Old Dutch Cleanser Looks Like This under the microscope. The flaky, flat-shaped particles do not scratch.

STARTLING

"My! What a difference there is in cleansers! Now I can see why Old Dutch goes further and costs less to use."

"You're quite right. It is startling, isn't it, how different Old Dutch Cleanser is. As you see, its particles are flaky and flat-shaped. Because of that, they cover more surface and remove dirt quickly, easily and without scratching. Gritty particles, on the other hand, are irregular chunky shapes and merely scratch the surface with their hard, sharp points."

Get your money's worth. Use Old Dutch Cleanser. Ounce for ounce, it does more square yards of cleaning than anything else. In addition, it protects beautiful surfaces because it doesn't scratch; is kind to the hands; doesn't clog drains; is odorless and removes odors. Old Dutch is unsurpassed for all cleaning from porcelain and enamel to kitchen utensils, floors and woodwork. It's the only cleanser you need in your home.

—BEDEQUE NEWS—King Edward L. O. L. held their annual banquet in their lodge room on Monday evening, Dec. 6th, and it was largely attended by the members with their ladies. The spacious lodge room which has been recently painted, with many new decorations on the Arch and Altar, one being a hand-painted portrait of King William on horseback, made a splendid background around the well filled tables of delicacies. Rev. L. P. Archibald the Worshipful Master elect for the incoming year, ably acted as toast master as the following toasts were proposed and responded to: The King, responded to by the National Anthem; the Royal Orange Association, responded to by R. A. Profit; the Church, responded to by T. J. Inman; Our Province, responded to by Rev. L. P. Archibald; King Edward L. O. L., responded to by D. M. Bernard; King Hiram Royal Black Perceptor, proposed by John L. Tucker and responded to by T. J. Inman; the Ladies, proposed by R. A. Profit, responded to by Rev. L. P. Archibald.

—ALL STAR KENSINGTON CONCERT—A well filled house greeted the performers at a classy variety concert held in King George Hall, Kensington, on Thursday night. The coterie of singers and comedians included some of the best that Prince Edward Island now holds. The rendition of the old favorites, "My Ain Countree" and "The Auld Plaid Shawl" by Rev. Bernard Gillis of Charlottetown was exceptionally pleasing. The fine tenor and baritone solos of James A. McInnis of Summerside and A. R. McInnis, Mgr. of the Prudential Life Assurance Co., of Charlottetown, were vociferously applauded. Mr. Austin Trainor and daughter, Miss Mary, of Charlottetown in musical comedy sketches kept the audience in roars of laughter. Mr. Trainor has lost none of his former power to please and amuse the most fastidious audience. Miss Mary has beautifully clear enunciation and articulation, gestures and general stage "savoir faire." Apparently she has all the attributes of a star musical comedy actress. It is quite within the range of possibilities that she could make the grade at Hollywood where so many thousands of aspiring thespians are destined to eat worm-wood. The blackface comedy act by Earl Campbell and Guy Houghton of Summerside, was well staged. They touched up some of the Idiosyncrasies of several local citizens to the intense amusement of all. The solos by Mr. Guy Houghton were clearly and beautifully rendered. The accompaniments played by Rev. Theodore Gallant of Fifteen Point were "Par excellence." A vote of thanks to the entertainers was moved by James Pendergast and seconded by James L. Saunders and heartily endorsed by the audience. The rendering of the vote of thanks was responded to by Mr. Austin Trainor, who is a Dr. Jeck and Mr. Hyde in the "realm of make believe"—shifting in a breath from the lightest comedy to the most serious and sentimental problems of the day.—K.
