Byrd, on leave from the Navy, asked a national emergency rally of 15,000 people in Madison Square Garden, New York, for a spontaneous reawakening of all people, determined on dynamic unity, sweat and sacrifice to fight Nazism. Supreme Court Justice Owen Roberts, pictured above, right, with Byrd at the rally, proposed a "world union" for permanent peace after the war.

Like a fairy-tale monster is this giant's wheel for the world's largest airplane the B-19. Tire and wheel are 96 inches in diameter and weigh 2,700 pounds. Just about 23 times the weight of Dorothy's, she is standing beside the assembly. Before long, wheels of this weight have to be set in motion by a special motor. The B-19, monster U.S. Air Corps lumber, now nearing completion at Douglas factory in California, will have a maximum cruising range of 7,000 miles.
