SCENE FROM VITAGRAPH'S 'THE COURAGE OF MARGE O'DOONE' BY JAMES OLIVER CURWOOD A VITAGRAPH SPECIAL PRODUCTION.

Baree was an outlaw dog in James Oliver Curwood's 'The Courage of Marge O'Doone.' He showed an unusual intelligence, performed many marvelous feats. In filming the story it was necessary to get a dog that could duplicate the acts of Baree and thrill the spectators of a motion picture theater. David Smith, who directed the production, found a dog that would answer every description of Baree and soon the dog and Niles Welch, who plays the male lead in the feature, were great friends.

Fire Last Night: A Man Burned

The fire bell sounded at 10:45 last night for a fire at the Railway Wharf on the schooner, Fred A. Higgins. The firemen made a quick response. The fire was in the hold of the vessel and considerable difficulty was experienced in getting it. A young man, Edwin Gallant, belonging to Summerside and who joined chiefly about the arms and ammunitions, was on the schooner. He was alone on the schooner, and went below with a lighted lantern to ascertain if the vessel was taking in any water. It appears that there was a leak of gasoline from the tank and the flames immediately went into a blaze. The young man, who had his sleeves rolled up above the elbows, had both arms badly burned, as well as his face. He managed to get out and yet to the captain of the schooner, and along side of the alarm. Gallant was taken to the P.E. Island Hospital, where he is now under treatment. The skipper of the Higgins, Captain Joseph Trenholm is in Summerside.

British Press Favors Russian Note

(Special to The Guardian.) LONDON, Aug. 26.—London newspapers are commenting on the decisions reached in Lucerne by Premier Lloyd-George and Giolitti and resulting in the British note to the Russian Soviet Government strongly commending the position taken by the two statesmen. The British and Italian Premiers, says the Chronicle, are very anxious to come to an agreement with Russia but no agreement is possible unless the Russian government removes the presumption that it will not keep such agreement in good faith. The Daily Herald, Labor organ, attacks Premier Lloyd-George, expressing the view that the victory of the Poles revived the hopes of the French and British capitalists' governments, that they may be able to overthrow the Russian Soviet republic.
