The St. Louis Safely Docked in New York.

PASSENGERS COMPLAIN

And Publish Resolutions Condemning the American Line—The New Shamrock's Progress.

THE ST. LOUIS ARRIVES IN PORT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—(Special).—The over-due steamer St. Louis docked here about noon to-day.

SAILED WITH LEAKING BOILERS.

The passengers make public a series of resolutions they passed condemning the American Line for sending the ship to sea with her boilers in a leaking condition.

BELIEVED THE OWNERS KNEW.

They demanded that the captain go to Halifax, or put them on a passing steamer.

No break occurred on the St. Louis, but the machinery worked badly during the whole passage and the claim is that the owners knew the condition of the machinery before sending the ship to sea.

PROGRESS OF NEW SHAMROCK.

DUMBERTON, Jan. 17.—(Special).—Shamrock III is now completely framed and more than half plated.

Lipton has arrived to inspect the cup challenger and to complete arrangements for launching.

The value of Kendrick's Liniment for Pains and Lameness in the Back, Shoulders and Side or for Sore Throat and Lungs, cannot be overestimated.

Kendrick's Liniment relieves promptly. It is a valued remedy to keep in the house at all times. Buy a bottle to-day, you will never regret using Kendrick's Liniment.

SURVIVOR OF THE OLD SCHOOL.

Pen Picture Of Sir Richard Cartwright.

IS ALWAYS A FIGHTER.

One of Canada's foremost Statesmen as Political Gladiator and Genial man of the World.

A MIND ABOVE THE ILLS OF THE FLESH.

Nobody can kill Sir Richard. When he dies he will give up the ghost because he has no further use for it. Nobody would dare to take it from him without his consent. Some years ago a storm upset his yacht, and held him under the St. Lawrence for two hours. All it did was to give him a touch of rheumatism which might naturally afflict an old gentleman almost seventy years of age. Some authorities call it gout. Whatever it is, there is reason to believe that Sir Richard suspects a Tory gale of having tumbled him into the water. The twinges add sharpness to his rhetoric and make his enemies duck for cover. If it was a conspiracy, nobody is any further ahead for having tried to drown Sir Richard. He laughs his pangs to scorn, and just heres a story. One morning Sir Richard, with the help of his trusty cane, was toiling painfully up the steps of the Eastern Block. Every movement meant a trob, but he wavered aside the assistance of his coachman. Often before he had climbed higher and harder. Behind him was the correspondent of a Montreal newspaper, an Englishman, who had too much respect for position and power to get ahead of a Grand Commander of St. Michael and St. George, who also happened to be a Cabinet Minister and a Privy Councillor of His Majesty. At every step Sir Richard stopped for breath. At every step he looked prayerfully at the coat-of-arms over the door, and held a short, intense commination service. At last, when he was at the top and the way straight before him, the newspaper man accosted him:

"Good morning Sir Richard, I'm glad to see you looking so well."

"Good morning Jones," replied Sir Richard, with all the composure of a laird sunset behind the Laurentians.

"It must surprise you, as it does me, the patience with which I bear these infernal ailments."

AN ORATORICAL STRONG MAN.

This is said to be the age of committees—meaning that oratory is dead and that nothing survives but a sort of undress, off-hand, business chatter. Well, the saying does not hold as long as we have Sir Wilfrid and Sir Richard in the House of Commons. These men are orators. Their speeches show it. They have

THE AGE OF BRAIN WORK

"In these days, half our diseases come from the neglect of the body in the overwork of the brain. In this railway age the wear and tear of labor and late bed go on without pause or felt pity. We live longer than our forefathers but we suffer more. They fatigued only the muscles, we exhaust the finer strength of the nerves. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is the greatest medicine of this age because it is best suited to the needs of the present day. It restores and revitalizes wasted nerve cells and makes the pale, weak, and exhausted strong and healthy and vigorous."

SESSION MAY LAST TILL MIDSUMMER

Parliament to Meet About March 12

SHIP LOST PROPELLER

Crew Rescued in Mid-Ocean—New Submarine Boat Invented by a Youth of 22

SPRING AND SUMMER SESSION.

OTTAWA, Jan. 17.—(Special).—It is believed that Parliament will be called on March 12 and that the session will last the best part of the summer.

RESCUED IN MID-OCEAN.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—(Special).—The steamship Pennsylvania brought thirteen seamen taken off the disabled Norwegian steamer Siggens in mid-ocean.

STEAMER LOST HER PROPELLER.

The Siggens was bound from Sydney for New Haven with steel billets.

She lost her propeller and became unmanageable.

VAIN CALLS FOR HELP.

Five steamers were sighted and signalled without reply.

The Siggens' seacocks were opened and she probably sank.

BEST SUBMARINE BOAT.

WINSTED, Conn., Jan. 17.—(Special).—B. Gillett, aged 22, has been granted a patent for improvements in submarine boats, which he claims makes them quicker, easier and safer than any other.

WHAT THIS BOAT CAN DO.

The Gillett boat will stay down fifteen hours and longer and will fire Whitehead torpedoes without coming to the surface.

Little use for small talk or parliamentary retort. They wait patiently for great occasions. They speak when the infrequent spirit moves them. Sir Wilfrid is graceful, French, sentimental. He is put forward to charm, to allure, to cajole, to persuade. Sir Richard is Saxon, strong and savage. He is put forward to toss cabars and hurl mighty rocks. When he stands up, creaking a little at first, and wagging his head, you may bet that destruction is afoot. The ultimatums are all over. We come to close grips.

THE MILDTEST MANNERED MAN.

In private life, Sir Richard is a kindly, cultivated, courteous old gentleman. This Attilla of debate, 'his Era Diavolo of the Green Chamber, this fierce duke who will use a banquet to pondar an enemy, has all the domestic and hospitable virtues. He will cut as many throats in Parliament as the Mad Mullah. He will scuttle the ship of State if the other fellows are steering. But he is the mildest mannered man in the world when there isn't anything to prick him. Of course he will die fighting, like that other Sir Richard who captained the Revenge. Sir Richard has his own revenge to plot. He is a true friend. He has spoken many daggers, but he uses none.—H. F. G., in the Toronto Star.

ANNUAL FORESTER BANQUET

Of Court Nonpareil at New Glasgow Thursday

OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

Eloquent Speeches Delivered and a Pleasant Evening Spent by all Present.

The annual banquet given by the Foresters of Court Nonpareil at New Glasgow on Thursday night 15th was an event of more than ordinary note.

After the ceremony of installation of officers for the year by L. U. Fowler, H. S., over 100 Foresters and invited guests repaired to the dining hall where under the Foresteric decorated room gleamed crystal in magnificent array and intermingled the necessities to satisfy the most fastidious.

At the head of the hall hung a majestic Union Jack and nicely worked were the letters L. O. F. To the left hung the beautiful charter of the Court and to the lower right hung an elaborate picture of Supreme Chief, Dr. Oronhyateka. After ample justice had been done at the table the following toasts were drunk in pure cold water:

The King.—The National Anthem.

Dr. Oronhyateka.—He's a Jolly Good Fellow.

Song.—Bro. R. W. Stevenson.

Forestry.—Responded to by Bro. L. U. Fowler.

Reading.—Miss Letourgey.

Canada.—Bro. D. C. Lawlor.

Professions.—Bro. W. Simpson, Bro. Dr. Douglas.

Reading.—Miss May Macleod.

Island Industries.—C. A. Stevenson.

William Moffat.

Quartette.—R. W. Stevenson, Laura Houston, Miss Reed, Mrs. W. W. Smith.

Sister Societies.—Bro. Morley Seller, L. Clark, William Laird.

Recitation.—Bro. C. E. Mackenzie.

Ladies.—R. E. Bagnall and others.

Solo.—E. E. Mackay.

Court Nonpareil.—Bro. George Houston D. H. C. R.

Every address and number was fittingly neat and appropriate.

We must particularize the reading by Miss Letourgey whose inimitable style and diction is a drawing card wherever her services are secured.

We could but note the pleasure stamped on all countenances during the evening and as all rose to sing God Save the King. They dispersed feeling repaid amply for their attendance.—Com.

A SURE CURE FOR CONSTIPATION.

Some remedies cure this distressing complaint in a day, some in a month, but Nerviline never fails to cure in a few minutes. Just ten drops of Nerviline in sweetened water—thats enough, and away goes the dysentery, cured to stay cured. Nerviline also cures cramps, colic, pain in the stomach, and sick headache. It has five times the strength and curative properties of ordinary remedies, and should be in every household. Better buy a 25c. bottle and try it. Nerviline is all right.
