

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN PICTURES FOR GUARDIAN READERS

HITS 120 MILE-AN-HOUR CLIP TO WIN FEATURE

This car, driven by Jack Dunfee, is travelling at 120 miles an hour to win the 500-mile race at Brooklands, England, recently. The boys in the rear are doing their best, but Jack has all his dampers open.

YOUTHFUL WONDER

This youngster is "Charlie" Ledgeworth, of Trenton, Ont. He is only 15 years of age and weighs 260 pounds.

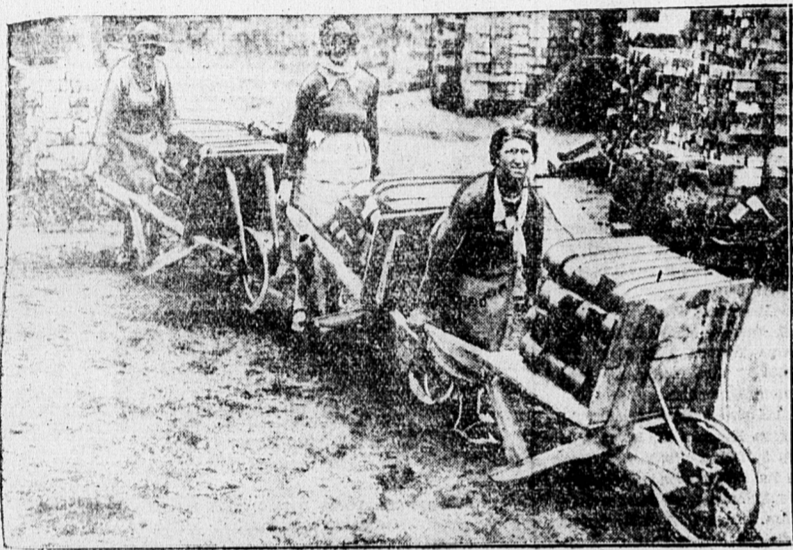

EXCITING TIME WHEN ARSENAL MEETS EVERTON

This game really ought to be played to music. Look at these ladies rising to the occasion during recent Arsenal-Everton clash at Highbury, England.

TROUBLES ARE OVER FOR THE WINTER

Reach for an apple, they're kind to your throat, say these happy jobless as they pull out of the Union station, Toronto, for North Bay, vanguard of trans-Canada highway workers.

PRODUCE FINEST HAND MADE PRODUCT IN WORLD

Not scenes of labor in Communist Russia, but brickmakers in England, in the village of Amblesote, to several others. Stourbridge. Women villagers constitute main body of employees in local fire brick works and have reputation for producing finest hand-made fire bricks in the world.

INDICTED AS BABY KILLER

Vincent Coll, young gang chief, who was indicted before a New York court as one of the members of gang responsible for shooting in Harlem recently which resulted in the death of one child and injury to several others.

SPEND HAZARDOUS MONTHS IN NORTH

LEFT TO RIGHT, Dr. Georgi, Peter Freuchen and Dr. Sorge, who were members of the Professor Alfred Wegener-Greenland expedition pictured when they arrived at Copenhagen on their return to civilization. Dr. Wegener was lost during the hazardous journey of the expedition and it was not until seven months following his disappearance that the body was found.

GETS READY FOR INTERNATIONAL TESTS

The South African rugby team in England opens its practice at Weston-super-Mare with some of that good old Springbok action. G. H. Brand is making a pace.

COMPETES IN CONTEST IN LONDON, ENGLAND

Hold it! Little Jackie Green of Glasgow, St. Francis band went all the way to London to compete in the band contest and look at him! All kinds of power here.

STUFFED MONKEYS RIDE GREYHOUNDS

The monkey is stuffed, but the dog isn't. This is a new idea on London, England, greyhound race tracks. And monkey has it over a turkey like a wren—he's tied on.

LAYS WREATH ON FRENCH WAR MEMORIAL

M. Lavigne, mayor of Quebec, signing the golden book after placing a wreath on the tomb of the French Unknown Soldier at the Arc de Triomphe, Paris.

SPENDS MONTHS IN EXPLORATION AND STUDY

Dr. William Mann, director of the United States National Zoo in Washington, D. C. returned after more than two months spent in the British Guiana interior, bringing with him 80 crates of wild animals including some rare specimens of animals which live there. Photo shows (LEFT TO RIGHT) Dr. Mann, Frank Lowe, assistant head keeper at the zoo, and Mrs. Mann, with one of the animals, on S. S. Munamar on arrival in New York.

THIS FELLOW SEEMS TO BE FRIENDLY

Here's a horse with something on its nose and he doesn't care who knows it either. Jeanette Macdonald and her mount talk over things after a ride in the Row, London, England.

WINS ENGLISH PLOWING MATCHES

Meet Marian and Cleopatra winning the plowing match at Thorpe and Egham, England, agricultural show. They were narrowed down to...