Charlottetown And Summerside Play 3-All Encounter

When Charlottetown's centre-fielder Calahan dropped Russ McAlister's long fly in the last half of the eighth inning in the fourth game at Summerside yesterday, between Summerside and Charlottetown in the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union championship of Prince Edward Island, it allowed Powell to cross the plate with the tying run, and the game ended in a 3-2 tie.

McAlister had trouble with his control, walking five and hitting three, but he was effective with men on bases, and as a result eleven men were stranded on the bases.

Powell pitched a fine game for the home team, only one earned run scoring off him, the other pair resulting from a dropped fly by Allan in centre field when two were out in the fourth frame.

Allan redeemed himself by a nice running catch of Goodwin's bid for a hit in the fifth. Strain also made a throw with a spectacular effort, stabbing Mickus' long fly to right in the eighth.

The five-game series stands now at two wins and a tie for Summerside and a win and a tie for Charlottetown.

Mrs. Buntain Heads Ladies' Golf Union

TORONTO, Sept. 17 (CP)—The 1948 Canadian ladies' open golf championship and the interprovincial team championships will be held at the Riverside Golf and Country Club, Rothsay, N. B. It was announced tonight following a meeting of the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union at the Toronto Golf Club, site of both events this year. No dates were set for the two tournaments next year.

With officers and delegates from all seven C.L.G.U. branches attending, Mrs. George Buntain, of Charlottetown, P.E.I., was named president, succeeding Mrs. Edwin Crockett of Toronto, who becomes honorary president. Mrs. Buntain is also president of the Maritimes branch.

Mrs. W. F. Young, of Steviacke, N.S., became first vice-president.

Marysville Winner Of N. B. Baseball Title

Seven errors by St. Peter's helped Marysville Royals to take the Saint John baseball machine apart tonight and leave the field with a 4-2 triumph, more than good enough for the New Brunswick senior championship.

The easy win came as an anticlimax to the four previous series which the Saints rallied to square matters after dropping the first two contests.

In dethroning St. Peter's, provincial champs for the last three years, the York County squad earned the right to play either the Halifax Arrows or Truro Bearcats for the Maritime crown.

Investments Didn't Turn Out For Pirates

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 17—Pittsburgh Pirates have found an unhappy answer to the housing shortage by spending at least $620,000 to "buy" cellar quarters which other National League baseball tenants were delighted to lease.

Bucco owners admit that fat figure represents the approximate amount they've put out for men they hoped would give them at least a view of the league pennant race.

Instead, the only sight that meets their anguished eyes is a worm's view of the other clubs striving to make the Bucs' eighth place lease binding for the season.

Pittsburgh paid Brooklyn approximately $300,000 for pitchers Kirby Higbe and Hank Behrman. Early in the season, the Pirates traded Higbe and infielder Eddie Basinski for $300,000 each. Nagy was farmed out and Basinski was released.

Detroit Tigers received $50,000 for Hank Greenberg. New York Yankees netted $20,000 for pitcher Ernie Bonham and $10,000 each for pitchers Mel Queen and Bill Denehy. St. Louis Cards got $40,000 of the Pirate money for catcher Claude Kutz and $30,000 went to Seattle in the Coast League for pitcher Dewey Soriano, who failed to stick. Hollywood in the Coast League got $30,000 for pitcher Manuel Perez, now farmed out.

Martin And McCourt Lead For Trophy

Andy Martin and Jack McCourt look a two games to one lead tonight, in the Brighton Horseshoe Club's doubles tournament, for the Hopper and Larzer Trophy, against Earl Brown and Gerald Gallant.

The remaining games will be played tonight at 8 o'clock. Martin and McCourt won their way to the finals by defeating Ronnie MacDougall and Bennie Shephard two straight games in the semi-finals.

Play for the singles title will see three matches tonight, getting underway at 7. The draw is as follows:

Martin vs. John Stomka, A. Doyle vs. Len Phillips.

Chandler Names Players Eligible For World Series

(By The Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, Sept. 17—It may be a long time before the play begins, but insular Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler is concerned, the numerical strength of Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees in the coming world series will be the same, with 27 athletes on each club.

Chandler named the eligible players today, along with their managers and coaches.

Brooklyn still has to clinch the National League race, but no one seriously considers the Cards a threat any more.

New York won the American League pennant earlier this week. Chandler listed the eligible players for world series play as follows:

Harvey Triand of the National League office, and Edward Lehmann of the American League office, were appointed business representatives for the series by Chandler.

The series umpires will be announced Sept. 28.

Vics Capture Championship

Yesterday afternoon the Vics came from behind to defeat the Alerts and clinch the 1947 Junior softball championship of the Knights of Columbus Recreation Center.

Both teams played stellar ball. However, the winners had a little too much for their opponents and in the seventh capitalized on a couple of slow plays to run in three runs and clinch the verdict.

They lined up as follows: Vics—C. Joseph, G. Connors, C. Roberts, D. Drew, R. Leclair, M. MacDonald, A. Coady, L. Clarke, H. Murnaghan.

Alerts—R. Clark, C. MacDougall, J. Gallant, D. Clarke, K. Tulle, C. Weatherbie, D. Nicholson, H. Pineau, J. Wood.

Mize Slams Two Homers To Tie Pirates' Kiner

(By The Canadian Press)
A six-run ninth inning rally which temporarily tied the score availed New York Giants nothing yesterday as Chicago Cubs came back in their half of the ninth with a two-run homer by Bill Nicholson to win a 12-10 slugfest match and gain a split in the National League doubleheader.

The Giants won the opener 9-3. Johnny Mize banged a homer in each game to tie the Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh for the major league lead with 49.

Southpaw Johnny Vander Meer turned in his second successive 4-hitter and his second triumph in a row as Cincinnati Reds blanked Philadelphia Phillies 12-0. He checked out New York Giants with four hits last Saturday.

Brooklyn's pace-setting Dodgers defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-2 before a crowd of 33,916 last night at the Civic Field.

The Dodgers took the lead in the fourth inning as first baseman Jackie Robinson lined a home-run into "Greenberg gardens" with no one aboard, a feat duplicated by team-mate Don Lund in the sixth.

Reynolds Takes Lead Over Page In Strikeouts

(By The Canadian Press)
Allie Reynolds, the ace right-hander of New York Yankees, recaptured his rank as the team's leading strikeout pitcher yesterday by fanning nine batters in pitching a 5-0 shutout American League victory over Chicago White Sox.

Reynolds, who chalked up his 18th victory against only seven losses, now has 122 strikeouts, compared with 114 for relief pitcher Lefty Joe Page.

Detroit Tigers were knocked off their second-place perch by Philadelphia Athletics who twice came from behind to sweep a doubleheader, 6-4 and 8-6.

Detroit grabbed a 3-0 lead in the first frame of the nightcap but the Athletics shelled Virgil Trucks from the mound and helped Phil Marchiondi to his 19th victory of the season.

Joe Dobson allowed only one hit—a broken bat single to right field by Wally Judnich—as Boston Red Sox defeated St. Louis Browns 4-0 in the second game of a doubleheader. The Browns took the opener 9-4, behind Bob Muncrief.

Limited to one hit by Ray Scarborough in the first five innings, Cleveland blasted him for five runs in the sixth and added two more runs off Milo Candini in the seventh to defeat Washington 7-0.

Colonel Dan Wins Race At Sydney

(By The Canadian Press)
SYDNEY, N. S., Sept. 17—Colonel Dan outstayed Peter-at-Court in straight heats today to win the match race in a program of light harness racing staged by Cape Breton horsemen.

There were no two-heat winners in a series of five one-mile dashes with a purse of $100 for each.

Anne K. Dewey and Gertie Raemore each won a heat in the No. 1 Classified; Buck P.C. Gratton and Helen Signal were winners in the No. 2 event; No. 3 Classified honors were divided by Dr. L. B. and Corporal Owen; Bowden Square and Dr. Wilson won heats in the No. 4 and Grace Abbe and Dinah G. led in the two heats of the No. 5 event.

Time Counts Winner Jr. Free-For-All At Covehead Yesterday

Pacing the three fastest miles marked up in the Macmillan's year Time Counts, repeating his victory of Old Home Week racing program, yesterday raced off with the Junior Free for All at the Covehead racing meeting, over a field of five other horses, over a stretch of 1100 yards.

Pacing the first mile in 2:07 1-5 as he staved off the closing challenge of Scott Spencer in the nesting great duels of the major league leadership. Here he marks the calendar to show how long he has to break Babe Ruth's all-time homer record of 60.

World Series Sold Out

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 17—If you haven't ordered your ticket for the 1947 World Series, don't bother. There aren't any left.

The bad news came late today from general manager John Collins of Brooklyn Dodgers, who announced that his over-worked staff would not accept any more applications after midnight tonight.

The Dodgers began accepting World Series applications last Monday.

New York Yankees have long been sold out.

Bobby Riggs and Alice Marble completed a sweep of the Wimbledon and United States tennis singles championships at Forest Hills, N. Y., eight years ago today. Riggs turned back Wally Van Horn in straight sets to succeed Don Budge as national champion, while Miss Marble defeated former champion Helen Jacobs, 6-0, 5-10, 6-4.

Time Counts Winner Jr. Free-For-All At Covehead Yesterday

The disastrous accident marred the final heat of the race. After the mishap Prince Budlong took over the lead and in another great stretch battle got under the wire in front of June Morning, with Rilla Bars finishing third and C. Albert Budlong being placed fourth. Miss Knox, Shirley H. Temple and Talugi were ruled out by the judges.

Junior Free For All
Taking the field away Walnut Abbe led the field around the first turn in the first heat but Time Counts took over from there to open up a big lead; going up the backstretch the second trip Kavola and Scott Spencer took out after the flying leader but after getting to his wheel, Time Counts again paced away in the stretch to win by two lengths in 2:07 1-5 with the first half being in 1:02 1-5.

In the second and third heats Time Counts was never headed. Scott Spencer was the contending horse in both but couldn't get up to the smooth-pacing machine in the final race for the wire.
