The many friends of Joseph, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Aloysius MacDonald, Panmure Island, will be pleased to learn that his condition is much improved. Joseph is a patient at the Charlottetown Hospital.

HICKOK ADVENTURES THEME OF SERIAL

The hair-raising adventures of America's mightiest hero, Wild Bill Hickok are coming back to the screen in Columbia Pictures' thundering serial, "The Great Adventures of Wild Bill Hickok, which starts a re-release engagement at the Capitol Theatre today. It will play every Thursday thereafter.

The blood-curdling thriller, which accompanied Hickok's relentless efforts to bring law and order to the old West are vividly depicted in the serial re-release which includes Indian massacre, stampeding herds, hand-to-hand combats and daredevil rescues.

William Elliott is cast in the title role of the stalwart frontiersman who rocked the West with his six-guns, with Monte Blue, Carole Wayne, Frankie Darro, Roscoe Ates, Chief Thunder Cloud and Mala in other featured roles.

Mrs. John Hunter, Strathcona, is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. Gerald Hicken, Gasperaux, has returned to his home from Halifax where he has been visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David Hicken, for a few days.

Her many friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Howard Steele has been discharged from the King's County Hospital where she has been a patient.

Mrs. Maurice Daly, St. Mary's Road, has returned home after having spent a pleasant three weeks visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jamieson, Haverhill, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Campbell Sydney, accompanied by Mrs. Campbell's brother, Mr. Charles Collings, were weekend visitors to Montague, guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Collings, Jr.

A considerable quantity of potatoes are daily being trucked into Georgetown from various centres in the county. They are being stored in the Government potato warehouse, prior to shipment by rail and water.

Recent visitors to Murray Harbour North and Oak Valley were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Llewellyn of Dorchester, Mass., who motored to the Island to visit Mr. Llewellyn's father, Mr. James Llewellyn. They also visited Mrs. Llewellyn's family in Liverpool, N. S.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Nelson Murray and Family wish to thank their friends and neighbors for all acts of kindness, also those who sent floral tributes and cards of sympathy during their sad bereavement.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of James Oliver Rafter who was killed November 11th, 1941.

Some may think the grief has lessened, As a smile hides the tears, But God alone knows how we miss him, As it dawns another year.

Always Remembered by Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving memory of John M. MacKenzie who departed this life November the 11th, 1947.

We wept, but faith Can pierce beyond the gloom of death And, in your world so fair and bright, Behold faces in refulgent light. We miss you here, yet we would rather Know thou art with the Heavenly Father.

Sadly Missed by Mother, Sisters and Brothers.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving memory of my dear father, Douglas MacDonald who died November 9th, 1946.

A cheerful smile, a heart of gold The dearest father a true could hold. Happy memories fond and true, From those who thought the world of you.

Lovingly Remembered by His Daughter and Son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alban MacAulay.

REMEMBRANCE DAY 1949

Blow out, you bugles, over the rich Dead!
 There's none of these so lonely and poor of old,
 But, dying, has made us rarer gifts than gold.
 These laid the world away; poured out the red
 Sweet wine of youth; gave up the years to be
 Of work and joy, and that unhopd serene,
 That men call age; and those who would have been
 Their sons, they gave, their immortality.

—Rupert Brooke.
