The Canadian Order of Foresters.

This purely Canadian fraternal benevolent society was organized in 1879, and now has a membership of upwards of 33,000, distributed in every province of the Dominion.

The society gives insurance to its members in policies of $500, $1000, $1500 or $2000, the latter sum being the limit on any life. The premiums, payable monthly in advance, are as follows:

Between the Ages of

On $500 $1000 $1500 $2000

18 to 25 . . . . . 35c 60c 90c $1 20

25 to 30 . . . . . 40c 65c 98c 1.30

30 to 35 . . . . . 45c 70c $1.05 1.40

35 to 40 . . . . . 50c 85c 1.28 1.70

40 to 45 . . . . . 55c $1.00 1.50 2.00

After paying upwards of one million and a half dollars in death claims, the order had a surplus in the insurance department of $823,000 at the end of November last, all of which is invested in gold-edged securities in Canada, or is on deposit in the best monetary institutions of the country. Not a dollar of the money collected for the insurance fund is or has been used for the expenses of management. The death rate per 1000 of membership in 1898 was 4.56, and since the organization of the society in 1879, the average death rate has been only 4.94.

The Sick and Funeral Benefit Branch is a very popular department, and upwards of 16,000 of the members of the society are participating in this feature of the order. The benefits are $5 per week for the first two weeks of illness, and $5 per week for the following ten weeks, and $56 during any one year, besides a funeral benefit of $30. The fees, payable monthly in advance, are as follows:

Between 18 and 25 years . . . . . 25 cents

.. 25 and 30 years . . . . . 30 cents

.. 30 and 35 years . . . . . 35 cents

.. 35 and 40 years . . . . . 40 cents

.. 40 and 45 years . . . . . 45 cents

During the year 1898 over $43,000 was paid out in sick and funeral benefits, and $143,000 in death benefits. All physically and morally qualified males between the ages of 18 and 45 years, who are not disqualified on account of occupation, are accepted for membership.

For further particulars enquire of any of the officers or members of the order, or address:

It behoves all careful buyers of whitewear and household goods to compare quality as well as price. An article may be low in price, yet worthless. Quality tells every time. To be absolutely safe compare! If you buy a worthless article, at no matter how low a price, you lose your dollars. Stanley Bros. 32i.
