VALUE OF TESTIMONY

Greater Than Assertion.

There is none of us so hardened but that when we have been able to aid our fellow creatures by conferring a benefit...

"Dear Friends: I address you as much for you have been such to me. I suffered for three years off and on with piles. I was treated at the hospital, and the new and elegant hospital, of Memphis; they only gave me temporary relief. I came west thinking the change of air and water would benefit me; five months ago the bleeding piles came back on me, and bled so much that I thought I would die.

"I have had four of the finest doctors in this section of Texas; all they did was to finally nearly let me go to my grave; all they want-d was a big sum of money from me and to operate on me. I said no, no surgeon's knife would enter me; if it was my time to die God knew it and when I died I would die all together.

"I began hearing about your medicine. I had no faith in you, but I sent and got a box of your Pyramid Pile Cure; in two days the blood flow had slackened to one half the amount, and in one week I felt so much better I walked four blocks and did a little housework. I was not bleeding then; in three weeks I was well.

"God bless you for putting such a wonderful medicine within the reach of suffering men women. I shall never cease to recommend your medicine or be without it; also I used your Pyramid Pills. Sallie A. Heardon, Paris, Texas.

Testimony like this, (for the genuineness of which we vouch) should be more convincing than all claims and assertions, and should leave no doubt in the mind of the reader as to the merit of the remedy. Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for fifty cents a package, or will be mailed by the makers to any address upon receipt of price. Write Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their book on cause and cure of Piles.

THE WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING

Once there was a bad man who was good-looking. Bad men are not always good-looking; but good-looking men are often bad. Perhaps they are bad because they are good-looking. At any rate, that is why our bad man was bad. He was always falling in with women and falling out with men. Men and women would not let him be good. They would only let him be good-looking. He was big and strong, and his legs were straight and his shoulders were broad. His face was the face of a Greek god. His complexion was a rich, clear olive; his eyes brown and bright; his hair short and black; his mouth full-lipped, yet firm.

There was a good-looking girl who lived opposite the good-looking man. The girl was small and dainty and flower-like. Her face was pink-and-white and lovely; her eyes big and blue; her hair light and soft and wavy; her mouth small and red. And the good-looking girl was good. The good-looking man soon found that out. He smirked at the good-looking girl. But she only smiled back, sadly.

And the man became intensely interested in the good-looking girl, and, finally, he spoke to her. "Let me talk to you," he whispered; "I know everything."

"Then I cannot let you talk to me," answered the girl, quietly, "for I know nothing." She paused, and then went on: "But I suspect a lot. I suspect that men are either wolves or sheep; and I suspect that they are mostly wolves; I like sheep."

And the girl walked away. But the man stood still. He was dumfounded. The girl had not fallen in love with him! Instead, she had fallen in love with her! "And she doesn't like wolves!" he mused; "and she does like sheep!" Then he went and donned sheep's clothing.

The good-looking man ceased to smirk at the good-looking girl. But he smiled at her, sadly, even as she smiled at him. And he loved her with all his heart and soul. Finally, he spoke to her again. "I respect and revere you," he whispered.

"And I respect you," said the girl. After that, the good-looking man and the good-looking girl were often together. The man was always courteous and devoted, and the girl was always gentle and kind. They loved each other, dearly.

One day a good-looking woman, who was bad, came to see the good-looking girl, who was good. And the good-looking woman, who was bad, said to the good-looking girl, who was good, "The good-looking man who comes to see you is not good; he is bad. I, too, am bad. But I will not let him be bad with you."

"Oh!" moaned the good girl, "is he then a wolf?" "Yes," snickered the bad woman, "he is a wolf!" "A wolf in sheep's clothing!" sobbed the good girl.

"Yes, a wolf in sheep's clothing!" sneered the bad woman. Before the bad woman left, the good-looking man came. The good-looking man gasped. The bad woman laughed. But the good girl cried.

"So you wear sheep's clothing, eh?" jeered the bad woman. "Do you?" wailed the good girl. "Is it true?" "Yes; it is true," answered the good-looking man; "and I always shall wear it."

"No, you shall not!" snarled the bad woman. "You shall not wear sheep's clothing. You are a wolf!" And she sprang at him and tore off his sheep's clothing.

But for a wolf was revealed—only a sheep!—Harold Melbourne in "Smart Set."

Toronto Citizen—That's a bum light.

"Ah, that is better."

House Mottoes.

Tourists of the contemplative kind are often surprised and sometimes delighted at the unexpected discovery of quaint house mottoes and inscriptions during their wanderings from place to place. Perhaps one of the most curious collections of mural inscriptions mentioned by Miss S. F. A. Caulfield, the author of a work on the subject, is to be found in the ancient city of Galway.

"It has four gates, facing respectively north, south, east and west, and on each was a precatory motto. That facing north bore the words: From the ferocious O'Flahertys, Good Lord, deliver us!

"On the south gate: From the devilish O'Dalys, Good Lord, defend us!

"On the east gate: From the cut-throat O'Kellys, Good Lord, save and keep us!

"And on the west gate: From the murderous O'Maddens, Good Lord, preserve us!"

What a very undesirable collection of neighbors the poor folk of Galway appear to have had!

J. J. McDonald Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pill, has had no return of his Rheumatism and Dr. p. y.

WINDSOR, Ont., Jan. 19.—(Special).—The case of John J. McDonald, a well-known farmer now living at 130 Langlos avenue here, is one more striking proof that Dodd's Kidney Pills will not cure Rheumatism and Dropsy, that they will drive the disease clear out of the system and keep them out.

For two years Mr. McDonald suffered terribly with Rheumatism and Dropsy. His legs were swollen and the pain he suffered was most acute. He used Dodd's Kidney Pills and was cured.

That was five years ago. Speaking recently he says, "I have had no return of the trouble up to the present. I acknowledge that Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me." Cure the Kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills and the Rheumatism will cure itself.

COLDS SETTLE ON THE KIDNEYS.

Hence the Backaches, Rheumatism Pains and Lumbago.

Dr. Chase's

Kidney-Liver Pills.

Prompt to Relieve and of Lasting Benefit.

It is not only the lungs that suffer during the cold, damp season. The kidneys are almost equally susceptible to sudden changes of temperature, and many a serious case of kidney disease has its beginning with a cold, which settles on the kidneys.

Persons working out of doors are most likely to be victims of such trouble, and suffer from headaches, lumbago, rheumatism and crippled, aching limbs, but anyone is liable to set in a draught or expose his back to a current of cold air.

Cold setting on the kidneys causes congestion, a clogging of the filtering organs, and consequent derangement of the whole digestive and excretory systems. The liver fails to work, the bowels become constipated, and the stomach gets upset.

Because of their diet and combined action on these organs, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are of most prompt and most lasting benefit for such derangements. They are positive in their effects, and are backed by the experience and integrity of Dr. Chase, the famous receipt book author.

Mrs. J. Larter, 122 Cross Street, Charlottetown, P. E. I., and whose husband is a contractor, states:—"I had suffered a great deal with pains in the small of my back, my digestion was bad and I was frequently troubled with spells of racking headache. I have been entirely cured of these distressing symptoms by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and find that my general health is greatly improved since I have been using this preparation.

"I can also testify to the merit of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, as I was cured of a severe attack of bronchitis by the use of this remedy."
