with a pitchfork and succeeded in killing the animal but not before he had killed four of her best hens. The prohibition officers returning from a very successful raid a few nights ago encountered a female of the species with its head stuck in a tomato can. One of the officers procured a clothes prop from a nearby yard and dispatched the animal in a very short space of time. It is to be hoped that this is the last Summerside will hear of these animals. S.

—LUCKY RESCUE—Miss Marie Gaudet, daughter of Mr. J. J. Gaudet of Summerside, was the means of saving Miss Amy Corney, also of Summerside, from drowning on Tuesday evening at Schurman's Point. Miss Corney was bathing with some friends when she got out of her depth. The channel runs in quite close to the shore at this point, but Miss Corney and her friends were apparently not aware of this danger.

The young lady screamed when she realized her danger as she was unable to swim. Her sister attempted to go to her aid but owing to the fact that she also could not swim she was afraid to go too far out. Fortunately Miss Gaudet, who is a good swimmer, happened to come along at that moment and immediately swam out to the drowning girl who by this time was almost exhausted. Miss Gaudet's sister also went to her assistance. It was with some difficulty that they were able to bring Miss Corney to shore. Those on the shore formed a chain and assisted in pulling her in. She was taken to one of the summer cottages near by and after some time was sufficiently recovered to be taken home. Although still suffering from shock Miss Corney is otherwise none the worse for her terrible experience. Miss Gaudet is to be commended for her brave act.
