Beavers Capitalize On Penalty To Win Game 4-2 And Oust Hull In Series

(By The Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, March 27—A third period penalty paved the way for the winning goal tonight as Saint John Beavers defeated Hull Volants 4-2 to win the Allan Cup elimination series three games to two and gain a berth in the Eastern Canada semi-final with Toronto Goodyears.

Saint John earned the decision by a two-goal margin but a penalty to Hull's half-pint defenceman, Gene Reinhardt, gave Beavers the break and Matt Kelly scored to break a 2-2 deadlock. Jimmy Russell made sure of the outcome when he notched a counter with 37 seconds to go in the third period.

While Beavers were outplayed through most of the game their smart goalie Bill Dickie was the stumbling block on which Hull's best efforts were smashed. Dickie handled 37 shots to 20 for Mel Becker of Hull.

Opens Scoring

Larry Larocque opened the scoring in the second minute of the game but Russell tied it up 14 minutes later with the help of Kelly. Albert Cholette, Hull's hero through the five games of the series, broke the deadlock 36 seconds from the end of the period in which Becker had an easy time with only six shots to handle, while Dickie stopped 15.

In a drab second period, compared to the opening frame when Hull attacked continuously, the goalies had practically no work as plays failed to click through the close checking of both teams.

Saint John came to life with the opening of the third period but it was Hull who came closest to scoring. After Becker made a good stop on Kelly's shot, Cholette broke away with Devine and Dickie pulled a magnificent save.

Baird Evens Score

"Boots" Baird drew Saint John even again at the five minute mark when he followed Russell inside the Hull blue line and shovelled the puck over Becker after the latter had stopped Russell's drive with his stomach and juggled the puck momentarily.

Eddie Price, speediest of the Beavers sent a scorching drive shoulder high at Becker's cage in the 14th minute of the game, and Kelly standing near the penalty shot line, touched the puck with his stick, deflecting it into the open corner of Hull's cage.

From the opening whistle and through the first period it seemed Hull would tear down the burly defence of Ham Riley and Charlie Phillips, so furious was their attack, but it was a break that started the first scoring opportunity.

Larocque backhanded the puck at the Saint John cage and the puck struck Kelly in the face. Cholette snared the rubber but fell as he neared the goal crease and Larocque just shot into an open corner with no effort.

Waved Off

Baird and Red Burke jostled each other and were waved off. Play bogged down while they were off but picked up momentum again as soon as they returned. With three minutes to go in the period, Kelly boarded Cholette for a minor penalty but Dickie had no work until the left winger and part-time defenceman returned. With 50 seconds to go Phillips went off for charging Howe and it took Cholette 12 seconds to put Hull ahead with a goal.

Reinhardt shot over Dickie's cage and the puck rebounded off the boards onto Cholette's stick at the edge of the crease. The right winger just slammed it into the twine.

The goalies had a layoff in the second period with Dickie handling six shots, and Becker seven. Most of Dickie's came when Russell spent two minutes on the penalty bench for tripping Devine just as Phillips returned after finishing his first period penalty.

Baird tripped Larocque with three minutes to go but there was no damage while he was off. The game was held up two minutes, however, as paper and peanuts came flying from the stands.

Becker was a little responsible for Baird's counter. He had plenty of time to clear the rubber but juggled it just long enough to permit Baird to grab it and lift it over him.

Kelly's counter, on the other hand, was a heartbreaker for the Hull goalie. Price's terrific drive was coming for his shoulder when Kelly tipped it into the lower corner of his cage for the series-winning marker as the ultimate score indicated.

Russell's second counter was the result of a minute-siege at the Hull goal mouth.

IN THIS CORNER

Perth Blue Wings today are in Montreal awaiting the opening game of their playdown series with Verdun Maple Leafs in the semi-finals for the Eastern Canadian title but it will be a long while before they will be able to forget the scare the brilliant Maritime champions threw into them in what was the most sensational series, junior or senior ever staged here.

* * * *

Royals are pretty nearly through for the season, pending outcome of negotiations in regards to a trip to Cape Breton, but the local youngsters can hang up their skates with the feeling that they are the greatest junior team ever to represent the Island.

* * * *

Only a heartbreaking bit of bad luck, happening with them just 42 seconds away from completing one of the most smashing comebacks ever attempted by a team, drove them to the sidelines but at the same time they showed conclusively before 3,000 madly excited fans that they were every bit as good as the Perth team.

* * * *

Blue Wings realized that too and they were a mighty happy bunch of boys when the game did end in the early hours of the morning. Wearing a smile a mile long Coach Chouinard, standing in the middle of his madly-whooping team, took time out to state that Royals were a wonderful hockey team and that he was glad the series was over. One could tell he meant every word of it and it was a deserved compliment to a bunch of youngsters that suffered one of the toughest breaks that has ever been witnessed by this writer.

* * * *

But it is all history now; it will be talked about for weeks to come, yes, but at the same time there is another season rolling around and if the team is to be held together it is up to all interested to see just what they can do for the boys in the way of employment.

* * * *

After all you can't expect them to stay around if more lucrative positions are offered elsewhere and already five of the boys have received offers that they may or may not accept. It all depends entirely on what will be in the offing here and it seems that the present time is opportune to see just what can be done.

* * * *

There is no need to single out any one of them for individual praise. They were all a bunch of stars with a brilliant goalie between the pipes in Johnny Davis; a starry defence duo of Willie McDonald and Leith Jay who played every minute of each game, and two lines of fast-skating forwards who never knew when they were beaten. It may be a long time before we see a series like it again and see a team give such an exhibition of hockey ability and gameness that the Royals dished out.

* * * *

But one player will be missing from the juniors when next year rolls along and he is John "Tarky" Whitlock, peerless little centre of the Royals first line. Saying goodbye to the junior ranks "Tarky" turned in his greatest performances in the series just concluded and was a standout every time out. Next year he will probably be bolstering a senior team's attack and efforts like will be done in the juniors' case should be made to keep "Tarky" in a local uniform.

* * * *

Before hanging up Royals may travel to Sydney to meet an all-star junior team from Cape Breton. The boys would like to make the trip and it is likely they will providing of course that suitable negotiations can be made. They would prove a big drawing card down in Cape Breton and would be certain of a swell reception.

* * * *

What is expected to be a bruising battle is scheduled for the Forum tonight when Milton Hornets, strong intermediate team tangle with a picked squad from Pownal and Alexandra in an exhibition encounter. The game will be exhibition in name only.

* * * *

Any occasion when two rural teams tangle they usually put on a bristling display as they endeavour to pull out with a victory. Tonight's game will be no exception. The Pownal-Alexandra forces will present a strong lineup for the encounter and the Milton squad, conquerors of Intermediate Abbies in the intermediate playdowns this season, will have to be at their best if they are to be returned the winners.

* * * *

A lot of interest will centre in Halifax xtonight where the Islanders, lady champions of the Island play a sudden death game with a Halifax tonight where the Islanders and the right to qualify for the Dominion finals.

* * * *

Islanders left yesterday with a strong lineup and are in top shape for the important game. Should they win they will bring the third title of the season to the Island and will also give fans an opportunity of witnessing a Dominion championship struggle on local ice as the winners of the Toronto vs. West series will meet the winners of the Maritime series on the latter team's home ice for the Canadian title.

* * * *

Providing the Island team wins the series here would be bound to go over in a big way and who knows but that the Forum may once more be filled to capacity before finis is written to a season that has been highly successful from an Island point of view.

* * * *

The Island speed-skating championships are still to be staged before the skating season ends. April 6th is the date and Manager Archer is at present busily engaged in lining up the meet and is confident that it will be up to the high standard of former years.

Lantz Scores Decision Win Over Hart

HALIFAX, March 27—Kid Lantz of Halifax, Maritime featherweight champion, tonight won a decision over Kid Hart of Moncton, N. B., in the six-round feature buot of a boxing show here. Hart weighed 127 pounds and Lantz 121 1-2 pounds.

Hart, who hasn't lost a fight in Halifax since he bowed to Dipper Lawson eight years ago, won only one round. Lantz beat him about the body and had him wobbly on two occasions.

There was only one knockdown. Hart tipped Lantz over with a long right in the third but Lantz bounced up without a count and kept boring in with both hands to win the round.

Lantz took the first round with a flurry of body punches but Hart came back in the second to even it up. Lantz forged ahead with body blows and an occasional shot at the jaw to take the fourth round also.

The Halifax boy had a good edge in the fifth. He staggered Hart early in the sixth but the veteran hung on and staged a short-lived rally.

All three judges voted for Lantz. The decision drew general approval.

Detroit And Toronto Will Clash Tonight

(By Jack Calder, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

TORONTO, March 27—Hot along hockey's comeback trail, Detroit Red Wings came to Toronto tonight to begin semi-finals for the Stanley Cup they won in 1936 and 1937.

Behind the Red Wings, as they waited the start of their best-of-three round with the Maple Leafs tomorrow, lay the fact that they scored only one goal on Toronto ice during the National League schedule. Before them was the happy realization they are just beginning to feel the full effects of the experience of Charlie Conacher and Tiny Thompson, plus the vigor of an eager crop of rookies.

The potential value of Conacher and Thompson was apparent early in the season after Detroit bought them. But their real power didn't start to exert itself until the preliminary round of the cup series against Montreal Canadiens. The Red Wings were beaten 2-0 in the first game at Montreal, but largely because of Conacher and Thompson they came back to take the second and third 7-3 and 1-0.

On the other side of the case is the Leafs' readiness for the round. The Toronto team is ready as it hasn't been since the start of the schedule, despite the fact Harvey Jackson's bad leg won't let him start against Detroit.

Pete Langelle has fitted into the Leaf machinery as a replacement for Jackson far better than Manager Conny Smythe could have hoped. The Winnipeg youngster from the Syracuse farm, working at centre-ice has given Smythe three strong scoring lines whereas he had expected to have two and a checking trio.

Toronto will be favored about 8 to 5 to step by Detroit into the finals with Boston or New York Rangers.

REMEMBER WHEN

(By The Canadian Press)

Tom Heeney, the "Hard Rock From Down Under" who five years previously had received $100,000 for fighting Gene Tunney, lost a ten-round decision to Stanley Poreda at New York five years ago tonight. Heeney, caught in the stock market crash of '29, got $200 for the Poreda fight.

CHALLENGE

I, Flash MacDonald, do hereby challenge Tom Claybourne to a ten round fight at any date and in any place suitable to him.

Simmerings Around The Sport Front

By ALAN RANDAL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, March 27—Such widely separated spots as London and Los Angeles would like New York Rangers to play exhibition hockey next month... So far the cash offered hasn't been enough to tempt Lester Patrick.... Neuritis is taking some of the joy out of the Stanley Cup playoffs for Manager Art Ross of Boston.

The hockey fever that took hold of Boston for the Bruins-Rangers series is really something.... One fan moved into Boston Garden for the first game last Thursday at 3 a.m. to get first crack at returned tickets.... President Wes Adams of the Bruins was so touched by the story that he ordered at least 2,000 reserved seats on public sale for all remaining games.

The stick that Mel Hill has been using to score his winning overtime goals is a frayed affair that has seen service for more than a month... It's so lucky he won't discard it.... Sitting on the bench Lester Patrick sometimes loses several pounds a game.... and Lew Burton, in his Journal-American column, adds: "On such occasions he generally loses the game, too."

Al McCoy, the Montreal and Boston heavyweight battler, has a standing offer of $10,000 for Tony Galento to meet him on a winner-take-all basis... Maxie Berger, Canadian lightweight champ from Montreal, returns to the ring wars tomorrow night with a return bout against Wes Ramey... A loss to Wes his last time knocked Berger loose from a chance at his first headline shot in Madison Square Garden.

Walter Young, Montreal cop and marathon runner, is training at Boston for a repeat of his 1937 victory in the Boston marathon... He covered 18 miles last Monday, 20 on Tuesday, 32 Thursday, 20 Friday and 30 Saturday... he rested Wednesday.

A couple of cops flagged Barney Ross down as he drove along a New Jersey highway the other day .... Nervously the former welterweight ruler waited their approach ... and here's what they said: "O. K. You can go on. We were just betting whether you were Barney Ross or Tony Canzoneri."

'Sudden Death' Encounter For Maritime Title

The "Islanders" Island lady champions left yesterday for Halifax where they will meet a team from the Garrison City tonight in a sudden death game for the Maritime hockey championship.

The Islanders are considered to be a very strong team, and news of their game against the Nova Scotia club is awaited here.

Those making the trip included: Goal, Mrs. Myrtle McDonald; defence, Dorothy Lund, Mrs. Mary Brennan, Mrs. C. Montgomery; forwards; Vimy Jones, "Googs" McInnis, Jennie Cudmore, Margaret Gallant, Annie Hennigar, I. Wood and Margaret Aylward.

Goalie Brimsek Is First Rookie In History To Make All Star Team

(By The Canadian Press)

TORONTO, March 27—The pick of Boston's brickwall defence and a Toronto-Montreal forward line head the 9th annual All-Star teams of the National Hockey League, announced today by The Canadian Press. The selection was made by 34 hockey writers in N. H. L. cities.

The verdict was near-unanimous for the first-team forward line of Sylvanus Apps and Gordon Drillon of the Toronto Maple Leafs and Hector (Toe) Blake of Montreal Canadiens. Eddie Shore, driving force of the Bruins, led two of his mates to back-division posts.

Here are the C. P. teams:

First Team
Goal—Brimsek, Boston.
Defence—Shore, Boston.
Clapper, Boston.
Centre—Apps, Toronto.
Right Wing—Drillon, Toronto.
Coach—Ross, Boston.

Alternate Team
Goal—Robertson, Americans.
Defence—Seibert, Chicago.
Coulter, Rangers.
Centre—N. Colville, Rangers.
Right Wing—Bauer, Boston.
Coach—Dutton, Americans.

The writers had only one difficulty in deciding on the first team and Aubrey (Dit) Clapper, a reformed wingman and one-time ace of Boston's famed "Dynamite Trio" got the call in this case over Art Coulter of New York Rangers.

Brimsek A Standout

Frankie Brimsek, sensational Minnesota youngster who made his N.H.L. debut this season, became the first rookie in the history of these all-star selections to win a first-team berth. He started the campaign in the Boston nets because of an injury to Tiny Thompson, but might not have got back in if Thompson hadn't been sold to Detroit.

Naming of Apps, Drillon and Blake put together three high-scoring stars every fan around the league would like to see together. Apps' heady pivot play and stick-handling, Drillon's opportunism and Blake's all-around aggressiveness would make a sparkling combination. The Montreal speedster led the N.H.L. scoring this season and Drillon did it last time.

Shore made the first team for the seventh time. He has missed only twice—in 1934 when he was on the alternate lineup, and in '37 when injuries kept him inactive much of the time.

Shore and Clapper don't work together on the defence as a rule, but the selectors named them as kingpins of the Boston rearguard combinations. Seven put Clapper at left defence on the first team and three at right defence. Six picked Coulter for the left defence spot on the first team and two for the other.

Only Two Return

Shore and Drillon are the only members of the 1937-38 first team to be returned, and Drillon was tied with Cecil Dillon of the Rangers last year. Dillon, in a bad slump, was scarcely considered while Brimsek stepped into Thompson's all-star shoes as well as his Boston position. Apps replaced Bill Cowley of Boston and Blake got the place of Paul Thompson of Chicago.

Blake and Apps were chosen for the alternate six in 1938. Moving up this time, they knocked Cowley and Thompson right out of the writers' serious consideration.

This is the first time Lester Patrick has missed a coaching spot on either team and the second time he hasn't made the first team. In 1937 Jack Adams of Detroit's world champions was given first call and Patrick put on the alternate list for the first time.

Ross was made alternate coach last year, the first time he had gained the honor, and Dutton never has been chosen for either post before.

Of the alternatives, Earl Robertson, Neil Colville and Bobby Bauer never have been chosen before.

Apps, a ranking contender for the Dr. David Hart Trophy as most valuable player in the league, actually drew the most first-team votes, 28. Right behind, however, were Drillon and Blake with 27 and Shore with 26. Brimsek got 15, and Robertson and Thompson 7. Robertson got six second-time votes to five for Thompson.

Sports Forum

Sir,—Saturday night's hockey match was not merely an exciting game; it was an object-lesson to all of us. The game was truly an exhibition conducive to humility on the part of the spectators. These few words are but a weak, though sincere, tribute to the spirit which the players showed. The contest impressed me as one of the most magnificent demonstrations of courage and "heart" I have ever seen. While both sides gave their all and equally displayed that "never-say-die", heroic spirit, our boys, I hold, were even more glorious in defeat than their opponents in victory. All local boys, lighter than the visitors, less experienced, they knew not the meaning of "quit" and were steadfast to the end.

"What is wrong with the young generation of today?" After Saturday night's game we can only say, "Nothing!". If there is anything wrong with our Island people, we shall have to look elsewhere to find it than among our young men. Let our crazy world, haunted by the spectre of unemployment, give the young men a chance and they will prove their worth.

"What of the faith and fire within us,
Men who marched away?".

That was the tragedy of the last war—that it "blew out the light"—for millions of just such splendid boys as those young men of ours. Let us pray, with an agonized prayer, that the black clouds of world carnage threatening us today may be dispelled, and that our boys will not need to answer the old call to play the grimmer game. But should the "far bugles" call, should the dreaded day come, (But it can't, it mustn't!), our boys will not fail us; that we see clearly. They will as cheerfully give their lives in the defence of freedom as did "our boys" in the last war. Somehow I had never thought of it in just that way before, but after Saturday night it came home to me very forcibly that the brave spirit of youth is eternal and indestructible from generation to generation. "To the end, to the end, they remain."

The only foe of individual youth is age, age with its winter of discontent. As I watched those young Canadian boys of ours in that now historic hockey struggle, I think I prayed that the winter of their spring should not be one of disillusionment, selfishness or misanthropy, but that they might, in the longer game of life, continue to play the man as well and as bravely even to the end.

I am, Sir, etc

Boston Bruins Top Favorites Over Rangers

NEW YORK, March 27—(CP)—Boston Bruins, who finished off their regular National Hockey League schedule with eight straight victories and then won their first three Stanley cup playoff games, will be strong favorites to take their fourth tomorrow night at Madison Square Garden, when they tangle with New York Rangers again.

The game represents the Rangers' last hope for playoff survival. It's a slim one at best. If they win, they still will have to take the next three games in order to win the best-of-seven series. If they lose, they are out of the competition and the Boston club goes into the final round.

Even Manager Lester Patrick appeared to be about ready to give up today. "We seem to be up against a stone wall," he said.

So far his blueshirts have shown little to make either him or the most optimistic New York rooter hopeful. They managed to carry the first two games into over-time but last night were beaten soundly 4-1, and saved from an even worse shellacking only by the brilliant goal-tending of Bert Gardiner.

The sub goalie will be in there again tomorrow night. The regular incumbent, Dave Kerr, still hasn't recovered from a shoulder injury, and Patrick admitted there was no more than one chance in 50 that he'd be able to don the pads.

Cy Wentworth Will Retire

MONTREAL, March 27—Marvin (Cy) Wentworth, veteran defenceman with Montreal Canadiens, announced his retirement from hockey tonight as the team returned from Detroit after being knocked out of the Stanley Cup playoffs by the Red Wings.

Big Cy, a National Hockey Leaguer for 13 years, said that from now on he would attend strictly to his business in Toronto, where he is employed by an Ontario beer firm. He had intended retiring last year after the break-up of Montreal Maroons, for whom he played, but went with Canadiens because he thought they had a good chance for the cup.
