Rev. Dr. Hunt of Kings College Windsor, N. S., was a passenger west from this city yesterday morning.

There will be three market days this week, today, the regular market day, also tomorrow and Thursday on account of Christmas coming on Friday.

The Guardian regrets to learn of the illness of Capt. D. A. McKinnon, who is in the P. E. Island Hospital, and hopes to hear of his speedy recovery.

At the morning service in Zion Church Sunday, Rev. Geo. E. Ross, referred in touching terms to the death of the late J. M. Davison who was a member of that church.

Mrs. Capt. Lewis Leard, Centreville, who has been spending a month in New York arrived in this City Saturday and was a passenger west yesterday afternoon to her home.

The coldest temperature registered Sunday night was nine degrees. Yesterday the warmest temperature registered was fifteen degrees above zero and the coldest up to nine o'clock was twelve and a half degrees.

Jenkins and Son's large show window on Sunnyside is teeming with toothsome luxuries for the holiday season. The creams, chocolates, mixed confectionary, fruit and other articles there are of the freshest and best quality and are most temptingly displayed.

The superior furs and high-class furniture displayed by Paton & Co. in their show windows give but a small idea of the many lines carried suitable for the Christmas gift giver. The store is also artistically trimmed and is full of pretty lines of fancy goods of all kinds, so displayed, that choosing is made easy.

The S. S. Northumberland arrived in this port yesterday afternoon at 4.30 from Pictou with the mails, passengers and a large cargo. This is her last trip and she docked on the western side of the Steam Navigation wharf for the winter. It required considerable manoeuvring before she reached her berth as the ice is getting somewhat heavy.

The funeral of the late J. Milton Davison takes place on Wednesday afternoon. At 2.30 service will be held at the house, Revs. George E. Ross and T. F. Fullerton officiating. The funeral will leave his late residence, Westview, 200 Pownall St., at 3 o'clock for the People's Cemetery. The pallbearers will be James Paton, W. S. Stewart, Col. Longworth, George M. Moore, Major Weeks and John T. McKenzie.

On Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock the managers of the big Arena Rink are giving a free skate to the children of the City, under fifteen years of age. Everybody will be admitted free but only children will be allowed to skate. The 4th Regt. Band will be in attendance and render a special program. The managers will be present to see that all have a good time. Every boy and girl under the above age is cordially invited to come.

The annual meeting of the Charlottetown Driving Park and Provincial Exhibition Association was held last evening. The Association had a very successful year. The president moved the adoption of the year's report which was seconded by Hon. F. L. Hazard. The following shareholders spoke on the motion, James Paton, Charles Curtis, F. H.
