THE MARKETS

MONTREAL, Que., Nov. 17. — Owing to the fact that the majority of foreign bids were below local exporters' views, the export trade in Canadian grain here today was dull. The only business reported was the sale of an odd lot of Canadian western No. 3. Barley. The trade in cash grain was quiet. There was a little demand from any source but the tone of the market was steady. The flour market was quiet and values for spring and winter wheat grades were well maintained. Considerable business was transacted in all lines of millfeed and the undertone was steady. The feature of the market for standard grades of rolled oats as the weaker feeling that developed and prices were reduced ten cents per bag. Sales of standard grades were made at 365 per bag of 90 pounds. A fair business was done in all grades of eggs and prices were well maintained for fresh and storage qualities. The receipts were 2,894 cases. Potato values were reduced five to fifteen cents per bag, which was attributed to the accumulation of supplies of spot on account of the mild weather that has prevailed. The market was quiet. Car lots of N. B. Green Mts. were quoted at $1.75 per bag. Prince Edward Mts. at $1.80 per bag and Quebec Whites stock at $1.60 per bag of 90 pounds. The undertone to the market for beans was firm under a good demand. Car lots of choice whit hand picked were quoted at $2.75 per bushel and smaller lots at 3.00 per bushel. The butter market was moderately active and prices were firm. No. 1 Pasteurized was quoted at 35c to 35 1-2 per pound the receipts were 85 packages. Extreme dullness marked the cheese trade but values were slow, western grades were quoted at 17 1-8 to 17 3-8 c, and eastern grades at 17c to 17 1-8 c per pound. The receipts were 3,751 boxes.

"IS DEMERARA AN ISLAND?" Asked a business man yesterday. Hon. C. M. Shannon will answer that question and many more at the Caledonian Club lecture course tonight. All cordially invited.

SCHOONER WRECKED — Word has been received from Hawkesbury, that the schooner "Mona" was a total loss. The Mona was loaded with coal from North Sydney for Souris. The cargo of coal was insured through Higgs & Co., Ltd., Charlottetown.

SCHOONER SEIZED — Last Friday a schooner with a cargo of coal and Labrador herring on its arrival in Summerside was searched by Officers H. M. S. Baker and Inspector Barbour, who found two barrels each containing ten gallons of rum. The vessel was placed under arrest pending further developments.

ISLANDER DROWNED — A telegram was received yesterday bringing the sad news of the drowning in Pictou of Henry Doucette, son of Philip Doucette, of Rusticoville. The deceased together with other men from Rustico were engaged in smelt fishing off Pictou, and although no particulars are given of the accident, it is presumed that it occurred when Mr. Doucette was following his occupation. He was between thirty-eight and forty years of age, and leaves a widow and a large family of twelve or thirteen children. His brother Paul and a number of friends left on the Hochelaga yesterday. According to the telegram the body had not been recovered.

REV D. M. LAMONT'S SERVICES RECOGNIZED.— At a recent meeting of the Presbytery in Sydney, it was moved and seconded and passed unanimously that the Presbytery of C. Breton through its clerk, express its gratitude to the congregation of Boulardarie, in the releasing of Mr. Lamont so frequently for "field work". Having so many Gaelic congregations and so few ministers who are able to speak in that language, it was a very great boon to us and a very great temptation to avoid ourselves of the services of one who can speak so eloquently in that tongue, as your minister Rev D. M. Lamont. It was all the more a favour seeing that Mr. Lamont came so recently into your congregation, and we esteem it a very evident indication of your great loyalty to the Presbyterian Church, that in some respect you jeopardized your interests in the interests of the church at large. We feel sure that you will not be the loser in the end. We congratulate you in the good fortune you enjoy in having so wise and scholarly a minister, and we thank you most heartily for the splendid work he has done for the Presbytery, and for the Presbyterian Church in Cape Breton.— W. MacCulloch Thomson, clerk of the Cape Breton Presbytery.

DOGS KILL GEESE — On Tuesday night a couple of stray dogs visited Falconwood Farm and killed five geese of superior breed and quality. The keeper hearing the racket, arrived on the scene, but the dogs had fled before any action could be taken.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY — The funeral of Margaret McDonald was held yesterday from her late residence to St. Dunstan's Cathedral where a Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. Father Walsh, after which interment was made in the Roman Catholic Cemetery. Rev. Fr. Patk. McMahon officiated at the grave.

S. S. MAGNHILD SAILS WITH POTATOES — The S. S. Magnhild sailed Tuesday night at 11 o'clock with a cargo of seed potatoes, consisting of 38,150 bushels for Norfolk, Va. The S. S. Sabotawana is at present, at the Railway Wharf, loading another shipment which will in all probability be about 200,000 bushels.

ST. JAMES W. M. S. The annual thank offering meeting of this society was held in the Church hall last evening and was largely attended, Rev. W. Bruce Muir presiding and giving an address. An interesting programme was submitted contributed to by Miss Doris Prowse, Mrs. Roome, Miss Jacueline MacDonald, Mrs. Shaw, Miss Marjorie Chandler and Miss Susannah McKenna. Miss Ethel Stewart presided at the piano.

SCHOONER TOTAL LOSS — Both the splendid tern schooner Favonion, owned by Capt. J. S. Allen and Mr. John E. Campbell, of Summerside wrecked recently near Halifax, and her cargo have proved a total loss. Owing to the condition of the molasses that was salvaged from the wrecked Favonian, the Charlottetown consignees who were in Halifax on Sunday to look over the shipment turned the whole quantity down. At cursory inspection it appeared that the molasses would be in good shape as the vent holes were plugged, but it is understood that when the Favonian grounded these holes were open and were subsequently stopped to allow the handling of the puncheons when they were put aboard the barge to be taken to Halifax.

THIN HOGS

There appears to be a general tendency on the part of market hogs before they are properly finished. This applies to both live and dressed. The prevailing opinion seems to be that if hogs are within the desired weight 120-160 dressed, or 180-230 alive, that this is all that is required. This is far from correct and is resulting in a general departure from former practice of feeding the hogs until they are well finished. What is wanted is hogs 180-230 lbs. alive or 120-160 dressed but well fed and showing finish with good thickness and fairly well covered with lard which properly finished hogs always carry. We appreciate the difficulty of having hogs well finished and still keep within the desired weights but it would be much better to have them heavier and even accept a lower price than to destroy the market for Island Pork products by supplying the inferior product from thin, unfinished hogs.

We are instructing our buyers not to accept thin, unfinished hogs of any weight, particularly hogs under 120 lbs. dress or 180 alive, and are doing this with the idea of conserving the market for our Island hog products, as much or more in the interest of the farmer as the packer.

We urge the attention of all interested in the future of the Pork industry to this important matter.

THE MERRY WIDOW AT THE PRINCE EDWARD

The photoplay version of the famous stage success "The Merry Widow", which had a sensational run in New York and all the larger American and Canadian cities, opened a four days engagement at the Prince Edward yesterday.

The story of "The Merry Widow" might have been compressed into five reels but it could not have been so charmingly told, with such wealth of incident and beauty of background as Von Stroheim has told it in ten reels. The Viennese settings are works of art, the mobs picturesquely clothed and exceptionally well directed and the story reasonably compact. Audiences will marvel at the number of sets. One exquisite conception after another is flashed on the screen, and without detriment to the story-telling.

The positive character of the prince makes the role not difficult of delineation and John Gilbert scores repeatedly in his interpretation. He makes the prince a gallant, dashing chap with a penchant for the ladies, one who laughs at denials and goes daringly and ruthlessly toward the objective. He has never appeared to better advantage. Where other players might have invested the early scenes of promiscuous lovemaking with crudities, Gilbert manages to surround them with something of the fire of irresponsible romance. Later, when the actress brings love into his life, he rises to real heights in portraying the sorrow of a love that seems hopeless.

Mae Murray, it also may be said, at least equals her best previous endeavors. She, too, gets a depth of feeling into her part. The breezy actress of the early scenes becomes the woman tortured with love. Incidentally, Miss Murray has never appeared more beautiful on the screen.

Without the work of Roy D'Arcy as the despicable crown prince the picture could not be what it is. His is a character study of real power, in which the direction of Von Stroheim shows, for the character is repulsive in a distinctly Germanic way. While there are hundreds of people in the picture, these three players dominate it at all times.

The picture has fire and dish. After a slow beginning it gains impetus and moves along rapidly to a dramatic conclusion. It is thronged with events spiritedly acted, such as an exceptionally well staged duel in the mists of the early morning. The concluding scenes of the coronation are marvels of composition. They have been done in colors and cannot fail to send a thrill through the beholder.

"The Merry Widow," then, is a very fine picture that should find a universal welcome. In theatres able to utilize the famous operatic music it should prove a pronounced hit; in the smaller houses it should be voted one of the best ever.

The Pathe News with pictures of the Lawyers Convention held in St. John, N. B., made up the balance of the picture program.

Credit is due the success of last nights presentation to Mr. B. Wagner and the Prince Edward. The Musical program added greatly to the presentation of the feature picture. "The Merry Widow" is one of the worth while pictures.

Meeting Of Presbytery Of P. E. Island

The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island in connection with the Presbyterian Church in Canada met in regular session on Tuesday, Nov. 16th in Zion Church Hall and was opened in due form by the Moderator, Rev. W. Bruce Muir. There were two sessions morning and afternoon. The following were present.

Rev. W. Bruce Muir, Moderator; Rev. R. H. Stavert, Clerk; Rev. D. McLean, Rev. M. Scott Fulton, Rev. Andrew Brown, Rev. F. G. McIntosh, Home Missionary Secretary for the Maritime Provinces, Rev. Fred Williamson, Rev. Thos. Rodger, Presbytery Church Evangelist, Toronto, ministers, and Messrs. Fred Clark, L. H. Foster, Angus McLean, Alex. McPherson, John A. McCallum, Alex. Campbell, A. W. Stewart, James Jardine, J. F. Profitt, J. L. Thompson, Murdock Ross, D. A. McKinnon, Robert McKay, Geddie Douglas, Chas. K. Martin, Dougald McPherson, Angus Green, Hugh Corbett, D. M. Bernard, Andrew McNeill, David Doherty, Cameron McLachlan, Gordon Douglas, J. Pigott, A. J. Rollings, George Jardine, J. Geddie Townsend, Robert Douglas, James Brodie. Elders and representatives.

The minutes of the last session were read by the clerk and approved of as read. Rev. F. G. McIntosh, Rev. F. Williamson and Rev. Thos. Rodgers were invited to sit and correspond.

Rev. Mr. Rodgers was asked to give a short address. He spoke of his work as an evangelist under the direction of the Presbyterian Church in Canada and the good success he had met with. Among other things he stated was during the past year the Presbyterian Church in Canada had received into full membership 30,000 new members.

One of the first items of business was the dealing with the correspondence along various lines addressed to the clerk.

The following overture and accompanying rider was moved by Rev. W. Bruce Muir and seconded by Rev. M. Scott Fulton and unanimously adopted by Presbytery.

Overture in regard to the printing of Confession of Faith was moved by the Rev. Bruce Muir and this motion was carried. The motion reads as follows: "Whereas, the General Assembly has at its meetings in Toronto, in 1925, and also at Montreal in 1926 reaffirmed its adherence to the Confession of Faith, and has enjoined the study and acceptance of it from our colleges, congregations and members of the church, and

WHEREAS, there is no edition of the Confession, as modified by the declaration acts of the Assemblies of 1875 and 1889, and

WHEREAS, editions of the Confession of any kind, are rare in Canada and difficult to secure, and

WHEREAS, also, wide circulation and study of the Confession must prove a valuable antidote and a strong corrective to modern theological error, so common today, and so menacing to true religion, and the enterprises of the church, both at home and abroad;

It is therefore humbly overtured by the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island, that the General Assembly indicted to meet in the city of Stratford, on the first Wednesday in June next, shall take steps to make available to the whole Church, a Canadian edition of the Confession of Faith, as accepted among us, in cheap and popular form with full annotations and explanations of all passages of difficult interpretation, appending also the scriptural proofs and declaritory acts that may have been passed touching the Confession by the Presbyterian Churches throughout the world.

And also that the General Assembly urge upon the Superintendents and teachers of the Sunday Schools the value of the Shorter Catechism as a means of educating their scholars in the fundamental doctrine of the Bible.

Rev. W. M. Morrison was appointed to Alberton for a period of six months. It is possible that before this time has elapsed that a call may be extended to Mr. Morrison.

A call from the pastoral charge of Kensington, Malpeque and Freetown to the Rev. Fred Williamson who has been supplying these pulpits of late is in progress and will at some time in the near future be ready for presentation.

Rev. R. H. Stavert, Clerk of Presbytery presented the Home Mission Report. He spoke of the splendid work done by the several students who had been employed within the bounds of the Presbytery and also of the large additions to the membership of the church throughout the different congregations on the Island. This report will be given in detail in the press at a later date.

Rev. W. Bruce Muir, Rev. R. H. Stavert and Rev. M. S. Fulton were appointed a committee to work out the Budget allowance for the various congregations.

Rev. R. H. Stavert, convener of the committee on Sabbath Schools and young people's work spoke to some length of the necessity of having not only a Sunday School but also a Young People's Society on somewhat the plan of the Christian Endeavor Society in every congregation. He told of what splendid work was being done by the young people of Belfast, Caledonia, Wood Islands and others.

The discussion on this subject was entered into heartily and was taken part in by Rev's F. G. McIntosh, M. S. Fulton, W. B. Muir, Thos. Rodgers, Chas. K. Martin, Mr. D. A. McKinnon, D. M. Bernard, and J. L. Thompson. After the discussion had been carried on for some time the following resolution was moved by Rev. R. H. Stavert and seconded by Rev. M. S. Fulton was unanimously adopted:

That the Presbytery of P. E. Island here assembled recognizing the almost inestimable value of work among the young people of our congregations resolved we as a Presbytery urge upon all of our ministers and elders the necessity of having not only a Sabbath School but a young people's society in the form of the Christian Endeavor Society in every congregation and also having young peoples' rallies whenever possible.

Preaching from Romans V:20 "But where sin abounded grace did much more abound". Rev T. A. Rodger delivered a powerful sermon in Zion Presbyterian Church last evening.

"Sin and grace are two great words of the Christian religion which lie at the very heart of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Wrong views of sin always issue in false interpretations of grace. The epistle to the Romans is the very core of the gospel because it deals so completely with these fundamental words sin and grace. The sin of Adam involved the whole race in ruin. The righteousness of Jesus Christ restores all men unto justification of life. Apart from any consent or effort all men are involved in the curse of the first and the atonement of the second. The disobedience of Adam spread sin over the whole race. The obedience of Jesus Christ gathered the sins of all unto Himself."

"Sin in its last analysis, said the evangelist, is lawlessness and the seat of sin is in the will. The grace of God is the overflowing mercy of God without regard to merit on the one hand or obligation of the other. The method of grace was peculiarly associated with the mediatorial work of Christ. The gospel is a message of full and free and universal pardon on no other conditions than such as are involved in its acceptance through Jesus Christ."

The services tonight and Friday night conclude the mission and that as far as possible all churches be asked to establish daily vacation Bible Schools during the summer holidays such as was conducted in Caledonia last summer.

Toronto, Oct. 1st, 1926

To Presbytery Clerks:—

At a meeting of the Commission of Assembly on the Reception of Ministers, I was requested to send down to Clerks of Presbyteries the following resolution:—

"It was moved, seconded and carried that a circular letter be sent to Clerks of Presbyteries instructing Interim Moderators of vacant charges that Ministers must be Ministers of the Presbyterian Church in Canada before the Interim Moderator proceed to moderate in a call to them to a vacant charge, unless they are ministers in charge of a corresponding church."

Yours sincerely,
ANDREW S. GRANT.

Mr. Robert McKay the Senior Elder of the Clifton section of the New London congregation was present and reported that in the near future a memorial tablet in honor of Rev. Alex. Stirling is to be unveiled in the Clifton Church.

A resolution was passed unanimously instructing the Moderator and clerk to extend the greetings of the Presbytery to the large New London congregation and urging upon all the members of Presbytery who can possibly attend to be present on that occasion. The Presbytery also instructed the moderator and clerk to send greetings to the congregations of Sydney and Stellarton on the occasion of the opening of their new churches in the near future. After considerable discussion over a number of other minor and routine matters the Presbytery adjourned to meet at the call of the moderator and clerk and was closed with the benediction by the moderator.
