30,000 FARM LABORERS WANTED.
An unprecedented wheat crop is about ready for harvesting in the West—which means months of steady employment for a vast army of men for many months. Watch the papers for further announcements. In the meantime get ready.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—(Special)—The day of the 'angle screw' liner is done.
The crack Currier racers Et'wia and Umbria, which first cut the six day record, are tied up useless at Birkenhead.
The Cunard Line announces that these vessels, which cost $400,000 each, are for sale and no reasonable offer will be refused.
The reason is they are too costly in this day of twin and quadruple screws and of turbine engines.

WINDSOR, Aug. 5.—(Special)—A detective is searching for the meanest man in Canada, who stole three milk cows from Mrs. Isaac Malloy.
Mrs. Malloy's husband died two weeks ago leaving her to support eight small children. The cows were an important source revenue.

CROWDS RUSH TO PUBLIC EXECUTION.
PARIS, Aug. 5.—The sudden official announcement that a public beheading would take place this (Thursday) morning in the Boulevard fronting Sante Prison, created a sensation in Paris, which has not seen an execution in fifteen years.
Immediately immense crowds gathered, but were kept back from the guillotine by the police. Parisian sentiment has long been opposed to public executions, for in the past they have been accompanied by scandalous scenes.

DEATH OF PRIN. McLAREN.
TORONTO, Aug. 5.—After an illness lasting some months, Dr. Wm. McLaren, Principal Emeritus of Knox College, is dead, aged 82 years.

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 5.—(Special)—Stockholm is suffering seriously from a shortage of food.
Those who neglected to lay in a supply before the strike began are the worst sufferers completely exhausted and meat is scarce and expensive. The restaurants have raised prices and figures are prohibitive except for persons of ample means.
The strikers are living on fish and thousands are camping out. Some are in tents, but many are without shelter on the shores and islands of the Archipelago, where they spend their time in angling.
The authorities have taken charge of the milk supply and soldiers are distributing milk in limited quantities.
Paupers from the state poor house have been enlisted to replace the striking grave diggers and undertakers and instead of hearse stretchers are being used to carry the corpses to the cemetery.
Funerals proceed under military escort.

CHATHAM, N. B., Aug. 4.—To find a fortune of $15,000 while prodding with a stick on the shore of Napanold Chas. McGrath, who lives with his mother on Duke street according to a story told today by Mrs. McGrath. She says Charles and a young Murphy lad were out at Napan last October and Charlie while digging in the sand with a stick came across a small square tin box. He took this home and breaking it open with an axe found a coin or medalion covered with dirt. They did not think it of any value and threw it in an old trunk. About a month ago Mrs. McGrath says that Charlie again brought out the curio and took it to one or two leading citizens, who advised Charlie, so the mother says, that it was valuable, and in fact after the dirt had been cleaned off a circle of diamonds was discovered. The boy left on Saturday for St. John in charge of an uncle, and today he telephoned his mother from Burnt Church stating that he was on his way home with $15,000 in exchange for medal and would arrive by boat tomorrow evening. Mrs. McGrath is naturally overjoyed.
Whether the story is true or not remains to be seen, as citizens to whom Mrs. McGrath states Charlie showed the medal deny ever having seen it.
Mrs. McGrath is confident, however she has got the money.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Aug. 4.—Again at the Thaw sanity hearing Dr. Amos T. Baker, first assistant physician in Mattewan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, whose testimony took up the greater part of the session yesterday afternoon, was recalled today. The other experts retained by the state, Dr. Austin Flint and Dr. Charles B. McDonald, who have sat all through the hearing, were reinforced by Dr. Wm. Hirsch, who testified for the prosecution at the trial. Thaw had the same trio of experts who have already declared that he is now sane and who have been at the elbow of his counsel, Charles Morschauer, since the hearing began. They are Dr. Britton, Dr. Evans, Dr. Issam G. Harris and Dr. Wm. J. Myer.
Dr. Flint on the stand described paranoid. Answering Jerome as to whether or not a paranoiac was dangerous to be at large, Dr. Flint said: "A persecuted paranoiac is the most dangerous of the insane." He was led to his conclusion, he said, largely by Thaw's family history.
"Paranoia," he asserted, "never attacks one of untainted heredity; next by his evident delusions regarding White and his associates, and finally the homicide paranoiac murder." Lunatics of this class he said, almost always kill in a theatrical way and never express remorse.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—(Special)—Harry Thaw will devote his life to literature if he wins his fight for freedom from the Mattewan asylum.
Anticipating such a victory, his mother, Mrs. Thaw and her daughter Alice, the former Countess Yarmouth, have spent $25,000 fitting up a literary den for Thaw.
Both Harry and his relatives believe he will succeed in literary work and for a year this has been under discussion.

NORTHFIELD, Mass., Aug. 5.—(Special)—That there will be individuality with peculiar and personal characteristics after death, and resulting therefrom will come theological differences in heaven and different explanations for divine things, were the statements made before the conference here by Rev. Mr. Jowett of England.
They precipitated a general discussion among the delegates.
Dr. Jowett advocated a form of church unity which set the ministers thinking.
He severely criticized the lack of harmony in unity among Christian denominations and said what was needed was not theological unity.
He advocated unity of action for the good of the world, but does not believe that unity of doctrine of creed is possible.

ST. JOHN, Aug. 5.—(Special)—Miss Esther White was greatly surprised upon reading in this morning's paper the account of her own murder in a Boston boarding house.
The young woman is a native of St. John and is now spending a vacation here, having recently come from Worcester, where she practices nursing.
The woman found dead in Boston went by the same name and hailed from Worcester, consequently the Boston police made a mistake in identity.
The real identity of the victim is still unsolved.

COWES, Aug. 4.—Last night the Russian Empress and her suite, including King Edward and Queen Alexandra and the members of the British royal household on board the Victoria and Albert. All the ships in the harbor were illuminated.
The dining room was beautifully decorated with red roses and on the table was a magnificent display of gold plate. Beside the King and Queen and the Empress and her suite the guests were the Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Sweden, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Premier Asquith, Sir Edward Grey, Reginald McKenna and M. Iswolsky. King Edward, in proposing a toast to the Russian monarch, said: "I am glad that you have had the opportunity of seeing the most powerful and the largest fleet ever assembled, but I trust Your Majesty will never look upon these ships as a symbol of war; but, on the contrary as a protection to coasts and commerce, and also as a means of upholding the interests of peace."
In responding, Emperor Nicholas said that the magnificent, naval review he had witnessed bore full testimony to England's greatness. His Majesty said he always would remember the days he had spent with the beloved and venerated Queen Victoria. In concluding, the Emperor said:
"May the friendly welcome given by Your Majesty and the Queen and the people to the members of the Russian suite in the winter to my squadron be a token of the friendly relationship between our two countries founded on common interest and mutual esteem."

CAPE TOWN, Aug. 5.—(Special)—The British steamer Maori foundered last night off Slang Bay.
It is feared the vessel carries a considerable number of passengers.
Nine survivors have been landed and six bodies were washed up on the beach.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—The Lancet publishes a strong warning against the dangers to the race arising from the cheap transit facilities. It says:
"The inducement to ride rather than walk is a temptation which continually confronts the public. It is not difficult to see in this a process which is calculated to lead to physical, and not improbably mental demoralization. The lift is another example of modern innovation which encourages idleness. Surely this state of things cannot count for sturdiness and healthful activity in the future generation, but is more likely to lead to a state of atrophy, which must react unfavorably on the individual. It is open to question whether the human race is better off for the number of facilities which are constantly thrown in its way."

PITTSBURG, August 4.—Fears of serious trouble are entertained if the expected eviction of strikers and their families is attempted by the Pressed Steel Car Company at their homes near the Company's plant at Schoenville.
A double force of Deputies with the Pennsylvania State Constabulary is on guard at the works. At a mass meeting held on Indiana Mound last night, strike leaders counselled the men to maintain peace, but it is predicted that the sight of their wives and children being summarily forced into the streets will rouse the idle workmen to a frenzy. The strikers claim that the hope of a quick settlement of the differences existing between them and the Company's officials is bright, and they will make further efforts today to bring their alleged grievances before representatives of the Company.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—The suffragette movement has spread into France, and promises to become as much of an issue as it is in England.
The marked Howard Williams, a lawyer of Chicago who spent several months in France at the Raleigh.
"The French feminists demand the right not only a vote at parliamentary elections, but also to sit as deputies. A congress of representatives of all the feminist organizations in France will be held at Lyons in September, the object of which will be to obtain parliamentary rights for women and to promote the development of women's trade unions. There are in France, I am told, 4,000,000 women who earn their livelihood in almost every industry and profession except naval and military. The cry of these women now is equal pay for equal work, and equality of legislative protection for women and men."

A BAD FIRE IN WEYMOUTH, WEYMOUTH, N. S., Aug. 5.—Fire destroyed the Methodist Church, the tailor shop of J. C. Muise, the tenement occupied by James Fitzmaurice and the tenement occupied by Mrs. George Mallett.
Several other buildings were damaged, including the residence of Augustus Brooks, Mrs. LeBlanc's boarding house, the American Hotel and the Roman Catholic Church.
It was the worst fire Weymouth experienced for many years. It started in a small building back of the church, owned by Muise. A small boy is said to have started it.

PARIS, Aug. 4.—Two members of a band of coiners were arrested last night thanks to a Sherlock Holmes shopkeeper in the Rue Tarfago. Late in the evening a well-dressed woman entered his premises and made a small purchase for which she paid with a counterfeit 2-franc piece. The shop-keeper noticed that the coin was spurious, but he affected not to see it. When the customer left he followed her.
The woman visited a number of other shops, bought some small article or other, always tendering a counterfeit 2-franc piece, which, in each case, was accepted without demur. Ultimately the amateur detective, shadowing her, saw her make her way to one of the street seats in the Temple square, where she accosted an elderly man with gray hair. This latter, after a few minutes' conversation, handed her a package, and she was about to resume her round of shopping when the police, who had been summoned by the vigilant tradesman, arrested the pair.
On being searched a number of spurious coins were found in their possession. The accused, who are Spaniards from Barcelona, occupied a lodging near the observatory. The woman's venerable-looking companion, when his wig was removed, was found to be a young man on the right side of 20.

LISBON, Aug. 4.—Free thinkers from all political parties in Portugal, represented by the Cortes a petition for the suppression of the religious orders in Portugal and the abrogation of the existing laws against freedom of conscience. This step was an outcome of the meeting held in this City yesterday. The committee was accompanied to the houses of parliament by an immense crowd, and some wild scenes ensued. Among other things the petitioners asked the abrogation of the recent law permitting religious associations to acquire landed property, a procedure which up to the present time has been illegal. Senhor Camargo moved the consideration of the subject, and when the motion was voted down the galleries broke out in protestation. There was considerable violence on the floor of the house. The deputies, in a struggle in which desks and chairs were overturned and the chamber had to be cleared twice. The tumult was continued in the streets, but without serious results.
McDONALD, IS STAFF OFFICER.
LONDON, Aug. 5.—Lieut. Col. J. C. McDougall, now in command of the Wilsley Barracks, will be transferred on September 1st to Halifax as Chief Staff Officer of the Maritime Provinces.

Mr. F. L. Mills, Box 431, Springhill, N. S., wrote on August 21st last:
"I have had two prescriptions for Catarrh from Father Morrissey, No. 1 Course and No. 2, but I think No. 1 has done me the most good, and that is the one I am getting filled from time to time.
I would recommend this prescription a full for Catarrh, as his tablets are the only remedy I can get to help me. The No. 2 Tablets are a great tablet."

AN EDUCATIONAL EXPERT
has this to say
ACADIA LADIES' SEMINARY
Wolfville, N. S.

"What impressed the writer was the admirable system that prevails in the management, and in every department of work; that kindly personality and tact, the influence of which is so grateful to young people; the genial sympathy in the relations between teacher and pupil, and the interest which each one seemed to feel in the work of the day. An education under such conditions is indeed a great asset."
