

THE TORTURES OF RHEUMATISM

Happily Stopped When He Began To Take "Fruit-a-lives"

8 OTTAWA ST., HULL, P. Q.

"For a year, I suffered with Rheumatism, being forced to stay in bed for five months. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief and thought I would never be able to walk again. One day while lying in bed, I read about "Fruit-a-lives" the great fruit medicine; and it seemed just what I needed, so I decided to try it.

The first box helped me, and I took the tablets regularly until every trace of the Rheumatism left me."

CHRISTMAS TREE

On the evening of December 25th a Christmas tree was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Livingstone where a large crowd gathered to spend the evening with those who are soon to leave us to make their home in the near future in New Glasgow, N. S. The opening piece for the evening was the Lost Battalion which was beautifully played by Mrs. Horace Reynolds. A few remarks were then passed by the crowd. Miss Myra Livingstone, when you come to the end of a Perfect Day: Violin selections by Mr. Horace Reynolds accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Horace Reynolds. "Yes" was then served in Mrs. Samuel Livingstone's most tasteful manner, assisted by Mrs. John Livingstone. A merry making crowd sat down to all the goodie, and did heartily partake of them. After tea was served all repaired to the parlor where the Christmas tree was a delight to those who surrounded it. Singing by Mrs. Horace Reynolds. Over the sill of the old front door: Violin Selections by Miss Myra Livingstone and Mrs. Horace Reynolds. Candy was then served and a few jokes here and there was heard. Before Santa arrived Miss Myra Livingstone took her place at the organ and Mrs. Horace Reynolds, Mr. John Livingstone, Mr. Joseph Livingstone sang some good old pieces. Santa Claus arrived as usual feeling pretty cold passed a few fitting remarks and then proceeded in distributing the presents when all got a good share of good and costly presents. As the small wee hours approached the crowd wishing Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Livingstone a Merry Christmas and a happy New Year; also Mr. and Mrs. Horace Reynolds who are soon to leave us. Wishing one and all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year brought the evening to a close.

The first army medal was struck by Cromwell, to commemorate the battle of Dunbar. The second one issued was that for Waterloo, although in order of service the Peninsular medal should occupy this place.

THE VICTIM.

By Walt Mason.

All the world is shot to pieces, men are roaring days and nights, for a lot of booms and bulwarks, and some fifty kinds of rights; capital is sweating labor, labor's roundly hitting back, and our mills are standing idle, and our trains have jumped the track. All the struggling, fighting forces seem to glory in the wreck, while the Ultimate Consumer gets the cleaver in the neck. Oh, the Ultimate Consumer in the scrap has little to be happy just to labor in the office or the mart; and to feed his wife and kiddies, and to buy the rags they need, and provide against the future when he's old and gone to seed; but alas, the bricks are flying, and the scrap-ers are on deck, and the Ultimate Consumer gets the dorchieks in the neck. And the Ultimate Consumer has a sad and woeiful lot, for he's always bound to suffer, whether others do or not; others do the frantic talking of their grievances and ills, while the Ultimate Consumer goes ahead and pays the bills; he's the time sound and fury and the madness knows no check, and the Ultimate Consumer gets the hatchet in the neck.

SEVEN POINTS FOR SOIL FERTILITY.

The question of gaining and maintaining fertility may be summarized in the following instructions:

- 1st—Give the soil thorough drainage.
- 2nd—See that the soil has sufficient vegetable matter or humus in it.
- 3rd—Correct the sourness of the soil by drainage, and by applying lime.
- 4th—Give the soil proper preparation by deep plowing and surface tillage.
- 5th—Cultivate the soil sufficiently to keep down the weeds and to prevent evaporation of soil moisture.
- 6th—Apply plant food in the shape of barn manure and fertilizers.
- 7th—See that the fertilizers contain the three important food elements in an available form in proper quantity for the best development of the crop.

SEND UP FOUR DOZEN

She was very important and very stout. Her jewelry was very plentiful, and, although it was a hot day, she wore her newest sables. She was choosing the most ornate tea and dinner services the big store had to offer, for she had made up her mind to figure as a society hostess. Therefore she was ordering everything: the dozen—plates, dishes, spoons, forks, and so forth—and suddenly she caught sight of a pair of sugar tongs. "What are those things?" she asked.

SPRUCE BOARDS.

"Yes," remarked a man, "spruce boards will be $5.00 a hundred in five years from this." Thrice years ago they sold at a dollar. Now they are three dollars. The same man predicts we will all be burning coal at $15 a ton, in the next decade.

VICKERSON-NELSON.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vickerson, Montague, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, Dec. 17th, when their son Hector C. was united in marriage with Mrs. Pearl Nelson of the same place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Douglas MacKenzie pastor of St. Andrew's Church in the presence of a large number of immediate relatives. The bride looked charming in a gown of taupe satin and was given away by her father Mr. Edwin H. Clay of Bridgetown, P. E. I.

Mrs. Ellis played the wedding march. The groom's gift to the bride was a pendant set with diamonds and pearls while the gifts from a large circle of friends were numerous and costly.

Owing to business interests of the groom the wedding trip had to be postponed. The happy young couple motored home amid the hearty good wishes of a large circle of friends.

WINTER CARE AND REPAIR OF FARM MACHINERY.

(Experimental Farms Note.)
"Let him use more machinery then," is the stock phrase and cure all prescribed by the "knowitall" of the farmer's labour problem. This is just what he has been doing for a generation of over since city wages were distinctly higher than those upon the farm. Today machinery has doubled in cost because it does not grow upon the land by the free agency of sunlight like crops but is made in cities and by labour that exacts far more than the farmer's wages. Thus there is a limit to the machinery the farmer can afford to buy and to the extent to which he can substitute machinery for expensive labour. In other words machinery is now expensive labour.

Greetings

er words machinery is now expensive labour.

Farmers, herefore are going to house their machinery in some way since the price is still soaring and since the life of an implement well cared for is prolonged four to five times the life of machinery which is left in the open. An energetic farmer will not allow his horse or cow to stand out in the rain or snow. He will rush to get his crop into the ground on time and in the best possible condition and he will gather his harvest promptly and carefully so that there is the least possible loss. Many of us will do all these things and still allow a part of the toll earned revenue to be swallowed up in the purchase of sky soaring priced machinery or in expensive repairs.

See to it that each implement wears out and does not rust out. Every one knows that it should be housed but housing under any condition and not properly caring for it otherwise, constitute very poor care. Machinery may just as cared for if it is allowed to stand in the shade of a tree as if it were in a shed. The leaky sheds, open sheds, poorly drained sheds or combined implement and hen roost which are found.

DO NOT MERELY GO THROUGH THE MOTION BUT SHELTER CONSIDERATELY and before doing so, first list the repairs needed for next season and secure them along with an assortment of bolts, rivets, springs, etc., in time to have each implement repaired and ready for use on time. An implement in repair at all times will have a longer life and will give more satisfactory service during its life than one receiving irregular attention. Secondly clean and oil each machine and give all polished surfaces an application of some anti-rust preparation. Axle grease or other lubricant will answer the purpose as it is much as possible about the fundamentals of tractor operation. Read carefully the instruction book; newspapers, books and magazine articles also furnish a wealth of information. If possible attend one of the tractor schools which will be conducted during the winter. Leave nothing undone that will fit you to become a more proficient tractor operator.

A properly fitted work shop is a necessity on most farms. It provides a means of acquiring the "knack" in doing repair work. Again at critical times, such as harvesting or seeding seasons, one long trip to town for repairs may cause a loss more than equal to the value of a well equipped shop.

Paint although last mentioned is by no means the least important factor in prolonging the usefulness of an implement. Painted machinery on the farm is an exception rather than a general rule. The chief utility of paint is in protecting materials rather than improving appearance. Paint of good quality only should be used and the surface to be painted should be dry and clean before the paint is applied.
