Be Your Age as You Grow Older Dorothy Dix Flapper Grandmas Are Only Spectacles When Elder Women Realize That They Are More Desirable "as is" Than They Are When All Painted Up, They Will be Much Happier

One of the most common and tragic spectacles of this modern world is the woman who refuses to be her age. Everywhere we go we see the flapper grandma trying to look as if she were 17 instead of 70. When we see her painted face, dyed hair, delectable clothes, and hear her simpering, smirking and teasing herself about her boy friends, we don't know whether to laugh at her or cry over her. She is such a figure of fun and so pitiable.

Beans Are Home Garden Food Crop THEY FIELDS AMAZING AMOUNT OF DELICIOUS EDIBLES FOR TABLE ON SMALL SPACE.

For the space occupied, beans give more food than any other crop home gardeners can grow. In planning the small vegetable plot, it will pay to give them twice the space of any other crop.

For the home garden the "string" bean is obsolete. Only a "stringless" bush variety should be grown. These are now available in four types: Round and flat green pods; round flat wax pods.

POLE BEANS give a heavier yield in some localities, but round pods are preferred by many good cooks, though not for any reason they can put in words.

When windows stick in winter weather that alternately freezes and thaws, a little salt sprinkled on the window sill will do much to relieve this inconvenience.

Any Amateur Can Grow An Abundant Crop of Beans Like This The long pods before they have gone too far. All beans are tender and should never be sown until the ground is warm and frosts have ended.
