FUNERAL TOMORROW—The funeral of the late Dennis McQuaid has been postponed till tomorrow (Tuesday) morning at 7 a. m.

DREDGING AT RUSTICO — Mr. Bartram in a letter to a correspondent states that dredging will be commenced at Rustico within the next ten days.

TOMORROW'S RECITAL—A splendid program of music will be heard at the recital by Miss Davis and Mr. Watkis in St. Paul's Schoolroom tomorrow (Tuesday) evening. Don't miss it on any account. 1510.

AGAIN POSTPONED.— The base ball game to have been played Saturday afternoon, between the Connaughts and the Abegweits, was postponed until to-day, on account of the wet weather. It brought great disappointment to the fans who had assembled expecting to see the game, but just about the time the game was scheduled to start the rain started and they had to go home and wait, hoping for a fine day to-day.

SAD DEATH.—The deep sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. Peter Craig, of the P. E. I. R., in the almost sudden death of his wife, which occurred yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. The death of a wife and mother in the prime of life is a sad blow to the home, from which she was so suddenly taken. She leaves to mourn her husband and five young children. The deceased was formerly Miss Ada E. Nicholson of Alberton. The funeral takes place from her late residence, 30 Hillsboro street, this afternoon at 3.30.

DIED ON SATURDAY—The death occurred in the Charlottetown Hospital on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock of Mr. Dennis McQuaid, formerly of Charlottetown but recently of Boston. Mr. McQuaid arrived home from Boston about the first of June on a visit, but shortly afterwards became ill and entered the Charlottetown Hospital. He gradually became worse until he passed away on Saturday morning. The late Mr. McQuaid, before removing to Boston, was for many years Janitor of the Court House, Charlottetown, and in that capacity earned for himself the name of a worthy official. He leaves to mourn, besides a large circle of friends, three sons and two daughters.

SERVICE AT CEMETERY.—It was announced in the Pro-Cathedral yesterday that a service will be held at the Catholic Cemetery on Sunday next, commencing at 3 o'clock. All the Catholic societies of Charlottetown will assemble at the Pro-Cathedral and, headed by the League of the Cross Band, will parade to the cemetery, on St. Peter's Road. At the cemetery the Cathedral choir will render the Libera, Miserere Mei Deus and the De Profundis. An orchestra consisting of cornets, clarionet, baritone, slide trombone and bass will accompany the choir in the singing. After the service and prayers for the dead a sermon will be preached by His Lordship Bishop O'Leary.

EXCHANGES SAY—The following are taken from New Brunswick Exchanges:—Mr. G. Hanington, of Bridgetown, and niece, Miss Kennedy, who have been spending a week with friends on P.E.Island, were in town early in the week and accompanied by Mr. Hanington's sister, Mrs. A.J. Murray, left on Wednesday for Bridgetown, where Mrs. Murray expects to remain for some weeks. Mrs. J. H. Norton has returned to her home in Moncton from Middleton (P.E.I.), where she was spending some weeks at her former home. Rev. Mr. M. J. McPherson, of Harvey and Acton, left on Tuesday for a few weeks vacation in P. E. Island. The Misses Schurmann, of Bedeque (P.E.I.), were in Shediac over Sunday as guests of Mrs. W. Avard and left on Monday to spend some time with relatives in Moncton. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harper left last week for their home at Cape Traverse (P.E.I.), after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harper, Jacksonville.—Miss Berna Huestis, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., is the guest of Mrs. F. W. Roach, Leinster street, St. John.—Captain and Mrs. Anderson are spending ten days at Hicks' Ferry. Mrs. F. A. Ackland and her daughter, Miss Mary, have returned to Ottawa from The Cliff, Stanhope, P. E. I., where they spent the past two months.—Dr. and Mrs. James Mills and their daughter, Mrs. Hamilton, who have been spending the past few weeks at The Cliff, Stanhope, P. E. I., are at present in Halifax.—Mr. Frank Tuplin, the P. E. I. fox king, was in Moncton a few days this week. He was registered at the Brunswick Hotel.— Mrs. J. W. Weldon and daughter, Miss Addie, have returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Charlottetown and Summerside, P. E. I.

NORTH RIVER WHARF—The tenders for North River wharf are now under consideration, and the contract will be awarded shortly.

RECOVERING—His many friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. Hammond Kelly, who returned home from Halifax last week, is recovering from the effects of the accident sustained on the race course, previously reported. He is able to be about and expects shortly to be as well as ever.

CLYDE RIVER.—The Clyde River Women's Institute met at the home of the president for their September meeting. Casserole Cooking was the subject, the method employed and various recipes. Cream of Tartar Biscuits were also discussed and a great deal of information was gained in these popular subjects.

NORBORO.—The September meeting of the Norboro Women's Institute was found very instructive as well as enjoyable. The interesting program began with music, after which the subject of Pickling was discussed. Many receipts and different methods of making pickles were interchanged. The sociability of this meeting was very marked and all spent a very pleasant afternoon.

ENTERTAINED.— On Friday afternoon, says a St. John exchange, at her beautiful residence in West St. John, Mrs. Gershon Mayes entertained at tea in honor of Mrs. Skerry, of Bangor, who was beautifully gowned in black and white silk with Irish lace trimmings. Mrs. Mayes was in grey satin trimmed with lace and silver sequins and pipings of orange velvet. Among the guests present the name of Mrs. J. E. B. McCready, Charlottetown, appears.

MEADOWBANK.—At the Meadowbank Women's Institute monthly meeting, the subject of Butter-making was thoroughly discussed. One of the members described her method of caring for milk and ceeam, churning, dressing and packing butter, also how to preserve the flavor of butter through the summer months. Among other miscellaneous topics brought up was home-made soap making, which was dealt with by one of the successful housekeepers of the district. Such meetings speak well for the progress of this enterprising Institute.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT.—Mr. Thomas Meikle, a young man employed at the Experimental Station, Charlottetown, met with a somewhat peculiar accident Saturday. While driving in a carriage along one of the streets in Charlottetown, the horse jogging along quietly, the young man was seen to sway as if in a faint. Before help could reach him he fell out of the carriage on to the paved street. He was at once picked up and taken to a doctor's office whence he was removed in Mr. Wright's Ambulance to the P. E. Island Hospital. He was for some time in the hospital before he regained consciousness. A deep cut on the head, sustained in the fall, required several stitches to close. At latest account last evening Mr. Meikle was doing nicely having passed a very restful day.

ISLANDERS IN IT.—A very enjoyable picnic was held by a number of young people at the picturesque spot of Bushville, last Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. Charles Stothart chaperoned the party. They went down to Bushville on the 3 o'clock trip of the steamer and returned to town at 8 o'clock that night when, to add to the day's enjoyment, Miss Nan Creaghan invited the party to her home for an informal dance. Among those present were Miss Allison Peters, Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Miss Dorothy Wilson, Millerton; Miss Lily Williamson, Miss Vera Carruthers, Summerside, P. E. I.; Misses Robinson, Miss Gretta Rundle, Misses Armstrong, Miss Laura Williston, Miss Hazel Crabbe, Miss Nan Creaghan, Miss Jean Morrison, Miss Gertie Buckley and Messrs. George McInerney, Charles Stothart, Winifield Williamson, Cleo. Demers and others.

THE DANCING MASTERS HAVE DECREED WALTZ DEAD

CHICAGO, Sept. 13—The waltz is dead; long live the tango!

One hundred dancing masters comprising the Association of Chicago Dancing Masters, met yesterday and officially pronounced the demise of the waltz. The two-step also was laid away.

The obsequies marked real tragedy to many of the older members of the association, who had tripped for years the music of the waltz and the two-step.

It was generally conceded that the tango was to be the only dance of the next several years. This is what the tango is according to the dancing teachers:

A moral dance with no exaggerated or fake dips, ungraceful positions and no shoulder movements.

This is how it is to be danced:

First the glide walk with eight counts to the music, then the right turn with four counts, the grape vine with eight counts, the right turn in four counts, the draw step with eight counts and finally the repeat.

Other new dances to be taught during the coming dancing season and given sanction today are the "sorority romp," and the "dream one-step" is a splendid resource for ambitious go-ahead folks.

Stored-Up Energy

Right, living—especially proper food eaten regularly—is the basis of real energy.

Grape-Nuts FOOD

has a delicious taste and contains the natural Phosphate of Potash grown in wheat and barley. This vital element, often lacking in the ordinary meal, combines with other food elements for rebuilding the tissue cells in the nerve centres throughout the body.

The man who daily includes Grape-Nuts in his dietary, feels the glow of energy in nerve and muscle—stored up for the long, steady pull that wins.
