IN MEMORIAM

REGINALD S. CAMERON

It is with deep regret the people of Kensington and surrounding districts learned of the sudden passing of Reginald Seymour Cameron at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cameron, Kensington, in the early hours of Thursday morning, January 7th. The deceased had been in failing health for only one week, and the end was not realized until a few hours prior to his passing. His genial disposition, ready wit and kindness won a host of friends during his short visit on earth of only 14 years. All that medical aid could do was performed for the young lad, but death came very rapidly. There are left to mourn besides his parents, three brothers, Gustie, William and Holms, all at home, also four sisters, namely, Vera and Violet at home, Mrs. Percy Hately, Bedeque and Mrs. Bert J. Trowsdale, Westmoreland, P. E. I. The funeral which was largely attended on Saturday from his late home.—The services being conducted by Rev. W. S. Loring assisted by Rev. G. N. Somers and Rev. Mr. Rhodes. The pall bearers were six schoolmates, namely, Earl Braham, Everett Hughes, Scott Moase, Miller Waite, Eddie MacDonald, and Frank Brown. Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved.

New curtains should be steeped overnight in water in which a packet of salt has been dissolved. The salt removes all lime from the curtain and makes it easy to get clean.

IN MEMORIAM

There passed away at his home, Souris East, Patrick D. MacDonald at the advanced age of ninety-four (94). Mr. MacDonald was a man of splendid character and deservedly enjoyed the respect and esteem of a large circle of friends. He was born in Souris East and lived all his life there. He married Rose Ann Tierney of Souris, who predeceased him 23 years ago. He leaves to mourn the following sons and daughters: Annie, (Mrs. Garret), Brighton, Mass., Annabell, (Mrs. Lynsky), Dorchester, Mass., Effie, (Mrs. Diggins), Brockton, Mass., Katie, (Mrs. Aeneas MacDonald), Chepstow, Margaret, (Mrs. Pearson), Dorchester, Mass., who was home when he passed away; Joseph of New York, and John James on the homestead, and one daughter Florence, who passed away a year ago. His remains were laid to rest in St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery, High Mass was sung by his pastor, Rev. B. Crocken, who also conducted the services at the grave.

The pall bearers were Ralph Mooney, Roderick Steele, Andrew MacDonald, Bernard MacDonald, Syl. MacDonald and Anstern MacDonald.

May his soul rest in peace

Newedd—I wonder why it is we can't save anything?
Mrs. Newedd—It's the neighbors, dear; they are always doing something we can't afford.
