

Card to the Electors

Ladies and Gentlemen, Electors of the City of Charlottetown;

Not wishing to seem premature but being convinced that there is no time like the present, I take advantage of this opportunity of making known my position, re Civic Politics.

I have been interviewed by many prominent citizens and believing them to be good judges of the Civic pulse, after due consideration I have decided to nominate as a Candidate for Mayoralty honours at the forth-coming Civic Election.

My record for the past two years is an open book. I have endeavoured to give to the City my best and have tried to uphold the dignity of the office. Having had a most strenuous two years, I am of the opinion that a second term may be in order.

If I have the honour to be re-elected, I can assure you Ladies and Gentlemen, I shall as before have the best interests of our City and Citizens at heart, ever endeavouring to promote any and every feasible measure that may arise, whereby our City may be benefited.

I thank you most heartily for your support in the past and the many honours shown me.

It is almost impossible for me to interview you all personally. I therefore take this opportunity of soliciting a continuance of your confidence and your votes.

I remain
Yours respectfully
G. D. WRIGHT

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF CHARLOTTETOWN

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Having been solicited by a large number of the citizens and tax payers of Charlottetown to offer as a candidate for the Mayoralty at the forth coming election, I have consented to offer for the office and beg to solicit your support and influence.

An extended record of the past year's work is now before you. You will observe that we have succeeded to make revenues and expenditures meet and have a balance to the good.

My work at the Council Board is well known to most of the tax payers of the city and I think that I may fairly assume that the result of my work meets with the approval of the majority of the citizens.

Many of my friends believe that I am entitled to the position on account of my length of service to the city, having served for a greater length of time than any member of the Council Board and have performed the duties of my office in a fair and efficient manner since becoming a member of the Council.

If you do me the honor of election there will be nothing negative with regard to my policy for the forth coming term. I will use every effort to promote all and every good work undertaken by the Council for the general welfare and betterment of the city.

Charlottetown has made much progress in civic betterment in the past several years and I believe that I can claim a fair share of the credit for the progress that has been made. I will be unable to see personally the electors before polling day and rely upon the citizens of Charlottetown, whose sense of fair play and justice is well known, to rally to my support.

Yours respectfully,
D. J. RILEY.

GERRY TALKS IT OVER WITH MARY

CHAPTER 41.

All the morning while attending to my customers I thought of what that Felicia had said and of how terribly unjust she had been. "I never will do anything for anyone as long as I live!" I declared to myself, after I had mentally added up what she had cost me for room and board in the weeks we had entertained her. Yet I had determined to say nothing to Robert of what she had said. I had already told him we had a most unpleasant time; that was all that was necessary.

But I could not easily dismiss it from my mind. And when noon came I told Mary, after asking her to say nothing to Robert. "I ain't sure the old girl was so far wrong," Mary said after I had finished. "I don't mean Bob would divorce or desert you—she sure put it strong, didn't she? But I guess if you had said goodbye to the shop when you married him he would have 'went out some way. Men like to think they have married clinging vines you know; and the tighter they cling the better most of them seem to like it. Then you know Gerry, when a man has that kind of a female around, he just has to hustle; there ain't no other way."

"I have made up my mind to one thing, Mary," I had scarcely taken in what she had said, so intent was I upon my grievance. "What's that?"

"That Robert is not a money maker and never will be. I am so thankful I can work—can at least make a decent living for us." "It is fortunate, Gerry—if you are right about Robert. But some way I can't believe he is so stupid. It is perhaps lack of ambition, because you make it unnecessary. I'm sorry, Gerry, you had such a time with the old lady. Did you tell Robert?"

"No—and I don't intend to. What good would it do—and it might hurt him." "That's white in you, Gerry. Lots of wives would not be so generous. She was his relative, and she must have given you a pretty hot time last night, or was it this morning?" "Last night."

"Where was Robert?"

"Not—and I don't intend to. What good would it do—and it might hurt him." "That's white in you, Gerry. Lots of wives would not be so generous. She was his relative, and she must have given you a pretty hot time last night, or was it this morning?" "Last night."

Why Do Women Suffer

WHY THERE IS SUCH A REMEDY FOR THEIR ILLS AS LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND?

Mishawaka, Ind.—"I had such a severe female weakness that I could not do my work and I could not get anything to relieve me. A physician treated me, but it did me no good. I had been in this condition for three months when I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound (tablet form) and it cured me. I keep house and am able to do my work now. I certainly praise your medicine."—Mrs. SUDA OLDFATHER, 648 West Second Street, Mishawaka, Ind.

Women who suffer from such ailments should not continue to drag around and do their work under these conditions, but profit by the experience of Mrs. Oldfather and thousands of others who have tried this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and found relief from such suffering. If complications exist write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years' experience in advising women on this subject is at your service.

"Playing pool." "A new habit, isn't it? I never heard you say he had gone to a pool room."

"I don't think he ever has—not since we have been married. He was blue last night."

"Don't let him get to running to these places, Gerry. It ain't good for him or any other man to be running out nights playing pool."

"Anyone would think you were an old married woman," I replied. "You talk as if you know all about men."

"I know the breed even if I ain't lived with them. They are mostly all alike you know; just children who must be humored or they get skittish."

"Oh well, I've told my troubles, now I'll go back to work!" "I wish I could help you, Gerry."

"You do—by listening." "Well I shall be all to rights by Sunday. You and Robert come and take dinner with me."

"Thank you. I know Bob will be pleased, and so am I, even if I do think it was foolish for you to attempt so much when you work such long hours."

"Don't think you are going to get a banquet, because you ain't! I won't try any fancy things on you. I'll try them on the dog first, meaning myself of course."

"Please don't go to a lot of work for us; but I am wild to see your little place, and so is Bob."

"Two o'clock is my dinner hour, Mrs. Meredith."

"We will be on time, Miss Ryan."
